Dear Miss Tarbell:

Thank you very much for your note of October 19th. I was delighted to be of service to you in arranging for the payment which I think has been no more than your due under the circumstances.

I shall be seeing Professor Schlesinger in Cambridge this week and I shall pass along to him your suggestions regarding the title. It seems to me that your point is very well taken.

I shall be expecting to hear from you about November 1st and see the part of the AUTOBIOGRAPHY which is already done.

Cordially yours,

Assistant to the President

Miss Ida M. Tarbell
