My dear Miss Tarbell:

In answer to your letter dated October 6, I have sent to Miss Giles a photograph of mine adapted for reproduction. I have also asked Miss Carnes of the Taylor Society to send Miss Giles a photograph of Mr. Taylor.

I will certainly be interested to see your article, and of course am delighted that this little effort of mine has merited such distinguished attention.

I wonder whether you saw an article in the October Cosmopolitan by your former collaborator Lincoln Steffans? I think it was one of the most readable and I believe will prove to be one of the most useful articles I have read in a long time. In this connection you may be interested to know that we dropped in on another former collaborator of yours, Ray Stannard Baker, recently at Amherst, Massachusetts.

Yours very sincerely

Morris L. Cooke
