HISTORICAL RESEARCH FOUNDATION

LOUIS A. WARREN, DIRECTOR

THE LINCOLN NATIONAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY FORT WAYNE INDIANA

March 19, 1929

Miss Ida M. Tarbell
120 E. Nineteenth St.
New York, N.Y.

My dear Madam:

One of the many pleasant tasks of the Lincoln Historical Research Foundation is to serve those who are vitally interested in the life of Abraham Lincoln.

If you are making a collection of Lincolniana, studying some phase of Lincoln's life, or associated with an organization which gathers or disseminates Lincoln lore, we should be pleased to assist you in these efforts.

This inquiry has been prepared in order that we may know just where your interest lies in this field of effort. If such advice becomes available to us, it will greatly facilitate the release of data which deals directly with your Lincoln point of contact.

The filling out and return of the enclosed card will allow you to share in the findings of this foundation. The reverse side of the card may be used by collectors to summarize the extent of their efforts; by authors to note the titles they have published; and by librarians, genealogists, and editors, to cite any interests not tabulated on the face of the card.

This foundation is sponsored and wholly maintained by The Lincoln National Life Insurance Company and correspondence should be addressed to the director.

Yours truly,

Louis A. Warren Director
Lincoln Historical Research Foundation
