Dear Miss Tarbell:

I have been at Long Key and Key West, the jumping off places of Southern Florida, fighting big fish and absorbing sunshine. I have the color of a Cuban, am feeling much better and am now on my way home. I am not here as an oil investigator while, although the town is full of them, but to meet some engagement, including last night a dinner with the President, which might be of some interest to you. In the meantime information reaches me from home that a copy of your book, containing a gracious friendly inscription from you, has arrived there. This is deeply appreciated and I am eager to get it into my hands.

I think often of you, sometimes hear of you through others (some of my friends on my trip around the world were formerly from Titusville, the Bensons) and am glad always to be remembered by you and to have word from you.

Beveridge has sent word that he would like for me to go with him over our Lincoln trail through Kentucky and Indiana when I return. With all best wishes,

Cordially yours,

William Fortune
