April 5, 1935

Dear Mrs. French:

It was nice to hear from you. I was glad you were pleased with the letter and the photograph. Such a little thing to send you. And I am glad to have your picture. I don't know about your looking older, you sound too full of life to make me take that very seriously.

At all events it is an interesting picture and I am glad to have it.

Thanking you for writing me, believe me

Very sincerely yours
