Dear Rutger:

I am giving about a day a week to the Gary and am far enough along now to feel that I shall be able to carry it through, that is, that I shall not come to bunkers that will make me feel that I will have to give the thing up. I see my theme pretty clearly. I think it is a fine one, and my respect and fondness for the Judge increase with each interview.

Now, we never have gotten down on paper any understanding of our financial arrangement. I am not perfectly clear about all the points myself. I wish you would work out what you understand, for my inspection. It is not a contract that I am after but only the certainty that we understand each other.

Very sincerely yours,

Mr. Rutger Jewett,
35 West 32 Street.
