

January 2, 1930

Dear Mr. Reynolds;

Mrs. Meloney telephoned me about the Lincoln letters and yesterday I saw Mary Day Winn of the Herald Tribune staff who seems to think she can make something out of the interview and the material that I gave her. I do not want the fee myself for the material. Mrs. Meloney and Miss Winn are both friends of mine and I would prefer that you let it go or if anybody is to get anything out of it, let it be Miss Winn. Of course, you should have your commission. I do not know how that could be arranged but you probably will.

As to the life of the "very eminent American," that you told her I was writing - she did not know but she guessed at it and we had a talk yesterday, which I was very glad to have. So that is all right.

Very sincerely yours

Mr. Paul R. Reynolds
599 Fifth Avenue
New York City