Dear Miss Wolfe -

My delay in answering your enquiry about the Lincoln life mask and hands was caused by illness in my family followed by a funeral & numerous

out of town and I am very sorry that
you have not had
an earlier response.
I regret that I
have no information
now source of information at hand
concerning the coat
that was made for
Mr. Dyker.
As I have never had occasion to [illegible] some replicas made in Rochester. I do not know of a really capable craftsman, but any authority at the National Arts Club could advise you most reliably — and I moved gladly put my mark and hands at the disposal of Miss Tarbell.

My own replicas are in bronze and consist of three pieces — the face and left & right hands. Moved Miss Tarbell care to consider the purchase of this group outright for two hundred dollars?

Sincerely yours.
