OF ALLEGHENY COLLEGE

VOLUME XXVIII—NUMBER 29. MEADVILLE, PA., JUNE 4, 1910.

The Final Game

West Virginia Wesleyan Lost to Allegheny Saturday, 4-3

The Allegheny baseball team closed its season for 1910 last Saturday in a satisfactory manner when West Virginia Wesleyan was defeated by a score of 4-3. The ideal weather conditions drew a large crowd which expected to see a lively contest. The opposite happened, and there was little to excite or merit applause from the grandstand. Lore started the game for the locals, but was relieved in the third by Hawk. Lore had already been touched for four good hits, and Hawk allowed taree more. Phillips for the West Virginia team pitched excellent ball, allowing but one hit and that a bunt. He managed to keep the ball breaking at the wrong place.

Two runs were scored by the Allegheny team in the first inning and the other two in the third. Rossiter, the first man up, bunted and owing to a misjudgment of the infielder, landed safe on first. Leffel bunted safe and on a wild throw both these men advanced one base. Firestone drew a base on balls and Abbott knocked a slow grounder to the pitcher who returned it home, forcing Rossiter out. Firestone and Leffel both came in a little later on short infield balls. Rossiter and Leffel again in the third led the batting order but neither reached first. Both Abbott and Firestone reached first and on Baker's long fly scored, the last runs for Allegheny in the game.

Wesleyan secured their first run in the third when the first and second men up drew hits and scored on an error. Practically the same feat occurred in the fourth and eighth innings.

MRS. RUTHERFORD TO SING

At Annual Commencement Glee Club Concert June 18th

With the change of the date of the Annual Glee Club Concert from Tuesday evening, June 21st, to Saturday evening, June 18th, considerable delay was experienced by the management in arranging for the soloist, Mrs. Susan Brooke Rutherford, but word was received Thursday that no conflict will prevent her making her visit to Allegheny to assist the club on Saturday evening. Mrs. Rutherford is a near friend of Professor Cobern.

Mrs. Rutherford's present home is in Pittsburg. She studied in New York City two seasons under Mme. Von Klenner and Richard Percy, where she was soloist at the Marble Collegiate Church for one year. She then accepted a position as instructor in voice in West Virginia University which she held for two years. She then went abroad and studied under Frau Giampietro in Vienna, and was accepted for Royal Opera after eight months' study. She was also chosen for Royal Opera at Dresden, and was contralto soloist at Vienna at Saint Augustine Church, the Royal Church, during the Easter Festival of 1907-8.

In commenting on the work of Mrs. Rutherford, Count Von Seibach, Director of Opera at Dresden, Saxony, said:

"Your singing has surprised me beyond words and your pronounciation of our very difficult language was a very great pleasure to listen to. Frau Reuss Belch will enjoy teaching you the Wagnerian roles for which your wonderful voice is so well suited."

The Pittsburg Dispatch said: "Mrs. Rutherford sang in a manner which gave this wonderful singer an opportunity to show her beautiful voice and entrench her forever in the hearts of the people who heard her."

The Pittsburg Post, in praising her highly, said in part: "On every side did Mrs. Rutherford receive great applause."

Mrs. Rutherford has appeared in a number of other large cities in this country and abroad before cultured audiences, and in every instance she has provoked most enthusiastic applause. It is a rare opportunity for the Glee Club to receive promise of such assistance as Mrs. Rutherford will surely give them, and an honor indeed for the members of the musical organization to appear on a program with a distinguished contralto such as Mrs. Rutherford is.

In addition to the assistance of Mrs. Rutherford, the "Old Quartet" composed of Lick, Russell, Thomas and Hickernell will render several numbers. This feature in itself ought to commend the event to the musical public of Meadville.

Moving Up Day Preparation

Parade, Chapel Exercises, Baseball Games and Minstrel Show Planned for Next Friday

Under the direction of the presidents of the four classes, the plans for Moving Up Day are progressing rapidly. The formal chapel exercises will be begun by J. F. Sayre, '11, who will petition the Seniors for their seats. J. R. Gahan, '10, will reply to their petition. The Sophomores will then petition for the Junior seats through W. A. Hill, '12, and will be answered by Miss Una Duffy. Seth Perley, '13, will make the Freshman request and will be replied to by Miss Marian Thomas.

As usual an air of secrecy surrounds the plans for the big parade. It is confidently asserted that the Freshmen will create a sensation with a novel stunt. The Sophomores, however, do not expect to be outdone, while the traditional makeups of the two upper classes will be modified in several original ways. Bands, floats, automobiles, clowns and other independent features will also be introduced.

Although nothing definite has been determined it is hoped that the Senior-Faculty game will be played as in past years. Another suggestion is that the Seniors and Juniors play a game before chapel. Some additional means of strengthening the traditions of this day will doubtless be supplied.

The culmination of the Moving Up Day events will come in the evening, when a first class and up-to-date minstrel show will be presented in the gymnasium under the direction of the Glee Club. It is the expectation that the show will surpass any ever given here in previous years.

The show is being personally directed by Geo. Criswell, '10, who had charge of the performance of last Moving Up Day in which he made a name for himself as a minstrel man. The overture is thought by many to surpass the one of last year which was accorded a great ovation and which was labeled "the best ever." The one of this year differs from the last in that there are fewer solos and more chorus work.

Weidler, Harris, Leffel and Cochran have been at work for several weeks on their end men stunts and will make the great hits of the evening in their song and dance specialties. It is rumored that the jokes will hit the faculty as well as the students and it is said that the book store and other well known and honored institutions of Allegheny will not be overlooked.

The proceeds of the show are to be given to the Y. M. C. A. and the Athletic Association.

BLOCK A PRESENTATION

A special feature of the Moving Up Day chapel exercises will be the presentation of Block A's to the track and baseball men.

AT WASHINGTON TODAY

The track team left last night for Washington, Pa., where the big intercollegiate meet will be held today.

At present everything points toward a duplication of last year's feat when Allegheny carried off first place. In fact Allegheny has never been lower than second place and we have every reason to believe that this year's team is the strongest team which has ever represented Allegheny. Sure point winners are to be found in almost every event and every event will have an Allegheny representative entered.

The following men will represent the college: Stidger, Ball, Brigham, Whitney, Croasmun, Barstow, Gibbs, Hofelt, Van Horn, Hilborn, DeYoung.

SIGMA ALPHA EPSILON.

At one of the most pleasing functions of the year, Pennsylvania Omega of Sigma Alpha Epsilon received its friends in the chapter house, Tuesday evening. The reception line included Dr. and Mrs. Lee, Dr. Ling, and a number of the younger alumni of the fraternity. For amusement a series of literary contests were intoduced, while the music of an orchestra helped to enliven the evening.

The chapter house was tastefully decorated with palms and pennants, and presented a very pleasing appearance. Refreshments were served in the dining room, after which, in an unique manner, each lady was presented with a favor, in the form of a small fraternity spoon.

BASEBALL CAPTAIN

Notice is given that the election of baseball captain for the year 1911 will be held at Wilcox Hall on Saturday, June 4, 1910, at 12:30 p. m. The following are eligible to vote: Abbott, Hawk, Leffel, Baker, W. R. Grant, Harris, Gahan, Rossiter and Firestone.

Tennis Victory

Allegheny Team Won Doubles at Pittsburg, Average Second.

Allegheny again carried away laurels when Stidger and Dalzell took first place in the intercollegiate tournament held at Pittsburg last week on the Country Club's courts. Carnegie Tech's team were the "runners up." Quite a little difficulty was caused in selecting the team in doubles. Weidler and Dalzell had been the winners in the tournament here but owing to the disqualification of Weidler it was necessary to select a new team.

Dalzell made an excellent showing in the singles. He came up to the finals with Mackrell, Pitt's representative without a single defeat chalked up against him. The Pittsburg Dispatch says of this final match: "The match between these two stars was the most exciting of the tournament, Mackrell taking the first set 6-3, losing the second 5-7 and winning the third and fourth 6-3 and 6-4.

Harper, the other Allegheny representative in singles, did not reach the finals.

The final averages of the various colleges are as follows: University of Pittsburg, .833; Allegheny College, 788; Carnegie Tech, 722; Grove City, 388 and Westminister and Grove City, tie, .255.

Gold medals were awarded to the winners in both singles and doubles and silver medals to the "runners up."

Dalzell will play Woods, of Tech., for the silver medal awarded to the "runner up" in singles.

DUZER DU CAST.

Definite arrangements are now being made by Duzer Du to repeat the production of "She Stoops to Conquer," on Tuesday evening of Commencement week, at the Academy of Music, for the benefit of athletics.

It was some time after the dramatic club made the offer to repeat the show in order to help athletic stringency that the faculty succeeded in changing the commencement program so as to find room for the performance. Finally Tuesday night was decided upon and the Glee Club concert, which was to have been at that time was changed to the Saturday night preceding.

An important meeting of the Duzer-Du men was held in the Club room in Bentley on last Tuesday afternoon, at which plans for the production were discussed. Advertising arrangements have been made and the theater contract has been signed. The cast will be the same as in the last performance with the possible change of some of the minor parts. The costumes have been ordered from Pittsburg and will be practically the same as those used in the March performance.

The first rehearsal was held on last Wednesday night, at which time the first two acts were tried; on last night the last three acts were taken.

Rehearsals will be held throughout next week and special work will be done during examination week when possible. Several complete rehearsals will be held in the theater after examinations and the final production on June 21 will doubtless surpass the performance given on March 17.

Chapel Comedy

Hymn Books and Psalters Disappeared Wednesday Morning

On last Wednesday morning the reverence and tranquility of the chapel service was sadly disturbed by the absence of all the psalters and hymnals through some unknown cause. The loss was not discovered until the reading of the psalm was begun.

With all his usual dignity, Professor Dutton began reading the first verse. When only about three voices came in reply, he must have mused unto himself concerning the regularity with which the student body neglects the first few verses. However, when, on the second reading by the congregation, the only response came from the faculty seats the acting President began to attain to a high standard of intellectual enlightenment. In short, he was "wise." The service was finished by Professor Dutton and the nine faculty members present. At times the reading had to be stopped to quiet the noise in the less dignified sections (not to mention any particular class). A similar predicament was encountered when the beautiful strains of the hymn were begun by the organist who, discovering that he was playing a solo, played "Nearer My God to Thee," which was sung with a will by all.

ATHLETICS AND ALUMNI.

This week marks the close of the spring athletic season at Allegheny. Those who doubted when the financial question was put before the student body a few weeks ago have been converted, for the seasons just completed in baseball and track were very successful. The results are more satisfactory than they have been for years. This is in spite of two great handicaps, first, lack of money, and second, lack of available, experienced men, especially in baseball. The fact that winning teams have been developed anyway, is a cause for congratulation.

About Next Year.

But the real question is whether or not conditions will be the same next year. Will the proverbial canvass of the student body for more money than should be reasonably asked of it occur as usual? It has been shown that athletics here require $2,500 per year. The income under the present arrangement is $2,000. A plan for furnishing the other $500 must be devised, and must be studied out this summer. There are several ways this may be done. A tuition fee for athletics has solved the problem in many schools. An alumni organization has worked in other places. An equal feeling of obligation on the part of all students would bring about the desired result, but it seems that this Utopia can never be attained. Whatever is done, next year is a crisis in our athletic history. The fond dream of every Alleghenian is a successful solution of the problem which is sure to come up.

Alumni, Read This.

The solving of our athletic policy will end best under the best attendant circumstances. That is, we want the best teams next year we ever had. Here, Mr. Alumnus, is where we look to you.

Many of the schools with which we compete depend for athletic material upon men loyal alumni have influenced to come their way. That explains why certain schools with a very small student body can rank high in the athletic roll. Of course Allegheny wants men for oratory, debate, scholarship and a dozen other interests, but next year is the one year when an especial effort ought to be made to bring athletes here. So, Mr. Alumnus, if you know a football star, a basket ball hero, or a man who has done good work in baseball or track, won't you use your influence to turn him this way?

Dollars vs. Alumni.

This appeal should be especially acceptable because it is a fair and square method of achieving results. Some few other schools go with a check book to secure men for their teams. Allegheny looks, not to the dollars she can pay, but to the alumni who will use their influence for the bettering of their alma mater.

AS OTHERS SEE US

While both the Grove City and Rochester track meets were Allegheny victories as shown by the respective scores, the following extracts from letters show that they were victories in more ways than one.

H. M. Black, manager of the Grove City track team, writes to Cole as follows:

"I and the entire team wish to thank you and Hines for favors shown us in the meet of May 7th. We wish to commend you on the fairness with which the meet was conducted. Am sorry we could not make a better showing, but hope to meet Allegheny next year."

W. W. Lewis, manager of the Rochester team writes:

"The Rochester team came home a defeated bunch, but enthusiastic over what they termed 'the time of their life.' And it is because of this fact that I cannot help letting you know how much I, as manager, and the college as a whole appreciate the royal and square treatment our fellows received at your hands. Each man came up to me and expressed his regret that I was not along to meet and enjoy the hospitality of men who treated them 'white.' Defeat under such wholesome environment is not hard to swallow.

"It is perhaps worthy of comment right here to say that in my judgment, the severe criticism hurled against intercollegiate contests, namely that it is 'anything to win,' fades into insignificance when confronted with such spirit as that displayed by your college."

LIBRARY NOTES.

All persons having books from the Library are requested to return them as soon as possible. An inventory is being taken and it will assist very much if the students and professors will return books as soon as convenient. Seniors must have all library accounts settled before June 8, and underclassmen before June 16. The Library will be open during Commencement and books may be drawn over night during examinations, but no books will be loaned after Saturday, June 18.

One of the most important gifts of the year to the Library is the collection of 61 volumes of University of Pennsylvania publications recently received. The departments of Botany, Astronomy, English, Greek, Latin, Philosophy, History and Economics are all represented in this valuable collection.

Y. M. C. A.

The last meeting of the college Y. M. C. A. for the school year was held Wednesday evening. Mr. Henry Leitzel led and gave a report of the World's Sunday School Convention at Washington, which he attended as a delegate. Many interesting facts were related and many helpful thoughts, gleaned at the convention, were given. Mr. Hickernell sang a solo.

Some of the echoes heard should be of general interest. This was the sixth world convention of the sort which has been held. Fifty-one countries were represented by twenty thousand delegates and visitors. President Taft made the address of welcome. During the course of the convention many noted men from all parts of the world spoke.

Next Wednesday evening the last union meeting of the year will be held in the chapel.

L. W. SHERWIN, '08

Louis W. Sherwin, '08, arrived in Meadville this week and in a few days expects to take up his work as acting pastor of the First Presbyterian church during the absence abroad of Rev. W. B. Irwin. During the past year, Mr. Sherwin has been attending Boston School of Theology and acting as paid Sunday School Superintendent for a large New England church.

INTERCOLLEGIATE

The son of the President, Robert Taft, was voted the best student in his class at Yale.

Ohio Wesleyan accuses De Pauw of entering "ringers" in their intercollegiate debate.

Vassar College authorities have filed an injunction at Kansas City restraining a local manufacturing company from using the label, "Always Fresh" on a brand of chocolates called "Vassar Girls."

"Reserve carries off state oratorical prize," is the head of the column in the "Miami Student," which gives an account of the Peace oratorical contest for Ohio, which Art Young recently won for Western Reserve.

PROMINENT ALLEGHENIANS.

William P. McElwain, '85 an attorney of Seattle, Washington, stopped in Meadville, recently. He is taking a wedding trip around the world.

W. J. Miller, '04, pastor of the Methodist church at Fayette City, Pa., was married the early part of last month to Miss B. L. Marrette, of Mechanicsburg.

The Methodist church at New Kensington recently burned a large mortgage which was paid as a result of the efforts of the pastor, M. A. Rigg, '90.

A recent issue of the Pittsburg Christian Advocate contains an interesting article by Rev. B. F. Beazell, '68. It is a review of a book, "The Decay of the Church of Rome," by Joseph McCabe, in which the dangers to the Catholic church are pointed out.

The New York Christian Advocate of May 26, has for its front cover a picture of the great Sunday School rally in Tokyo, at which Bishop M. C. Harris, '73, presided. It was held in the mammoth wrestling amphitheater of that city and over 12,000 Sunday School scholars were present.

Under the head of "Annotations" the Christian Advocate of New York tells of a unique gavel, made by Dr. T. H. Hagerty, '54, and presented by him to the Commander-in-Chief of the Grand Army of the Republic It is composed of a large number of relics of the Civil and Spanish-American wars.

Mr. Frederic C. Howe, '89, author of "The City, the Hope of the Democracy" and other books on municipal government, contributes an article to the June Everybody's on "A Golden Rule Chief." It deals with the picturesque Cleveland man who is chief of police, Fred Kohler. The unique "golden rule" plan of treating criminals developed in Cleveland, is described in detail and commended.

Rev. Napthali Luccock, vice-president of the college from 1886-1888, together with ex-Governor J. Frank Hanly, of Indiana, were the men selected to carry greeting from the Methodist Episcopal church to the general conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, South. The religious papers throughout the country have been printing his address of greeting in full.

Bishop W. F. Oldham, who attended Allegheny college in the eighties, was the presiding bishop at the conference which marked the first quarter century of work completed by the Malaysia mission. Bishop Oldham was the first worker of the Methodist church in this field which now includes besides the Malay peninsula, the Phillipines, Java, Borneo and Sumatra. It is interesting to note that Bishop Oldham received from Bishop Thoburn the original commission to pioneer the whole of Malaysia.

Mr. Frank A. Arter, '64, President of the Board of Trustees of the college, sailed for London, Saturday, April 16. He gives an interesting account of the trip in his article "On Board an Ocean Liner," which appeared in a recent issue of the Pittsburg Christian Advocate. The eight days that it now takes to get from Cleveland to London are strongly contrasted with the sixteen weeks that such a trip occupied in the early forties. There is also a suggestion of the difference in comfort and safety with which the voyage was made then and now.

Y. W. C. A.

The Sophomore meeting of the Y. W. C. A., Sunday evening was led by Miss Lina Power, '12. The subject was "An Heritage of Loyalty," and the leader brought out helpful suggestions in the discussion of loyalty to ourselves, to our friends and to our ideals.

KALDRON WORK DELAYED

The Kaldron will not be issued until the first of commencement week owing to the fact that some of the photographs have been delayed for several weeks by Pratt. The manager is unable to proceed any farther with the book until these are finished.

TEUTONIAN GIRLS.

The Teutonian girls of the college entertained a number of their friends at an informal picnic yesterday afternoon and evening. About forty couples left on the five o'clock car for Oakwood Park where a sumptuous picnic supper was served. The remainder of the evening was passed in playing games of an original nature.

The Pittsburg Christian Advocate of this week devotes a half page to the affairs of Allegheny College. Of particular interest are the announcements concerning the coming commencement. In addition to the dedication of the monument to the soldiers who went to the war, a sun-dial will be presented by a former class. Rev. A. M. Courtenay will preach the sermon before the religious organizations.

Newton Observatory has been a very popular place during the past few weeks while Halley's comet has been on its visit. However, the comet has presented a more beautiful appearance to the naked eye or through a field glass than through the large telescope. The few clear nights have given excellent opportunities for viewing this famous tramp. Jupiter, at present, when viewed through the telescope is also very beautiful. Four of its nine moons are visible.

W. L. Stidger, ex-'10, and Miss Iva Berkey, '07, were married at the home of the latter in Ligonier, Pa., on June 1st. Both are well known here. Miss Berkey was for a year at the head of the Hulings Hall discipline committee and was also a member of the Kappa Alpha Theta fraternity. Mr. Stidger, who was a member of the Junior class last year, was at that time editor of the Campus. At present Mr. Stidger is vice-president of the East Greenwich Academy, Rhode Island.

The Iliff School of Theology, of University Park, Colorado, has sent out circulars to some of the college people who may desire to pursue further work as a preparation for the Christian ministry. The school is under the direction of the Methodist Episcopal church and is being boomed at the present time by Bishop Henry White Warren. Bishop Warren sends a very cordial invitation to all young men of the college who are preparing to study theology to send for a prospectus of this new school before deciding to go elsewhere.

Pittsburgh's Foremost Uptodate Store

Primarily a Dry Goods Store

but, in keeping abreast of the times, now a store in which about everything that old and young require is to be found. Seven acres of selling space.

A special feature is the selling of clothes for men and boys, women and girls.

Fashions in clothes are to be seen here as soon as they make their appearance—as a rule, we are the first in the city to show new styles.

The two things that form the solid foundation of this store, upon which has been built Pittsburg's largest retail business, are quality and less price. Quality for quality, our prices are lower than anywhere in the city.

SENIOR-JUNIOR SMOKER.

The Senior-Junior smoker Thursday evening was one of the most successful college functions held recently. The traditional good fellowship attending the smoking of the peace pipe and the burial of the hatchet was at its height. As hosts the class of 1911 made their ancient rivals forget rivalries and grudges.

A little before seven o'clock most of both classes started on a special car for Oakwood Park. On their arrival, a reception committee which had gone out earlier in the afternoon greeted them. Refreshments and tobacco were soon served, and the solemn council of the two tribes was held. Speeches were made, the pipe of peace puffed, and the hatchet burried. During the rest of the evening old fashioned games were played and other informal amusements enjoyed.
