Dear Mr. Greening:

Thank you for your letter and for reviewing our past points of contact. Of course I remember Anna Huxet of Titusville.

It is gratifying to know that my review of the Eisenschiml's book interested you enough to call out a comment. It was the mischievous methods that I was hitting at - all right for a mystery story but unfit for sober history, particularly history as tragic as that of the assassination of Abraham Lincoln.

Thanking you again for your letter, believe me

Very sincerely yours
