My dear Judge Gary:

Am having such a comfortable time here and don't think I will go to N. Y. before early Sept.

Thanks for your letter. Glad you are going ahead with the hot mills.

Have no doubt you will overcome the labor difficulties. It requires much patience.

Have the new Ver Meer here. Its a beauty.
Am anxious you should see it.

Always Yours Sincerely,

(sgd) H. C. Frick

New York, October 2, 1919.

Dear Judge Gary:

Cordial Congratulations!

You handled yourself well but no better than I expected; you have done your country a great and lasting service.

I was glad to see you said that you would not treat with Gompers or with any of the other Union leaders who came to you as Union men, and that there would be no compromise - that's the kind of stuff!

I go to Prides this evening and will be here again Monday Morning.

Yours sincerely,

(Signed) H. C. Frick.

Dear Judge Gary:

I thank you for the kind invitation to be present at the dinner to be given by the American Iron & Steel Institute in honor of Marshal Foch. Nothing would afford me greater pleasure than to attend, should I find it possible. I have denied myself many of these occasions in late years, and fear it may seem best for me to remain quietly at home. If so, it will be a real deprivation, and I shall be with you in cordial sympathy.

Be assured I highly appreciate the honor, and if it can conveniently be left open for some days I will be grateful for the continuance of the possibility of giving myself this rare pleasure. The occasion will indeed be a memorable one, and I shall be the loser if unable to attend.

With every good wish for you, and great appreciation of what you have done in these years of unusual stress in the administration of the momentous affairs committed to your charge, believe me, with high esteem and most kindly regard,

Sincerely yours,

(sgd) John D. Rockefeller
