Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
120 East 19th Street,
New York City.

Dear Miss Tarbell:-

My attention has just been called, as we go to press with the new printing of the Napoleon book, to the fact that the copyrights on your books which we took over from McClure Phillips has never been transferred to us. Would it not be well to get a transfer of copyright simply for purposes of record on all of the volumes. If you could have such a transfer prepared and sent to us, we will take it up with Washington.

Yours very truly,

THE MACMILLAN COMPANY
