March 11, 1921

Mr. John H. Van Deventer,
Industrial Management,
120 West 32 St., New York.

Dear Mr. Van Deventer:

I am finally back at my desk, and find your letter of March 4 with the duplicate check. I wrote to the hotel in Kansas City, but have received nothing further so that the letter must have wandered. If it turns up I will destroy the check.

Thank you for calling my attention to the quotation in the Literary Digest from my recent article in Industrial Management. I will look it up as soon as I have a chance. Just now I am kept in the house by the trouble with my head that I had while away, but I am hoping that it will not be long before I can really get down to work. As soon as I am able I will do the article.

Very sincerely yours,

Digital Images, 2010. The Ida M. Tarbell Collection, 1890-1944, Allegheny College Pelletier Library.