

December 1, 1920

Mr. Louis J. Alber,
Coit-Alber Building,
Cleveland, Ohio.

Dear Mr. Alber:

In writing you yesterday I neglected to speak of my subjects for this season's speaking.

You say that the Bureaus have asked that I talk on Industrial Relations. I think that is wise. I should be glad if I could get a list of the places to which I am to go, as early as possible. There are nearly always local or state situations which I could take up if I only knew in advance where and to whom I was to speak.

Yours very truly,