PRESIDENT HIXSON HAS AN EXCELLENT RECORD

His Administration at the University of Chattanooga Has Been Noteworthy

With a record of six years' constructive administration as the President of the University of Chattanooga behind him, Dr. Fred W. Hixson comes to the presidency of this college. His administration at the southern university was notable in the material growth of the institution and the high standard of scholarship maintained. Not only did he insist upon good scholarship standards but also was careful to keep the faculty of the institution under his care up to a high standard. Those who heard President Hixson's talk on the occasion of the first chapel service of the year are well aware of his keen sense of the artistic, the sense by which the material aspect of the University of Chattanooga grew in beauty under his administration.

Dr. Fred W. Hixson was born in Indiana in 1875. His father was a Methodist minister. Dr. Hixson received his education at DePaw University from which institution he graduated in 1899. While an undergraduate at DePaw he was active in the various branches of student life, taking part in debating and oratorical contests and editing the college annual. He is a member of Delta Kappa Epsilon and Phi Beta Kappa.

President Hixson received the degree of doctor of divinity from DePaw University in 1913, and the degree of doctor of laws from Dickinson College in 1918. He has been active in the Masonic order, being a member of the Knights Templar. He is also a member of the University Senate of the Methodist Episcopal Church. He is a contributor to the church press and has appeared frequently on the lecture platform.

REGISTRATION SHOWS ENROLLMENT OF 495

Less Than Last Year's, it Exceeds 1918 Enrollment by Seventy-Nine

Allegheny opened the new college year with 495 undergraduate students. This number is not quite as large as last year, when there was an enrollment of 506. Last year's increase over 416, the number enrolled in 1918, was due to the return of many former students who had been in the service.

The opening of Hulings Hall Annex has provided for a few more women than formerly. Registration is now complete and every branch of study is running at capacity. Among the freshmen this year are many scholarship students, several having won the state scholarship. The class of 1923 numbers 177. PHI BETA KAPPA ELECTS TWO SENIORS

C. W. SKINNER AND HELEN SHUSTER ARE HONORED

In a short and appropriate address in chapel Saturday morning, Dr. Elliott announced the election of two members of the senior class to the Phi Beta Kappa fraternity: C. W. Skinner, of Ashville, N. Y., and Helen Shuster, of Greensburg, Pa. These two students, who stand at the head of the senior class, have scholarship averages which differ by less than one-tenth of one per cent. At the beginning of the service, President Hixson spoke briefly of the significance of college success, both in the college, and afterwards, and then introduced Dr. Elliott, who had charge of the rest of the service.

Both students, from the time they first understood the significance of the society, have worked consistently towards the coveted goal, and are to be congratulated both for the goal which they choose, and for the attainment of that goal.

Y. M. C. A. HOLDS FIRST MEETING

TOPIC FOR EVENING DISCUSSED BY SENIORS

At a well-attended meeting of the Y. M. C. A. Wednesday evening, the topic "How I should have spent my Freshman year" was discussed. The speakers were McCluer, Francis, and Skinner, whose talks made a deep impression on the audience.

McCluer stated that a freshman, if he is to win success, should keep busy, not only with class-work, but busy in college activities. He also emphasized the fact that a beginner should have initiative, and should be ready to assume the responsibility that come his way. To shirk from assuming these is to make his failure inevitable.

Francis brought out the fact that one should make his work a pleasure, then his work cannot interfere with his pleasure. He stated that to keep the goal in view should make one's work in preparation of real interest.

Skinner, the last speaker, said that a freshman should find three things during his first year in college: He should find himself, his work, and his friends. In finding himself, he should give his religion straightened out once for all. He stated that the study of science should remove all doubts as to the existence of a Divine Creator. There is sympathy due those who believe that the fact of evolution and the belief in God were incompatible. As a closing remark Skinner declared that unless one finds himself right with God, his life will be mere existence, which is to say, a failure.

PHYSICAL TRAINING FOR UNDER CLASSMEN

THE ATHLETIC PROGRAM IS TO BE COMPREHENSIVE

As in former years all under classmen must indulge in some form of physical exercise in order to develop the body, while the faculty in general is endeavoring to develop the mind. In his new position Prof. C. E. Hammett will give practically all of his time to this field of college activity. Prof. Hammett has had a wide experience in this kind of work and knows how to make it interesting as well as beneficial.

This year there is a wide range of events for the men to choose from. Cross-country running, soccer, football, basketball and general class work. Each department is under the supervision of capable men or Prof. Hammett in person. The cross-country running and track work is under the guidance of Herman (Dutch) Fahr captain of the track team of 1915 and holder of the Allegheny records in both hurdles. Joe (Barney) Bernard has been leading the squad of cross-country runners through the country and as he has had some experience in this work before, he will be a very good lieutenant for Coach Fahr. The soccer will be coached by one who learned the game in Scotland as a member of the renowned Heyburn Club and in this country has played in the Pittsburgh Dispatch League and for the Erie Electric team which is to play for the championship this fall. Basketball will be looked after by Captain (Rink) Kofford as assistant of Head Coach Applegran until the close of the football schedule. Class work will be directly under Coach Hammett.

After a lapse of a few years, the annual cross-country run will take place this year. This is an interclass event and some close competition can be looked for. The race will be run as a preliminary to the Westminster-Allegheny football game. The race will be run over a course to be selected cross country with the finish after one lap around the track. Should weather conditions be such that the race cannot be run cross-country, the event will take place on Montgomery Field. At present there are The winners of this event will be handsomely rewarded by medals which have been selected for this race. Gold, silver and bronze medals will be given to the contestants finishing first, second and third, respectively. Points will be registered by the first five men from each class in the order which they finish and the class having the lowest score will be considered the winner.

DR. DARLING WILL HEAD INVESTIGATION

TO LOOK INTO METHODS OF FOOD ANALYSIS

Dr. C. A. Darling, Professor of Biology and Geology, has recently been placed at the head of an investigation started by the American Society of Bacteriologists, and later taken up by the National Research Council at Washington, concerning the methods employed by the Pure Food Inspector in the analysis of tomato products.

The matter was first brought up for scientific attention by certain of the large manufacturing concerns of the country who claim that the pure food analysis now in use is unfair. The investigation was submitted to a committee by the Society of Bacteriologists and they in turn turned it over to Dr. Darling.

Under the present method of analysis the pure food agents have been confiscating products containing an abnormal quantity of certain molds, yeasts and other ferments, claiming that such conditions are due to the use of spoiled tomatoes in the production of ketchups and other sauces.

During the course of his investigations Dr. Darling spent four days with Dr. Howard, the head of the micro-analytical laboratory in Washington and the author of the present methods of analysis, in going over the work being carried on there. Some of his work has been carried on in the New York Agricultural Station at Geneva, N. Y., and the rest in the laboratory at Allegheny.

At present the investigation is well under way. Dr. Darling expects to work on it during mid-term recesses and during summer vacation next year, at which time he hopes to complete his work.

Such practical problems which are continually arising in this field of work should be a spur to students who are looking towards Biology as a future vocation from a commercial standpoint.

BISHOP SMITH SAILS FOR INDIA

Bishop Harry Lester Smith, former pastor of Methodist Episcopal Church, Meadville, sailed from New York October 2 on the steamship Finland for Southampton en route to India. Bishop Smith will be one of the two Methodist resident Bishops of South India with headquarters at Banalore. Bishop Smith is a graduate of Allegheny College. He joined the Pittsburgh Conference in 1900. He has been a member of the Board of Foreign Missions during the past quadrennium.

New Erie Conference trustees are: Byron A. Walker, Erie, Pa., and Miner D. Cray, Warren, Pa. They were elected for term expiring January, 1925.

MANY NEW FACES APPEAR ON FACULTY THIS YEAR

Personell Under New Administration Up to Usual High Standard

Although new faces appear annually among the college faculty, principally due to the constant growth of the institution, that high standard and sterling worth for which Allegheny faculty members are known has always been maintained. Among those who are on the hill for the first time, are men who are leaders in their fields—men of national and even international reputation. A condensed "Who's Who" of the new faculty members follows:

Irwin R. Beiler, Professor of English Bible and Philosophy of Religion, received his A. B. degree from Ohio Wesleyan University in 1907. He was acting Professor of Philosophy and English Bible in Allegheny in 1912-13. From that time until 1918 he was Professor of Biblical Literature in Baker University. During 1916-17 he was a student at Harvard and Boston Universities, receiving his Ph.D. degree from Boston University in 1918. He served as pastor of the University Church at Minneapolis from 1918 to 1920. He was a John Sleeper Fellow of Boston University, in University of Berlin, 1911 and

ALLEGHENY HELD TO SCORELESS TIE BY THIEL

Poor Football Marks First Contest on Montgomery Field

Allegheny College's football season for the fall of 1920 opened up on Montgomery Field on Saturday afternoon, October 2. Thiel College, from Greenville, was the opponent of the Gold and Blue. Allegheny opened strong. After Allegheny took the ball away from Thiel, Hoppy Miller circled right end for a touchdown. The score, however, did not stand as one of the officials caught an Allegheny player holding and the ball was brought back and Allegheny penalized 15 yards. The game was stubbornly fought and ended in a 0 to 0 score, much to the disappointment of all present.

After being called back and penalized on the first play, the Blue and Gold seemed to lose their fight and their ability to gain. The line was outplayed by the Thiel forwards. Time after time they would break through the Allegheny line and break up any attempt of our men to gain.

During the first quarter, the ball was never in Allegheny's territory. Only after the 15-yard penalty for holding was the ball even at the center of the field. Then after failure to gain, Miller punted out of danger to Thiel's five-yard line. Near the end of the first quarter a placement kick was tried from the 23-yard line and Thiel was given the ball on the 20-yard line, where Thiel fumbled and Murphy recovered the ball for Allegheny. During the remainder of the half the ball was in Allegheny's part of the field only for a brief period. Hoppy Miller punted out of danger after Thiel lost the ball for a first down by inches.

The superiority of the Allegheny team over that from Thiel is best shown by the fact that during three-quarters of the game the play was in Thiel's territory.

For Allegheny, Captain Roger Baldwin was the one outstanding star. Time after time he would bring down the Thiel runners for a loss. It was the work of Baldwin and his pep and fight that kept Allegheny in the game. Scoots Nelson, a new member of the team, also played a good game. He tackled hard and sure. He had to retire from the game in the last half due to an injury. Parker, also a new man on the squad, gave promise of winning a regular berth. He was inconvenienced by having to play different position, but he had the old fight all the time. Parker started in at guard but was taken out because of an injury. Later he was tried out at end. Cunningham played his good old game before he was kicked in the head.

For Thiel Bell, Mitchell and Captain Roth were the shining lights. Bell was the most consistent ground gainer and made good interference for the other backs. Mitchell, at center, played a stellar game and more than once broke through Allegheny's line to break up plays. Captain Roth played well at tackle and stopped everything which came in his direction.

Hoppy Miller was the chief ground gainer for Allegheny. His running with the ball was of high order. His punting more than once put the ball far out of danger. He outpuned Seil of Thiel, throughout the game. Plumb also did good work and gained consistently.

The game started after Thiel had won the toss and decided to receive the ball and to defend the lower goal. Miller got off a good kick to the 10-yard line which Bell returned 20 yards. Bell made two more and on the next play Thiel fumbled and Kramer recovered for Allegheny. On the first play Miller circled the right end for a touchdown, running well behind good interference. Allegheny was caught holding and the ball brought back and a penalty of 15 yards inflicted. On the next play Miller made three yards on the same play.

After this one spurt no Allegheny back seemed able to gain consistently, though the team as a whole did good work on the defense. The lineup and score:

EDITORIAL

A GREETING

It is only fitting that the greetings of the students of Allegheny College to their new president should come through the columns of the college paper. The editor does not hesitate in expressing for the student body the most cordial welcome to Dr. Fred Hixson, who has come to the leadership of this college.

The natural attitude of the student toward the teacher is that of respect. Such an attitude we can sincerely assume toward a man whose record is such as is President Hixson's. The student body has no less interest in the progress and continued high standing of this college than any of its officers. It is natural that the students should offer, as they do, their respectful cooperation to the new president in the task which he faces.

And he does face a task! So much has been said, and rightfully, of the colossal work of Dr. Crawford in building up this institution that some may be led to believe that all President Hixson has to do is step into his place and keep a well ordered mechanism oiled and running smoothly.

But such is not the case. Every day new problems arise which the college president must face. The puzzling problem of the scope of the athletics in a college such as ours is only one of these questions the decision on which will vitally affect Allegheny's future.

The Pittsburgh "Christian Advocate" has published an article concerning the change in administration here which is well entitled "President Hixson's Opportunity." An opportunity does not present itself, an opportunity to accomplish a great work. We are going to be proud to see that work accomplished, proud to be able to say that we, too, served in a small way toward its accomplishment.

The Campus Staff meets every Thursday at one o'clock in the Campus office in Bentley Hall. Competitors (business staff excepted) meet every Friday at one o'clock in the office in Bentley Hall.

Here's How the Squad Looked at Camp

Coach Applegran and Captain Baldwin.

COACH APPLEGRAN COMES FROM CHAMPIONSHIP TEAM

Methods Employed This Year Will Develop a Fighting Team

Allegheny College may not have the best football team in Western Pennsylvania this fall, but it will be certain to have a fighting aggregation. The material is about up to the Allegheny average though there seems to be a scarcity of good big backs. For coach we have a star from the Big Ten, who was the choice of some critics for the All-American team for three years. The new coach is Charles O. Applegran, one of the leading lights of the champion Illinois team of the western conference last year and also a member of the champion Illinois teams of 1914 and 1915. He is a strapping big fellow and was a guard. He goes at his work in "big league" fashion and makes the players fight all the time that they are on the field. His methods are very similar to those of Coach Zuppke, of Illinois, for he puts the men through very strenuous drills.

The coach is not altogether new to the coaching game. He coached and played on the Mexican border where his team did not lose a game in two seasons. As a result of his playing last fall, Walter Eckersall, probably the best critic of football in the Middle West, placed "Appy" on his first All-Western and All-Conference teams and on his second All-American team. Other critics who saw him in action also awarded him honors. Applegran runs his squad with military strictness. He will allow no fooling nor loafing nor half-hearted endeavor. The players must put all that they have into their work. From this it can easily be seen that the Blue and Gold will have a fighting aggregation this season. Allegheny has always been known for its fighting teams, but this year with "Appy" at the helm there will be more fight than ever.

Applegran takes the place of Prof. C. E. Hammett, the veteran coach and instructor who has guided the destinies of the Blue and Gold teams for some years back. Hammett assumes the new position of athletic director, this being due to the progressive policy put into effect this year. Applegran will also coach basketball.

Last spring "Appy" was chosen for his new position upon recommendation of Coach Zuppke and Athletic Director George Huff, of the University of Illinois. He has already made a big impression, though those outside of the team have only seen his work in the scrimmage which was held on Saturday, September 25, between the first two teams and the Thiel game.

Practice started at Conneaut Lake immediately after Labor Day and about 20 men took part in this preliminary training. This training camp is also a result of the new program which has been adopted for athletics. At the start of school the team started a week of secret drills on Montgomery Field and many new men reported for the squad, making about 50 in all who are out for the team.

From last year's team only seven letter men are left from which to build a nucleus for this year's eleven. The "A" men are Captain Roger Baldwin, end, who was transferred to full-back for the Thiel game; Dan Murphy, tackle, and Kramer, a guard who has been shifted to tackle; Harry Miller, an end, has been shifted to half because of his punting and passing ability and his open field running. Stanley Plumb, Fred Trace and Ray Cunningham are the other block "A" men back. Cunney was late to get a start, reporting a week after training began on Montgomery Field.

Most of the "A 2nd" men are out again this year, including Dundon, who has been playing very good football at center and promises to fill Harbaugh's shoes; Ford Miller at guard, and Mountsier at end. Wills was putting up his usual game at full until he had to lay off because of an injury. E. C. Clark and P. W. Clark, Larson, Bob and Jimmy Russell, Wayne Gordon, Secor, Loomis, Parker, Estep and a number of others are out with their old fight, putting the pep into the first team and trying to land a place on the varsity.

Among the new men who are out this year is Herbert Morley, of South High of Youngstown, a quarterback, who has been filling the position left vacant by "Snivvy" Kerr who graduated last fall; Braun, a big guard, of Pittsburgh; and Victor Wright, from Central High School of Erie. There are many other promising men from the class of '24 who look good but as yet have not shown sufficient class to get a chance on the first team.

From among the "old timers" who are out this year are Terry Thomas, fullback; "Bus" Doing, end; Potter, tackle, and "Scoots" Nelson, end. The latter has been putting up such a fine game that he won a place on the team as end, so that Baldy could be shifted to fullback. Doing and Thomas will be heard from later as they have the class but reported too late to get into the opening game. Both will be valuable additions to the squad.

The team this year will be very light, not averaging more than 163 pounds all around, and the line about 175 pounds from tackle to tackle. What this team is lacking in weight will be made up in the old fighting spirit which every member of the team will have to have in order to hold his job.

Last year's team was somewhat of a disappointment as only the game with St. Bonaventure resulted in a victory for Coach Hammett's boys. This year Manager Dickson has worked hard to get a good schedule, one of the best all-around that a Gold and Blue team has ever had.

Thiel started her schedule one week ahead of Allegheny and on Saturday, September 25, defeated the Titusville Independents by a 27-0 score. This shows that they must have a strong team this season, both offensively as well as defensively.

While Thiel was defeating Titusville, the varsity was administering a 25 to 3 defeat to the second team. This practice game was to determine who had the fight and "pep" necessary to hold down a job on the varsity against Thiel. Although the day was hot and sultry, the game was of three ten-minute and one 20-minute quarters. Some of the new men showed up well, while the letter men showed their old pep, giving the coach a good idea of what could be expected of them.

ALLEGHENY TO FACE WORTHY OPPONENTS

FOOTBALL SCHEDULE IS WELL BALANCED

Much credit is due to Francis Dickson for the very fine football schedule which he has prepared for the Allegheny eleven for this season. Though Dickson was not in school except for part of the year, he got together one of the most evenly balanced programmes which has confronted the Blue and Gold for some time.

With the new athletic programme Allegheny has been able to take on better opponents than ever before. This fall sees two new teams appearing on the schedule, Colgate, which has one of the fastest and best teams of the East, will be met at Hamilton, N. Y., and Dickinson College will appear in combat with Coach Applegran's "fighting fools" the week following.

The schedule has been evenly arranged so that games will be played on Montgomery Field every other Saturday, starting with the Thiel game which took place last week-end. This coming Saturday the team will make a pilgrimage to New York State to meet the fast-going Colgate team and a week later will resume exhibitions at home. Following this game is an open date which will not be filled but the team will be given a short rest before tackling Grove City College here and Carnegie Tech at Pittsburgh. The last home game will be with Westminster College on November 13. This game promises to be a thriller; for last year the teams played to a scoreless tie. The last game for the year will be played away from home with Geneva College as the opponent. The schedule, as announced by Manager Dickson, is as follows:

October 2—Thiel College at home.
October 9—Colgate at Hamilton, N. Y.
October 16—Dickinson College at home.
October 23—Open permanently.
October 30—Grove City College at home.
November 6—Carnegie Tech at Pittsburgh.
November 13—Westminster College at home.
November 20—Geneva College at Beaver Falls.

Soccer is more for the two under classes as the climax to that season will be in the form of a championship game between them sometime in November. Soccer has always proved to be an interesting game both for the players and the spectators and with a coach who knows the game thoroughly, this year's soccer ought to be more interesting than ever. Practice is to start soon and will be held twice a week from 1:45 p.m. to 3:45 p.m. The coach asks that all men wear old clothes and shoes without cleats so as to avoid injuries.

Rink Kofford, captain-elect of this year's five, will look after basketball. All men who are not out for football who wish to try for a place on the squad of this year's floor aggregation should start in with this early squad under the leadership of Captain Kofford. Practice will be held three times a week as soon as the gymnasium floor is completed, which may be about Thanksgiving time.

General class work will consist of basketball, indoor baseball, volley ball, medicine ball and other games. Setting up exercises will also be indulged in to some extent. The games will be real contests, giving every one a good chance to learn all the indoor games. Basketball, of the general class work, will consist of shooting, passing, dribbling and actual team play.

For any of this physical training the student is to select hours which will best fit into his schedule. The morning periods are 10:40 to 11:30, 11:40 to 12:30 and in the afternoon 1:45 to 2:35 and 2:45 to 3:35. Everyone must provide himself with proper equipment and lockers will be provided in the gymnasium for which there will be a key deposit fee of 50 cents, refunded when the key is returned.
