

The World.

Editors' Rooms

New York

October 14, 1929

My dear Miss Tarbell:

Aren't you about the kindest lady in the world! If I had the original of the MacDonald-Lincoln cartoon you couldn't buy it-- I should be only too proud to give it to you; but, alas, it has gone to Mr. Vincent Massey, the Canadian Minister in Washington. He, too, appeared to have liked it. As a matter of fact, one can't go wrong on a Lincoln picture. He is like Joan of Arc. You can't muff the subject.

I'm taking the liberty, however, of sending you the drawing of "Tell Papa Where It Hurts The Worst." Please feel no compulsion to hang it on your walls -- just chuck it into a portfolio so that it may be added to those countless things of no value one collects.

Sincerely yours,

Rollin Krieger

Miss Ida Tarbell
120 East 19th St.
New York City