Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
120 East 19th Street,
New York City.

My dear Miss Tarbell:

I am sorry that I have had to keep you waiting so long for an answer on your scripts. But I have sent them to he Pittsburgh office and am waiting to know which one they select.

I shall probably know some time this week - both as to script and date - and you may be sure I will communicate with you as soon as I do. We will let you know far in advance of your appearance.

We appreciate your cooperation in this more than I can say.

Cordially,

Dorothy Worthington
