June 25,1924.

My dear Mrs. Gompers:

Pardon the delay in replying to your note of June 10th. I have been out of New York.

I have very little that will serve your purpose, for I never saw very much of Mr. Gompers. There are two or three things, however, which might be useful to you, and I will dictate them when I have time and send them on for you to use them or not.

I'm glad you are gathering these intimate recollections. They ought to be capital reading, and I shall certainly want to see the book.

With all good wishes to yourself, believe me,

Very sincerely,

Mrs. Samuel Gompers,
