Dear Miss Tarbell

Am sending by mail today all the no-scituate views, except the house that was burned that you described in your letter. I have been to Cohasset to see a party, was sent to Scituate Harbor, Then I was sent to Boston and have finally located a man who has a negative of it, so I called on him and paid him for a print of it but have not recd it yet. It is a copyrighted negative and the only way I could get it was to promise that you would mark it copyrighted if you made use of it, and I trust you will do so.

The one of the Four in the new church at Cohasset, I will make + send with the copy right print of House

The old mill that was burned was taken from an oil painting made by Mrs Dicks the only one that is known of.

Hoping the views are satisfactory

Sincerely

Rep W. E. Woodside
