

December 11, 1936

My dear Mr. Gumm:

Are you doing anything about "He Knew Lincoln" for the coming Lincoln season, or do you care longer to handle it? I suppose I am free, am I not, to read it myself or let it out in case a sponsor offers himself? Just how do we stand?

I thought of you when I learned of Chic Sales' death. I knew how pleasant your relations had been. It is a real loss. There are so few that help the world to be merry these days and in such a wholesome, hearty way, too.

With all good wishes

Very sincerely yours

Mr. Harold Gumm
1540 Broadway
New York City