Paris.

Dear Miss Tarbell:-

Many thanks for your letter of the 8th. I will at once see if I can get you suitable quarters near the British Museum; but if this cannot be arranged for a day or two, my wife and I shall be very glad to have you stop with us. In fact, we would be glad to have you during your whole visit, but as we live some miles out of town, I am afraid you would find it inconvenient and hampering in your work.

Yours sincerely,

S. S. McClure

P.S. My private address is Lismore Lodge, Twickenham. You get there by taking a train from Waterloo Station, a distance of about thirty minutes.
