Mr. William W. Lunt,
Hingham, Mass.

My dear Mr. Lunt:

I have your card saying that you have found the book on the Two Hundredth Anniversary of the Old Church. I am most glad to have it . Will you be good enough to send it to me, with bill, at 120 East Nineteenth Street, New York?

I have had a very interesting time at Hingham and am grateful to you for your courtesy and help. The introduction to Mr. Page was especially valuable. He has been kindness itself.

I am particularly anxious to get a simple outline map of Hingham in the Seventeenth century with the location of the Samuel and Thomas Lincoln holdings, the old meeting house and the Benjamin Lincoln house. If you know of anyone who could make this for me at a reasonable expense, I should be obliged if you would put me in touch with him.

Again, would it be asking too much for you to copy and send to me the text of the inscription on the piece of paper taken from the bottle thrown out by the lighthouse keepers? I should like to quote this in a little writing I am doing and of course would mention the Historical Association.

With renewed thanks for your courtesy, believe me, my dear Mr. Lunt,

Sincerely yours,
