Trustees Announce Retirement of Akers and Rowley

The retirement of Dr. Oscar Perry Akers, professor of mathematics and surveying since 1907, and Miss Edith Rowley, associate professor and librarian since 1906, was announced Saturday at the spring meeting of the board of trustees.

The trustees approved the appointment of Dr. Akers as professor emeritus and of Miss Rowley as associate professor emeritus.

Dr. Akers came to Allegheny in 1905 from Cornell University, where he had received the degree of doctor of philosophy and had served as an assistant. He holds baccalaureate and master degrees from the University of Colorado. Since 1918 he has been secretary of the Allegheny faculty.

Miss Rowley was graduated from Allegheny in 1905 and affer a year of study at the Albany State Library school she returned here as assistant librarian. She has been librarian since 1907 and has held the rank of associate professor since 1928. During the year 1918-19 she was acting dean of women, and for many years she was in charge of alumni relations.

Paul Cares was promoted to the rank of assistant professor of history. Dr. Cares has been an instructor at Allegheny since 1934 and a member of the faculty since 1932.

President Tolley announced that Harold State, assistant professor of chemistry who has been on leave this year, would return for the summer session following completion of special research studies at the University of Illinois.

Dr. Tolley disclosed that because of emphasis on scientific courses in all pre-induction training, the faculty has voted to revive the use of the bachelor of science degree.

He said that about 20 of the 130 prospective graduates majoring in scientific subjects selected the bachelor of science degree in preference to the regular bachelor of arts degree.

His semi-annual report was concerned largely with problems confronting the college as a result of the war and an enumeration of steps taken to adjust the college program to the emergency.

Nancy Martin To be Crowned May Day Queen

Nancy Martin has been selected Allegheny's May Queen by the students and will be crowned in the May Day ceremonies, Saturday evening, beginning at 7:30.

Following the coronation of the queen attended by her court in the Alumni gardens, and selections by the Singers, the semi-formal May Day dance will be held in Brooks hall at 9:00 p. m. The Music Makers will play.

Selected for the queen's court are Kathryn Hill, Sarah Emerson, Virginia Viets, Helen Shaffer, Phyllis Black, and Virginia Kiser. Ruth Gelbach and Dorothy Horner will be the queen's pages.

The May Day program is being arranged by the Women's Athletic association, with Betty Mae McComb general chairman. Assisting committees are: dance, Jane Heibel, chairman, Joan Bliss, Jean Merrill; garden decorations, Virginia Chester, chairman, Mildred Wright, June Patterson; program in the gardens, Dorothy Schuchman.

Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Seely and Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Cares will be chaperones at the dance.

Curriculum Altered For Emergency

Several of the existing courses will be expanded and a few new ones added in order to train Allegheny students for specific military positions was the answer of President William P. Tolley, in an interview Tuesday, to the question of pre-induction military training raised last week.

Also planned for the near future is the inclusion of the Army's new training program for flying cadets, announced since our last issue, and the enlargement of the Civilian Pilot Training program.

The physical education program will be expanded next fall and calisthenics introduced. Students who desire fundamentals of drill may be taught them in this period.

Expansion of present courses in astronomy and meteorology is planned for the fall program, with a strong possibility that astronomy will be given in summer school. Both these courses are of aid to students, since a knowledge of astronomy is of value to pilots, and since a large number of meteorologists will be needed by the military services.

Money has already been received from Andrew W. Robertson to build a complete darkroom which will be used in teaching the fundamentals of aerial photography.

There is a likelihood that a machine shop will be erected on the campus to acquaint students with the actual workings of airplane engines.

Petitions favoring pre-induction military training here at Allegheny will be collected this week-end and turned in to the student-faculty defense committee for discussion.

Noted Organist To Give Recital

Charles A. H. Pearson, head of the organ department at Carnegie Tech, will give a vesper recital Sunday at 4:00 p. m. in the chapel.

"Mr. Pearson's appearances before the American Guild of Organists have won him a distinct position as organ recitalist," commented Edward Johe of the music department here.

1. Prelude and Fugue in F Minor, J. S. Bach.
2. Lullaby, Lazare Saminsky.
3. Scherzo in G Minor, Enrico Bossi.
4. Two Movements from Fourth Concerto, G. F. Handel.
   Allegro.
   Andante.
5. To the Setting Sun, Garth Edmundson.
6. Choral No. 1 in E Major, Cesar Franck.
7. Evening Angelus, Joseph Bonnet.
8. Finale from Eighth Symphony, Charles M. Widor.

Robertson, Foster Vie For AUC Office Tomorrow

Hill Eliminated in Balloting Yesterday; Voting in Bookstore between 1:30 and 3:30 p. m.

John Foster, '43, and William Robertson, '44, will compete for the office of president of the Allegheny Undergraduate council in an election to be held tomorrow afternoon in the college bookstore from 1:30 to 3:30.

George Hill,' 43, was eliminated in a previous election yesterday afternoon in the bookstore and tomorrow's balloting follows the ruling that the two candidates with the highest number of votes meet in a run-off election.

The new president will begin his duties this Sunday evening when the first meeting of the incoming council will be held in Bentley hall.

Foster, a member of Phi Kappa Psi, has been a varsity basketball player for the past two years. He is a member of the Outing club and Block A club, and was a member of freshman and sophomore debate teams.

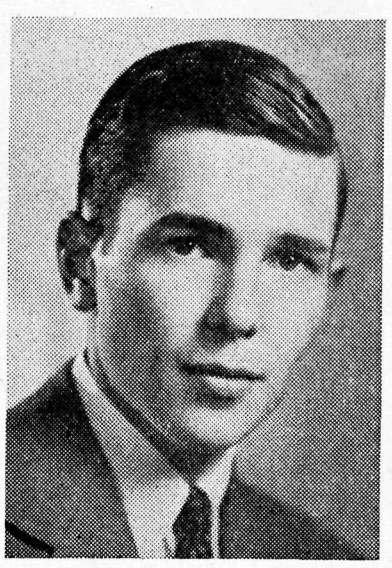

Robertson is president of Philo-Franklin union for the coming year. He was a member of this year's AUC as president of the present sophomore class and was elected treasurer of the council. He is a candidate for the varsity track and was a member of his freshman swimming team. He is a member of Phi Delta Theta.

Hill's and Foster's petitions were turned in last Sunday and nominating speeches were given by the three candidates last Tuesday in chapel.

A joint banquet of the incoming and outgoing members of the AUC was held at the country club last Tuesday night, which was attended by all three nominees to the presidency. Philip M. Benjamin of the faculty, a strong supporter of the council in its formative years, was guest speaker.

Newest members to be added to the council during the past week were Dorothy Ketcham '43, recently-elected president of Associated Women students, and Robert Morris, '43, playshop representative. This makes the group roster complete.

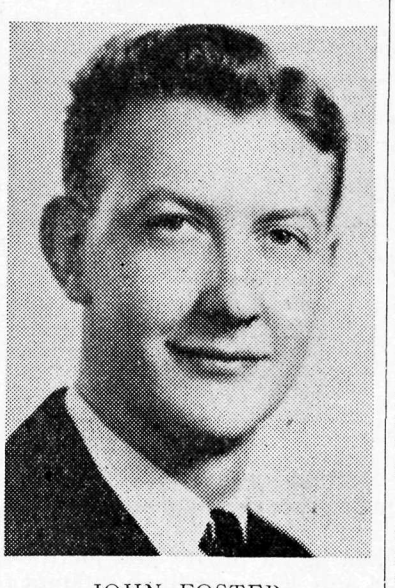

Statements of Candidates

WILLIAM ROBERTSON

"Next year the student body shall be confronted with many abnormal problems caused by the intensified academic program. I believe the AUC can help tremendously if it exercises its rights, gives active aid to the college administration, and if it acts as a governing body that is responsive to student opinion."

Bill Robertson.

JOHN FOSTER

"The AUC of next year will be confronted with the challenge of directing a constructive and thorough student program. This is a job which, particularly in wartime, will demand close cooperation between the students and the faculty. In my opinion, the function of the AUC should be not only to insure that cooperation but also to meet the financial, administrative, and social problems which will arise."

John Foster.

Summer School Accomodations Announced

Students who plan to attend summer school here should make room reservations at the office of the registrar in Bentley hall, beginning tomorrow.

Brooks hall dining room will be open for summer school students for the regular summer session. Meals will be served cafeteria style three times a day. Arrangements for meals will be made by the semester and a system of identification cards will be used by the student patrons.

Summer school students will room in Caflisch and Walker halls.

Board and room for summer sessions will amount to $11 per week, including $7.50 for board and $3.50 for room. Minimum tuition fee is $30 for three semester hours of credit. For each additional hour of credit the charge is $10.

Pre-summer session student's board and room also amounts to $11 per week. Tuition for the short session is $10 for each hour of credit.

All present freshmen and all incoming freshmen are required to take a summer physical education course for which the student receives one hour of credit. Cost is $10 for the entire session. This course will begin with the start of the regular summer session on June 9.

Registration for the three summer terms is much larger than in previous years, due mainly to the attempt to graduate in the shortest possible time.

Seventy-six have registered for the pre-summer school session to date, including twelve women and sixty-four men.

One hundred and seventy-three have registered for the first semester of the regular session, including one hundred and twenty-nine men and forty-four women. Registration for the second semester is slightly less, with a total of one hundred and thirty-seven registered, consisting of one hundred and nine men and twenty-eight women.

Ketcham Chosen A.W.S. President In Recent Runoff's

Also chosen in the runoffs were Caroline Emerson, '44, recording secretary; Anne Rinehart, '44, treasurer; and Anne Stidger, '45, corresponding secretary.

Wilmah Beck, '43, as runner-up for the position of president, will be the vice-president of the A.W.S. and president of the senior court.

Runners-up in this final election were: Miss Beck for president; Joan Bliss, '44, for recording secretary; Marjorie Jenkins, '44, for treasurer; and Marianne Kocher, '45, for corresponding secretary.

V-7 APPLICATIONS

Applications for V-7 candidates class in the Navy will not be accepted after tomorrow. Those interested should inquire at the registrar's office immediately.

Ladder Oration To Feature Class Day

The annual ladder oration will feature the Class day program next Thursday in chapel when Robert Welday, president of the incumbent senior class, will present the token to Richard Nichols, president of next year's senior class.

The class gift and flag will also be presented, and Phi Beta Kappa and other awards announced. Short speeches by members of the class will be made.

Beta Kappa and Theta Chi Merge

Xi chapter of Beta Kappa fraternity today released the statement that a merger is now being effected between their national fraternity and that of Theta Chi. The resulting organization will rank about twelfth in size of all national fraternities and will use the name of Theta Chi.

A definite date for the induction of Xi chapter has not been set and not many details are available concerning the merger.

Eight Named for Women's Senate

Eight students were elected to the women's senate in the balloting Tuesday.

Of the present juniors, Nancy Colwell, Catherine Cavelti, and Carolyn Pierce were chosen for the senate, defeating Betty Ann Rooney and Betty Hughes.

Freshmen Barbara Bender and Virginia Pechin were elected Tuesday, while Mary Louise Hartsfeld and Dorothy Devlin tied for the third freshman position on the group. Runoffs between the two will take place at a date to be announced.

Tomorrow's Election

Two good men are up for election by the student body for presidency of the Allegheny Undergraduate council in the run-offs tomorrow.

The nomination of such men again proves the merits of the petition system, inaugurated only last year in an attempt to make determination of candidates for the position more democratic, in the fact that two of the original three candidates were chosen by this method.

Choosing between these two men on the basis of merit tomorrow will be a difficult task. It will be very difficult to prevent personal feelings toward the nominees influence the voting.

Yet, the students must do the more difficult thing and vote for the candidate best qualified for the job as they see him. Fraternity politics must not enter into this election.

The man who is elected president of the incoming council will have a big job on his hands—bigger, probably, than that of any president for a good many years. College life will be different next year. Tougher problems will be faced than have been met under normal situations. The war will affect Allegheny more than we can guess at this time.

It is therefore essential that the man best suited for the position be given it. He can be selected better by honest evaluation by the student voter of the qualifications of the candidates than by fraternity politics.

We want the next president of the AUC to be chosen by the independent votes of the majority of students and not by a coalition of fraternities, pledged to vote for a certain man.

We want the next president of the AUC to represent the student body and to have the interests of the student body foremost in his mind.

If independent, students will pick the man whom they feel would have the interests of the student body at heart, merely through personal acquaintance with him. If fraternity coalitions dominate the election, however, the winning candidate will not only feel indebted to a certain group on the campus, but will not truly represent the majority of the student body.

Elections for the presidency of the AUC have been clean in the past few instances. We wish that they be kept clean in this election also.

Pre-Induction Training

Reference to the interview with President Tolley in a story on page 1 represents the viewpoint of the administration in regard to the advisability of voluntary pre-induction military training at Allegheny.

The administration's plans sound good and the idea behind them of fitting the individual for some specialized task in the Army or Navy is a sound one. If these plans are carried out, the student will probably be more directly benefited than he would be by a general basic training course.

The flying cadet training plan of the Army, which was announced last Sunday, will aid a large number of our student body when the course is added to the Allegheny program. The Army's program is intended to train not only pilots, but also mechanics, and other members of airplane crews.

It remains to be seen, then, how widely these new courses will range among the student body in training them for specific positions in the military picture. If many students still feel that they are not provided for after these changes have been made, then we will feel that pre-induction military training is essential to Allegheny. We will not drop the subject, but will wait to see the results of the changes proposed by the administration.

We still think it desirable to have a course in contemporary military strategy and tactics brought into the curriculum in an effort to follow the course of the war and keep abreast of the latest developments.

Results of the petitions circulated this week have shown that the majority of men students are not enthusiastic over pre-induction training. In accordance with their wishes, we will wait and see how successful the plans of the administration prove.

Booklet to Help New Students

Aiming to help new students adjust themselves readily to campus life, the book will contain tips on Allegheny tradition, clothing, etiquette, "do's and dont's" and special sections for transfer and town girls.

Also to be included are articles on the necessary things to bring to college and words to Allegheny fraternity songs. It will act as a supplement rather than a repetition of material in the handbook and will feature more personal material rather than facts and figures.

The booklet will be sent to next year's registered freshman and transfer girls during the summer.

Officers, Members of Philo-Franklin Union Elected for Next Year

New officers of Philo-Franklin union for the coming year are: president, William Robertson, '44; secretary-treasurer, Eleanor Evans, '44; and publicity chairman, Orison McClean, '44.

Donald Mogg, '45, Haskel Hoffenberg, '44, Orison McClean, '44, Esther Lee, '44, and Alice Kay Matthews, '44, have recently been elected to membership in the union. Marian Mumford, '42, James Aiken, '42, and Shirley Silver, '42, were chosen as honorary members.

Retiring senior members of the union are: Nancy Martin, Arthur Diskin, Howard Beebe, Stuart Schaffner, and Robert Plyler.

During this year, members of the union appeared in 35 intercollegiate debates and in 49 speakers' bureau programs, before audiences totaling 28,000 people.

Appleyard Heads Student Cabinet

Robert B. Appleyard, a graduate of Allegheny in 1940, was elected president of the student cabinet for the coming year, official governing organization of the student body of Union Theological Seminary, William A. Spurrier, president, announced today.

At present, Appleyard, is a student assistant at Christ Church (Methodist) in New York City the pastor of which is the famed minister, Dr. Ralph Washington Sockman.

David Edward Is Johe Baby

Mrs. Dorothy Dotterrer Johe, a graduate of Allegheny in '39, and Edward Johe, of the music department, became the parents of a son, David Edward, last Saturday morning.

Mrs. Johe is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta.

Vaguely Speaking

VAGUELY SPEAKING this week is being written from the most used and talked about part of this college, at this point. I don't mean the rustic bridge either. The place in question is the SUN DECK of Brooks—a Coney Island on bricks. So, fellows, if your girl can't be found between the hours of 12-3 o'clock, have her paged on the sundeck, 'cause you can bet your boots that that's where she is.

It's amusing to hear the little men working in the uncompleted part of Brooks, Hulings, and Walker. The building just overlooks the sun deck. Every so often the girls will hear a workman yell, "Hey, Joe, come over and work on THIS side of the building. It's MUCH nicer!" And you can be sure Joe comes.

The athletic awards to seniors were presented at the W.A.A. dinner. Girls that got 2200 points could have anything as a gift, the idea being that the gift they chose would be a reminder of college days. Practically all chose badminton sets except HELEN SHAFFER, who chose a sleeping bag.

Congratulations to the JOHES! The stork arrived there on Saturday. A member of the Singers sent the proud parents the following telegram: "A thing of beauty is a Johe forever."

Students are only too well aware of the fact that book store bills must be paid BEFORE final exams. The penalty of not doing this is that one may not take their exams. DALE BYERS has been working on a new angle of this. What he wants is to have the same hold true for professors. If they don't pay their book store bills, they may not give final exams. Interesting?

WANTED: The person that took a large tan coat from the Kepler checkrooms. Dr. Cares is very, very concerned over same. Information please!!

SHIFTY SCHAFMEISTER has been practicing as well as putting into use a new mode of cutting. I'm not referring to classes, 'cause students aren't cutting this semester. What I mean is HAIR. She is giving 'feather cuts' right and left—in fact, all over the head. It's cool, economical and quick (can be done in a minute's notice, or, "Where is that scissor?")

Several of the student body were very much disturbed on Saturday evening at the traffic on the rustic bridge. May we here inform the couples that may have been roused that the traffic was merely a scavenger hunt of the Theta U's. The scavengers were merely looking for the number board on which the old swastika was located. (They also counted the steps in the alumni gardens). You see, THEY had official business there.

Singers Present Final Program

The last concert of the Allegheny Singers will be presented this Sunday in the First Methodist church of Erie at 8:00 p. m.

Edward Johe, manager of the group, will present a half-hour of organ music preceding the choral program.

Softball Slants:

After threatening all afternoon, the weather man stepped in during the second inning of the Phi Psi-S. A. E. game and forced it to be called off. Lucky it was for the Sigs that the rain descended, for they were trailing by an insurmountable margin even at that early stage of the game. "Hank" Frye was pitching superb ball and it looked as if the Phi Psis were heading toward an easy victory.

The Phi Delts upset all the dope when they nipped the Phi Psis, 4-3, in 11 innings just one week ago. Errorless support gave Ray Peterson this well-earned mound victory.

The Chi Rhos lost another tough one on Friday when Lefty Stone of the Sigs outpitched Joe Nasta, 5-3. Charley Foye singled home the winning runs in the seventh with two men out.

Nasta won a major victory, however, in the intramural meeting last Friday. His protest of the Chi Rho-Phi Psi game was justly granted by the committee and will be replayed soon. The protest was based upon the fact that the Chi Rhos tying run was cut off because a Phi Psi infielder accidentally tripped the Chi Rho runner.

Gator Squad Meets Pitt, Tech Netters

Locals Trounce Rockets, 9-0, for Initial Victory

The Gator netmen face two Pittsburgh opponents this week as they swing into the last half of their six-game season. Today they meet the powerful Panther net squad of the University of Pittsburgh, and Saturday they will play host to the Carnegie Tech Tartans.

After their overwhelming triumph over hapless Slippery Rock, 9-0, last Saturday, the locals move on to their succeeding matches with a .500 average and a good chance to better the mark by season's end.

Both the Pitt and Tech matches will find the Gators facing opponents of approximately the same strength and will probably be much closer than the Oberlin and Slippery Rock contests.

Last year Pitt triumphed over the Alleghenians, 7-2, when McEwen and the doubles combination of Flint and Blank were the only Blue and Gold victors.

The Pitt squad this year has veterans Trimble, Geance, Nickerson, and Reese returning and have filled in the two vacancies from last year's squad with able underclassmen.

The Panthers, with consistently strong net contingents, seem to be fortified unusually well this year and will go into the meeting this afternoon a decided favorite, but the Gators, who have been coming along fast in the past two weeks, still have a good chance to cop the victory.

The Tech match will also bring the Gators against four veterans of last year. Durker, Moses, Harwig, and Harre of the Plaid saw service against the Blue and Gold last year and forced the Gators to the limit to take the match, 5-4. Supporting these men are two of last year's alternates, Gilman and Kaplan, and a newcomer, Renner, filling the number 2 singles spot.

Tech last week scored a 5-4 victory over a tough Grove City net squad and has shown a much stronger team this year than it did last.

The Gators this week have been further polishing their games and expected to face the Pittsburgh contingents in the best form they have shown all season.

Saturday, against Slippery Rock, the Gators had an easy time of it and with the exception of the number 1 singles and doubles match swept their matches with ease.

Blank, playing at the number one post, found his opponent, Cottrell, a tough nut to crack and was forced to set scores of 6-4, 8-6, before he could win.

The Rocket doubles team of Cottrell and Stoner showed surprising strength against the lethargic Blank-Caravacci duo, who fought off three set points before they finally won, 6-1, 2-6, 10-8.

The summary of scores:

Blank defeated Cottrell, 6-4, 8-6.

Caravacci defeated Stoner, 8-6, 6-0.

Fauver defeated Macaluso, 6-3, 6-2.

Brokas defeated Hallstein, 6-2, 6-1.

Conroy defeated Mixie, 6-0, 6-1.

McKnight defeated De Sue, 6-3, 6-1.

Doubles:

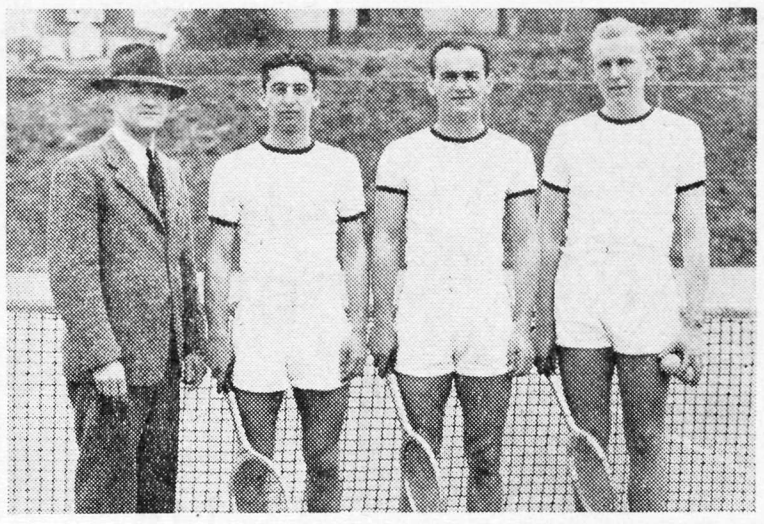

Blank and Caravacci nosed out Cottrell and Stoner, 6-1, 2-6, 10-8.

Negro Singers On ACC Program

Allegheny's Christian council will conclude its chapel services for the year this Sunday, May 3, at 10:30 a. m., when the Rev. Randall of the Church of God will speak. Assisting the Rev. Randall will be a group of singers from Meadville's three negro churches.

Kenyon To Face Gator Trackmen

Tech Tops Gators, 70-56, in Close Meet On Tuesday

Closing the current track season in their second start, the Gator trackmen face Kenyon here Saturday afternoon before a High School day crowd in an attempt to garner a .500 mark for the campaign.

Losers in a close meet at Tech Tuesday by a 70-56 margin, the Gators are looked upon as favorites in the Saturday fixture if one big "if" is straightened out satisfactorily.

The big "if" is Rangy Don Turk who was injured in the Tartan clash this week after getting the locals off to a good start in that contest.

Turk, who fell in the low hurdle event, wrenched his knee and cut himself severely and Coach Al Werner sadly predicted yesterday that it might be possible the big boy may not be able to compete in the Kenyon meet.

Before his accident Turk had started his one-man track afternoon in fine style, winning the 100-yard dash and placing third in the discus event on a single throw.

He hadn't been able to compete in the javelin, his specialty, and had only taken the one toss in the discus trials. That effort was good enough to come within three feet of the winning throw.

In the other events of the meet, the local cindermen were able to take their share of the first places but lacked the second and third place winners in the running events especially which would have bolstered their total score.

The Gators dominated the jumps and pole vault to more than hold their own in the field events but this was not enough to offset the track deficiencies as the Techmen finally won the day's decision.

Last year against the Kenyon Lords the Gators scored a close 66-60 victory over the Ohioans by virtue of a strong finish in the field events. This year the locals are even stronger in this department and will be pointing for another win over the visitors this Saturday.

Kenyon may be expected to be strong in the running events which they took last year with a comfortable margin but if Turk is able to enter the hurdles and dashes this weekend the Alleghenians should be able to keep astride the fast-stepping Lords.

In the middle distances the Blue and Gold will have the services of John Caughey who won the 440 against Tech in 53.2 and finished only strides behind the winner in the 880 which was run in the exceptional time of 2:04.4.

The strength of the Gators in the field events rests on the performances of Pierce, Roemer, Turk, MacPherson, Strong and Cramer.

Against Tech, these men took firsts in the javelin, pole vault, broad jump and high jump. In addition, they scored seconds in the shotput, broad jump, high jump and pole vault and thirds in the discus and broad jump events.

DON'T QUIT COLLEGE
if you are 17 THRU 19 and want to become a Naval Officer!

You can serve your country best by acting on this new Navy Plan now!

YOU WANT to fight for your country! Are you willing to work for it? To toughen yourself physically? To train yourself mentally for a real job in the United States Navy? If you are, the Navy wants you to enlist now. You don't have to quit college. You can stay in college, continue your studies to prepare for active duty in the air or on the sea.

And your college will help you do it! In cooperation with the Navy, it offers all freshmen and sophomores who are seventeen and not yet twenty, special training that may win for you the coveted Wings of Gold of a Naval Aviation Officer or a commission as a Deck or Engineering Officer.

How to Become an Officer

To get this special Navy training, you enlist now as an Apprentice Seaman. Then you may continue in college, but you will include special courses stressing physical development, mathematics and physics. After you successfully complete 1½ calendar years in college, you will be given a classification test.

Aviation Officers

If you qualify by this test, you may volunteer to become a Naval Aviation Officer. In this case, you will be permitted to finish the second calendar year of college work before you start your training to become a Flying Officer.

However, at any time during this two-year period, you may have the option to take immediately the prescribed examination for Aviation Officer... and, if successful, be assigned for Aviation training. Students who fail in their college courses or who withdraw from college will also have the privilege of taking the Aviation examination. Applicants who fail to qualify in this test will be ordered to active duty as Apprentice Seamen.

Deck or Engineering Officers

Those who qualify in the classification test and do not volunteer for Aviation will be selected for training to be Deck or Engineering Officers. In that case, you will continue your college program until you receive your bachelor's degree, provided you maintain the established university standards.

Those whose grades are not high enough to qualify them for Deck or Engineering Officer training will be permitted to finish their second calendar year of college. After this, they will be ordered to duty as Apprentice Seamen, but because of their college training, they will have a better chance for rapid advancement. At any time, if a student should fail in his college courses, he may be ordered to active duty as an Apprentice Seaman.

Pay starts with active duty.

It's a real challenge! It's a real opportunity! Make every minute count by doing something about this new Navy plan today.
