Dear Ida Tarbell:

The National Council has been informed that you may be interested in the League of American Writers. Enclosed is a copy of our latest Bulletin, in which there is a full report of the League's activities, and an application blank containing a statement of our aims and the conditions of membership.

You will be interested to know that a Connecticut Chapter of the League has been formed, with Van Wyck Brooks as Chairman, and Theodore E. Ferro as Treasurer. Through Mr. Ferro (Comstock Hill, Norwalk, Conn.) you will be informed of the activities of the Connecticut writers in the League.

Yours sincerely,

Philip Stevenson
