W. T. Rawleigh
Freeport, Illinois

My dear Mr. Rawleigh:

Accept my hearty thanks for the copy of Freeport's Lincoln which you have so kindly sent me with your compliments.

I was greatly interested, naturally in your undertaking. It is a beautiful tribute to your son.

Mr. Crunelle's conception of Lincoln in the debates is a fine, free, intelligent piece of work. I am the more partial to it I suppose because it is my own notion of what the man must have been at that time.

I hope you and the little grandsons are getting joy and inspiration out of your fine gift to Freeport.

Very sincerely yours
