

March 29, 1917.

G. P. Putnam & Sons,
2 West 45th Street,
New York, N. Y.

Dear Sirs:-

Mr. Gilbert Tracy of Putnam, Connecticut is about to publish, through Houghton Mifflin, a collection of Lincoln letters which did not appear in the Standard Edition. He wishes to add to this collection the letter of Mr. Lincoln's first published in the Carl Schurz' Memorial Edition, page 211, volume 1. I have consulted Mr. Schurz and he assures me that he has no objection to Mr. Tracy using the letter. Will you, as the publisher, let me know that there is no objection - credit, of course, being given to you?

Very sincerely yours,

INT:SF