Dear Miss Tarbell:

I enclose your author's proof on "The Economic Test". You will see that quite a bit of editing has been incorporated in the text, and in addition there are a few other points that our proof-room has raised that we ask you to consider. We do hope that you won't think that the editing has hurt the story, because we are very enthusiastic about the piece.

Thank you for your letter.

Sincerely yours,

H. H. White
