Dear Miss Tarbell:

The portrait of Lincoln by Gutzum Borglum which you sent delights us very much. "Missy" Meloney certainly did a beautiful thing in making it possible for your collection to have this copy. It is to me one of the most interesting portraits of the many that are here. We shall certainly give her credit and in addition thank you very much for this splendid addition to the collection.

Did you see Mr. McMuctry's Holiday Greeting? He has been very generous with us and I shall never cease to be grateful for the contact with Holgatt.

All of us on the staff thank you for your New Year's greetings and trust that you had a very comfortable and happy Holiday season. We are enjoying(?) sub-zero weather here at present.

Very sincerely yours

Edith Rowley
