Rev. Casimir F. Orlemanski
St. Louis Catholic Church
Lucernemines, Pa.

My dear Father Orlemanski:

I was greatly cheered by your recent letter. It is good to have some one sympathize with the deeper things that I could only hint at in the article that I wrote. And I am so pleased to have it reach the communities which are the very backbone of our nation - the communities in which, as you say, you are trying to do big things in a small way.

Your story of your four small boys who preferred Al Smith buttons to nicklee as a return for picking your berries, is very nice. I am asking them at headquarters to send you some more buttons and some posters, if they have them. I am sending you a couple of little ones that came to my desk the other day.

You are right, my dear Father Orlemanski, we need not despair about the country when our boys rise so quickly to big and fine notions as so many of them do.

Thanking you again for your letter, believe me

Very sincerely yours
