ALLEGHENY TURNS THE TABLES ON DUQUESNE—CLEANEST AND PRETTIEST GAME OF THE SEASON.

The big game of the season is over and the famous Duquesne team were forced to go down before Our Own. It was a record breaking crowd that saw the game, and the noise made by the crowd showed that it was satisfied with the game that was played. After the crushing defeat of a week before not many of the large audience expected victory, and when the Duquesne players, all powerful looking men, started on the field for practice and began dropping goals from all parts of the field, what little hope the local enthusiasts had was soon diminished and when the Allegheny boys began shooting for the basket all hope was gone, for none of them seemed able to cage the ball. But what a change when the game started. Allegheny at once took possession of the ball and forced the play so hard that Duquesne was forced to rely upon their defensive play entirely. Their close guarding kept Allegheny's score down to two goals the first half, but in the second, when Duquesne attempted aggressive play, Allegheny at once took the game in her own hands and scored from almost all kinds of impossible positions.

The game was very fast. It was the style of play that attracts attention and is considered basket ball in the ideal sense. Passing that is neat and accurate, guarding that is close but not rough, and shooting that is good, all make a game that is attractive for the spectators. All these qualities were clearly evidenced. Duquesne played the prettiest basket ball that has been seen here this season, and had they not been crippled, they would have made the contest much closer. Neither team had its full regular. For the visitors Rosser and Sauer were out, and for the locals Frazier did not play. Nevertheless, the teams were well matched and a hard game ensued.

The first half began by series of passing, but the close guarding made the attempts for goal futile. Though several fouls were called, neither team scored a single point for five minutes. D. C. and A. C. counted first on a free throw by Marthens and was soon followed by a field goal by Moore. Again there was a long interval during which shooting was impossible. This was broken by E. Seibel scoring on a foul. This made the score 4 to 0 in favor of the visitors. The ball was secured by Lampe out of bounds and passed to Williams, thence to Taylor under the goal and Allegheny had started her work. In another minute Wolstoncroft had tied the score. Just at the end of the half Marthens threw a goal from the foul line and put Duquesne in the lead by one point, 5 to 4.

J. Seibel replaced Fitch at forward in the second half. The play was faster than ever and Allegheny began to show improved form. The locals seemed to have learned the opponents' style and during the remainder of the game, outplayed them in passing and shooting.

Lampe goaled a foul which tied the score. From this time on Allegheny did her work of destruction, scoring 16 to Duquesne's 2 points. Several goals were scarcely earned but they show the clever game that was played. Lampe made the first field goal while under close guard, and then made a goal from a foul. On a pass to the side he neatly dropped another in. Williams cleverly dodged his guard and pushed the ball to the basket for which he received great applause. After Lampe made another, Duquesne went into the game harder, keeping the ball in their possession for some time. But only one goal by Moore could be made. The last three field goals for Allegheny were made in quick succession by Lampe, Williams and Taylor and the game was over. The decisive score, 20 to 7, shows that Allegheny is still in the game and cannot be discouraged by one hard defeat.

Every man on the team did himself and the team great credit. They all played together like clock-work in their passing. The guarding was a feature that cannot be overlooked; this alone is responsible for the visitors' small score. Jackson, who played Frazier's position, did remarkable work and is improving with every game. The Duquesne men are a gentlemanly set of players and have the high regard of Meadville people for their clean, hard, conscientious playing.

Allegheny has met another athletic club and one, too, whose reputation stands high in basket ball. Duquesne holds as good a record as does Homestead, but these two teams have not yet met to decide the superiority; they play a series of games soon. The game Friday night with D. C. and A. C. gave Allegheny a high place, and the victory for the college boys is a proud token of their strength.

The attendance was very large, but the people did not keep their feelings to themselves enough. Several times the referee was compelled to remind them that their conduct might result in penalty for the home team, after which they kindly controlled themselves; otherwise the spirit of loyalty shown by the crowd is to be highly commended.

The work of Mr. Kelley, of Pittsburg, as referee and umpire was of high order. The manner in which he stopped rough playing made the game perfectly clean.

The next game will be the most exciting of the season. It will be with Geneva College on Friday and will settle the championship. If Allegheny wins, she will hold the honors; if she loses, it must be fought out between Geneva and Westminster for championship, or a tie of the three teams. But everyone is confident that Geneva will not be able to withstand the playing of our team. Every effort will be put forward to outplay this rival team.

The line up was:

D. C. & A. C.—7		Allegheny—20
Moore	Left forward	Williams
Fitch	Right forward	Taylor
Kallock	Center	Lampe
E. Seibel	Right guard	Jackson

Substitution, J Seibel for Fitch

Goals from field for D. C. & A. C.—Moore 1, J Seibel 1; Allegheny, Lampe 4, Taylor 2, Williams 2, Wolstoncroft 1.

Goals from foul for D. C. & A. C.—Matthews 2, E. Seibel 1; for Allegheny—Lampe 2.

Referee and umpire—Kelley of Pittsburg.

SOPHOMORES AND SENIORS

GO OUT FOR A TIME—A SLEIGH RIDE AND A FEAST.

He has come and she has come with him. They were sure to please and they did please. Who? When? Where? While the Freshmen and Juniors were at Y. M. C. A. others were slowly wending their way through drift after drift. Who? When? Where? The Seniors went and the Sophomores went with them. Their destination was a little out of the way place, where they made the country air ring with their glad voices.

On Saturday evening the members of the Senior and Sophomore Classes gathered at the home of one of the students in Meadville from which place they started on a slighride. After a two hours' ride over roads that were almost impassable for travel but especially conducive to gayity, the famous Coon's Corners were seen in the distance. The large and spacious banquet rooms were brightly lighted and a bounteous feast was ready for the frisky runaways. The feast was soon over and the time was spent in various enjoyable ways until the return trip. Many indulged in rare opportunities of displaying their repartee and all were received with the good heart that only classmates can. The following list gives the sentiments

William Douglas Pew—Worthy Symposiarch.

Toast List.

The Hospitality of Coon's Corners—Addison Clark Waid, '01.

Freshman Density or the Art of Being Deceived—Eleanor Stranahan Doty, '03.

Song—Hard Luck Freshies.

The Spread of the Mrs. Nation Movement, or The Ethics of Breaking Up Cheap Shows—Roger Henwood Motten, '01.

The Discipline Committee as a Power in Allegheny College—Belle Kennedy Chase, '01.

Song—Barnyard Fowls.

Old War Horses, or Back in '63—Charles Mason Freeman, '03.

Where Are We At?—Lodema Augusta Bard, '03.

Song—Blest Be the Tie That Binds.

The trip was a success in every way so far as the two classes were concerned and everyone present will undoubtedly never forget the experience.

But where, oh where were the verdant Freshmen; where, oh where were the stately Juniors? Not at home in their warm rooms as many imagined. No, such was not the pleasure. They were out wandering over the country in search of those whom they loved so well and whom they feared would need assistance. Help did not come, nor did the Freshies. They took the wrong road that leadeth to despair.

THE LEAGUE.

An Apparently Close Contest for Championship Honors.

The present stand of the league teams is as follows:

Allegheny	Won 2	Lost 1	.666
Geneva	Won 1	Lost 1	.500
Westminster	Won 1	Lost 2	.333

This permits of many combinations and as many posible endings as could be imagined. Should Allegheny win on Friday, fist place would be settled without a doubt, however, a defeat would lose first place or in case Geneva loses to Westminstter, a tie among all teams would result. Geneva's only chance of taking first place is to win her two remaining games, while the best that Westminster can posibly do is to finish even in games won. This, however, would give them second place and should Allegheny lose on Friday, she would equal Allegheny and Geneva and the whole series would finish with the teams even.

PRELIMINARY DEBATE.

Interesting and Instructive.—The Glee Club Sang.

On Thursday evening the preliminary debate of the Albion-Allegheny contest was held in the chapel. A fair sized audience listened with undivided attention to the pro and con of the question, "Combinations of capital monopolizing production are inimical to public and private welfare." The affirmative was supported by D. M. Paul, H. J. Pollock and A. C. Waid; the negative by W. M. Buzza, A. R. Elliott and H. L. Smiht. The speakers were each given 15 minutes and H. L. Smith and D. M. Paul three and five minutes respectively for rebuttal. The speeches were very interesting and the arguments were well selected and balanced. Every speaker showed a very good knowledge of the question from wide reading and studying and each deserves credit for his work.

The Glee Club sang three numbers and responded to one encore which made reference to very up-to-date interests of the college. Mr. Travis led several college songs while the judges, J. W. Smith, Thomas Prather and Helen Hempstead, retired.

The decision of the judges, who were to choose three debaters to represent Allegheny in the debate with Albion, was H. L. Smith, H. J. Pollock and W. M. Buzza.

The exact date of the Albion debate will be announced later. It will probably be during the third week of April.

Mr. Pollock has withdrawn as a contestant for the Albion debate and A. C. Waid who was fourth choice will take his place.

Scarlet Fever Closes Westminster College.

New Wilmington—By reason of the case of scarlet fever in the woman's hall of Westminster College, it has been thought best by the college authorities, in order to avoid all danger of contagion, to anticipate the spring vacation, which would have begun in about two weeks. Accordingly, college work has been suspended until April 2. The basket ball team, however, will fill all its appointments and the change will not interfere with the glee club.—Pittsburg Gazette.

Cornell, Columbia and Pennsylvania will row at the Inter-Collegiate Regatta, to be held at Poughkeepsie on July 3, and invitations have been extended to Georgetown, Syracuse, Bowdoin and Toronto to participate.

The University of California is to inaugurate rowing by a four oared shell race with the University of Washington.

The hissing at the D. C. and A. C. game was entirely out of order and showed ignorance of the game. There was no occasion, in the first place, for such actions, for the official and the players did their duty and were gentlemanly in every act. Then, too, such display of feeling by the crowd gives the team a bad reputation and if much of it occurs, it will be difficult to get good games for our patrons. Those who are connected with basket ball kindly ask the spectators to refrain from doing anything of such a nature that it will reflect upon the home team. Everything is being done to give Meadville people the best basket ball that is possible, and we ask your co-operation in the matter.

For some time there has been a rumor, for it is nothing more yet, that we would have no base ball team this spring. It is not definitely known who started this story, but we do know that such things have a tendency to injure the sport about which it is said.

A good team could undoubtedly be organized and coached which would represent the college. Though only three members of last year's team are in school now, there are a number of new men who have come with good records. With these men, no great difficulty need be experienced in putting a team in the field. But there is another matter that seems to trouble some. That is the financial end of the business. It is said authoritatively that there will be a deficiency of nearly $100 in the treasury at the beginning of the baseball season. Now it has been intimated that whether we have a team this spring will depend on the interest taken by the students in wiping out this small debt. This means that the debt must be cancelled.

But we must look further and consider the result in the future. If we do not put a team in the field this year, there will be little prospect for one the following year, because students who are base ball players will not come to Allegheny, but will be ...ool that plays the ...is allowed to pass ...m, it will always be ...e following season. And ...ll be done? Where will ...me from? It is this that ...many schools to resort to ...players in order to get the ...tarted again. We have clean ...ics now and we want to throw no ...ptations in the way for profes...nalism.

It has been the pride of Allegheny that she puts out her three athletic teams every year with good results in each. Some colleges drift in athletics to one sport, for instance, foot ball, and let the others die. We do not want to do this for it would injure our reputation. In order to avoid it, we should never allow a single season to pass without a team. If we must pay off this debt, everyone should do his part. But even if this should not be done, when the deficit is so small, a team should be organized.

It is time the men should be practicing and they are not out. We feel that this matter should be attended to immediately. It is the sentiment of the student body, we believe, to stand firmly by athletics in every department. We want a base ball team, we must have it. So let everyone do his part to make it successful.

ROUGH HOUSE

At the Academy—Occasioned by a Poor Play.

During the past week a terrible tragidy has taken place in the city of Meadville. One of the most horrible that can be imagined. Scarcely can two students meet without referring to it in some manner or inquiring what will be the outcome. Everyone seems to be wrought up over the calamity; the faculty are taking the leading part.

The scene is laid in and about the Academy of Music on the night of a performance at that place which displeased a large number of patrons. At this particular time a crowd of students, who had come together on the spur of the moment and without any pre-arranged plan, took their places in the middle of a sparsely settled house. the middle of the sparsely settled house. In view of the nature of the performance, the feelings of these persons were manifested in many ways, to which exception was taken by the management. During the last act the crowd was so affected by a death scene that they left the house and, upon arriving outside of the door, yells and shouts were indulged in. They went up the street singing songs and giving college yells. This is the simple story of what has caused so much talk and has been given the color of a conspiracy to damage property, it may be to theater, the lives of actors and what more is hard to say.

The question now is, guilty or not guilty? What will the outcome be? Who is right and who is wrong? Did the show warrant such action? Oh, my! Have good plays ever been treated thus?

STATEMENT

For the Football Season of 1900.

The annual football report would have been made last term but for the fact that so many of the subscriptions remained unpaid. There is still about $20 due the association in this year's subscription. It is expected that the greater part of this will be paid some time during the year.

Possibly a word of explanation may be made in regard to the large deficit. Our coach cost us $286.99, as against $160 for the previous season. The total amount of the subscriptions received up to date is $216.25, which lacks $70.74 of paying for the coach. Further, our doctor's bill for the past season is $29.50 as against $8 of the previous season. These statements, together with the fact that our usual gate receipts were conspicuously lessened, would seem to explain a much greater deficit than the existing one. Ground rent for the season is $25.

Alumni Notes

The death of Elmer A. Roach which occurred at his home on Park Place, Brooklyn, N. Y., on Wednesday, Feb. 27, was a severe shock to his friends and fellow students. He had not been considered in so critical a condition by his friends and when he left for home no one even imagined that it was the last time he would be among them.

The disease, hemophilia, of which he died is very rare, and one which few people understand. Last August Elmer began to bleed out of the nose. This continued at intervals for several days and he had to call three physicians to check the hemorrhage. Early in January the hemorrhage again started from the nose and also from the gums, and several specialists were called into consultation. They were unable to give any permanent help and about two weeks ago he became worse and returned to the home of his parents, where he passed away.

A few days before his death he told his mother he had a vision that he was going to die on Wednesday. At noon, Wednesday, he became unconscious and despite the efforts of his physicians, expired.

Elmer A. Roach was the son of Mr. F. C. Roach of Brooklyn, N. Y., and was born August 23, 1879. He received his early education in the schools of that place though he did not graduate from the High School. In the fall of '99, he entered the preparatory department of Allegheny College, but was compelled to leave in the spring on account of sickness. He was unable to return last fall but came back at the beginning of the winter term, although he had not entirely recovered and was not feeling well. The condition of his health hindered him in his work and he was out of school for several weeks before he was compelled to leave for home.

His work in school was of good character. The course of study which he was pursuing was of such a nature as to fit him for dentistry to which profession he was earnestly looking forward.

Though he was not widely known in Meadville, he was well liked by those with whom he associated. His kind and quiet disposition made him a friend who could be relied upon. As a young man he had a good character and had the promise of a useful life in his chosen profession.

The loss that is sustained by his death is mourned by his many friends. The deceased is survived by a father and mother and by two brothers and three sisters.

'74. B. L. Milliken, who is Dean of the Western Reserve Medical College, will lecture to the students of Allegheny College. His subject will be "The Relation of Undergraduate Training to Professional Study." Mr. Milliken stands at the very top of his profession and one of the two or three very best in the United States. His specialty is the eye.

'80. Stuart M. Decker is now serving his country as a colonel in the Philippines.

'90. Kay C. Krick is running a large hardware store in Conneautville, Pa.

Ex-'98. Harry S. Shafer is engaged in the oil business in Wellsville, O.

'54. N. E. Worthington is judge at Peoria, Ill.

The Junior Laws of the University of Nebraska are out on a strike on account of Prof. Lobingier, a new professor, using Populist methods of discipline.

There are at present in the state of Iowa forty-six colleges. Iowa College and the State University were established before the admission of Iowa to the Union.

The faculty of the Iowa State College has given to the editor-in-chief of the college journal three hours' credit per term, and one hour's credit to each of his assistants.

The Yale basket ball team defeated the Harvard five at the gymnasium recently by a score of 41 to 10. This is the first game ever played between Harvard and Yale.

Purdue athletics are now out of debt, the $2,500 indebtedness contracted in '97 by poor business management having been paid off by the faculty, resident alumni and students.—Daily Cardinal.

Wellesley College has a lecture course in domestic science. It consists of lectures on food, sanitation, and the care and artistic furnishing of the home.

The curator of the Department of Ornithology at Princeton University has received from the British Museum a gift of 2,000 birds collected from the Malay Islands, India, and different parts of Europe.

Acadia University, of Canada, is threatened with the loss of its Sophomore class. Because the faculty has suspended one of the students of the class, they say the suspended man must be reinstated or the class will leave the university in a body.

The baseball management of Harvard and Princeton have been unable to arrange for any games next spring between the two universities, as Harvard can only arrange for two dates, and Princeton demands three. By complying with the request, Harvard claims that she would not be able to arrange her other games.

The faculty of the University of Wooster rather than have sixty young women students quarantined in Hoover Cottage, a ladies' dormitory, because one of their number, Miss Inez Kinney, of Bellaire, has scarlet fever, dismissed all students for two weeks last Tuesday.

Excitement

Of all kinds and all varieties,

Rough house, class rivalries and athletic victories tell the story of one week.

Who are the bad crowd?

Those poor Saegertown wanderers.

Bruce Wright was in Kane Sunday.

Dr. Thomas was in New York last week.

Dr. L. B. Milliken will lecture next Tuesday.

An outdoor barnyard took place on Wednesday night.

J. M. Griffith is confined to his room on account of sickness.

History 1 students took their exam. on Saturday afternoon.

Miss Horne attended the Sophomore-Senior fray at Coon's Corners.

Allegheny 20, D. C. & A. C. 7. Will Geneva suffer the same fate?

Everything and everybody is interested in some branch of excitement.

Who was chased by a crowd of small boys at Saegertown? Two Freshmen.

Allen returned last Wednesday from a few days' visit at home. It was the occasion of a wedding.

Don't miss the most exciting game of the season—Geneva vs. Allegheny. Place your trust on Allegheny.

Allegheny can still make the best teams work for what they get and not allow them to get much either.

Miss Horne returned home yesterday, after a week's visit with college and town friends.

Kappa Delta Epsilon gave a very pleasant party at the home of Miss McCurdy on Monday, Feb. 25.

Miss Eleanor Miller of Meadville was initiated into Kappa Delta Epsilon, Saturday evening, March 2.

Miss Jessie Merchant entertained a number of friends on Thursday evening in honor of Miss Zella Horne, of Greenville.

Dr. Crawford attended the New York Alumni banquet at Delmonico's. He is visiting several Eastern colleges to get plans for the new chapel.

Frequent meetings during the last of the week marked the progress of happenings in which a number of the students figured very conspicuously.

Some one said, "The students were scared green." This comes from a body of men who have the interest of the students at heart. Is this the reward of their labors?

Several students attended the inauguration. They went with the National Guards—Charles E. Douglas, with Co. M.; Geo. Campbell, with Co. I; Frank McCartney, Thomas Shallenberger and Robert Greenlee, with Co. B.

On Friday night will be the hardest and most important game of the intercollegiate league series. Geneva serves as a drawing card. She has beaten Allegheny once this year and it remains to be seen who will be the disappointed people. Of course, we think we know.

It is understood that about 30 Juniors, Freshmen and Preps. were deluded into going to Saegertown in search for some runaway students whom they desired to waylay and leave to the tender mercies of the weather. It will be unnecessary to say that they found no one.

Mr. F. M. Gilbert, representing the Student Volunteer movement, and Miss Selby, secretary of the Y. W. C. A., have been at college for several days. Mr. Gilbert left yesterday but Miss Selby will remain until Wednesday. Several meetings were held. On Saturday night Mr. Gilbert had charge of the Y. M. C. A. and spoke on foreign missionary work. Miss Selby led a very enthusiastic sunrise prayer meeting on Sunday. In the afternoon at four o'clock a joint meeting of the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. took place and was addressed by Mr. Gilbert on foreign missions and the Student Volunteer movement. All the meetings were of intense interest.

ANNUAL EXHIBITION

Of the Girls' Class in Physical Culture. Basket Ball Game.

The annual exhibition of the girls' class in physical culture was given on Wednesday evening. The crowd which witnessed it was very enthusiastic, and great praise was given Miss Spalding for the excellent work she has accomplished.

Fifty girls took part in the exercises for deep breathing and poise. Although the movements were not difficult, yet so carefully and gracefully were they performed that it was judged one of the most attractive features of the exhibition. Music accompanied each of the drills.

In the dumb bell drill, in which the first year girls took part, not an error was noticeable. The second class had the wand drill which was short, but the movements were very complicated. No better exercise could be imagined for the development of poise and grace. All the girls took part in the Indian club drill and their training here showed up especially fine.

The most interesting feature was the basket ball game. Teams had been picked early in the fall and practice had been held once a week. Possibly the skill displayed was not equal to the enthusiasm manifested by the girls but if low scores be a criterion of good playing, the game must be considered first-class. The team work on both sides was good, few fouls were called and at the end of ten minutes the score stood 2 to 1 in favor of first year's class. Line up as follows:

Minnie Moore....c..Grace Cartwright
Grace Jenks ....f.... Agnes Espy
Mae Steffner.....f.....Edith Rawley
Florence Peck....g.....Carrie Beyer
Myrtle Herbert...g...Marie Tuholski

Program.

1. Free hand exercises for deep breathing and poise.
2. Dumb bell exercises for back and chest.
3. Wand drill.
4. Indian club drill.
5. Basket ball, (ten minutes).
