

BATTLE, LEVY, FOWLER & NEAMAN

GEORGE GORDON BATTLE
ISAAC H. LEVY
LUDLOW S. FOWLER
PEARSON E. NEAMAN

70 PINE STREET
NEW YORK CITY

TEL. WHITEHALL 3-8860

CABLE ADDRESS
"COUNSELLOR"

December 6, 1939

Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
120 East 19th St.,
New York City.

Dear Miss Tarbell:

I deeply regret that you were unable to be present last Wednesday at The Churchman's dinner in honor of Mrs. Roosevelt. The occasion, when nearly 1500 guests gathered in the Grand Ballroom of the Hotel Astor, was indeed an event of unusual significance.

With this letter I am enclosing a photographic reproduction of the interesting bronze plaque presented to Mrs. Roosevelt.

Since you may not have seen a recent issue of The Churchman I am asking Dr. Shippler to send, under separate cover, a copy of the December 1st number, which went to press just before the day of the dinner.

I am taking the liberty, also, of sending you a Churchman Associate membership blank, in case you may wish to join with those of us who are sponsoring the work The Churchman is doing in promoting the ideals which we all cherish for our American democracy. The kind of leadership it so fearlessly represents should be strongly supported in such critical times as those in which we are living.

With all good wishes I am, believe me,

Faithfully yours,

