November 22, 1938

Dear Mr. Willing:

How good of you to take so much trouble in my behalf.

I am filing your letter with my notes on the little investigation that I have in hand, and I know that in good time it will be useful to me.

Yes, I know Major Putnam's story of the Cooper Union Speech. I talked with him several times about Lincoln and have always been glad of the experience.

It was very pleasant to talk with you the other night at dinner.

Very sincerely yours
