Dear Miss Tarbell:-

Your sister has asked me to send you the enclosed check of the Chicago Bar Association to her order for $250.

I must tell you that your sister Ida's address last night was a really great personal triumph. The officers of the Chicago Bar Association are all agreed that it was the most interesting address which the Association has heard for many years. There were in the audience Dr. W. E. Barton, Carl Sanberg, and Oliver Barrett, who has one of the most interesting Lincoln collections. Your sister spoke for about an hour and a quarter, to an audience which was fairly gripped by the charm and eloquence of her talk. It was the greatest possible satisfaction to me that she scored such a great success.

Always cordially yours,

WCB/T
