My Dear Miss Tarbell

I saw sig^ra Boccini last evening. She is, I am sorry to say, ill in bed. She showed me the note you had sent at my suggestion, and explained to me that I was mistaken in thinking she had arranged for the film to be shown. What she had done was to get her husband to speak with the secretary of Calza Bini (he himself is not of Rome.) Calza Bini is the President of the Istituto per le Case Popolari. The secretary said that he would be most happy at any time to give you all the information you might desire and to arrange for you to see any houses etc. you might wish to visit.

If this would be helpful to you would you kindly send a note to Comm. Bocconi, at the Museo Palazzo Scuola (Campidoglio) saying what day and hour would suit you and he will arrange at once for the meeting & let you know. I am so sorry that I had got hold of a wrong version of the facts, but truly that as it is Sig. Boccini's help may be of some use to you.

I am so thankful that you came us to your fellow countrymen. Our nation is trying to live up to a high standard of duty and patriotism and to overcome by endurance and hard work the manifold difficulties which beset it.

Yours sincerely,
