HIRAM FALLS AN EASY VICTIM TO HOME FIVE

Allegheny Piles Up a Score of 61 Points to Visitor's 5—Team Work Good

With the overwhelming score of 61 to 5 Allegheny successfully opened its basketball season with a victory over Hiram. From the time that Meredith got the initial tip-off until the last second of play when Baldwin scored from the field it was Allegheny's game; at no time was there any doubt as to the outcome. The ball was always in Allegheny's possession in Hiram's territory. Hiram made but one basket, due to the fact that they had scarcely more than a dozen shots at the basket, on account of Allegheny's five man guarding system.

The question arises—what are Allegheny's prospects for a championship team? The Hiram victory was hardly a fit test for they were scarcely as good as the Allegheny second team, offering no resistance whatever to our attack and seemingly mystified by our short, fast and accurate passes. However, we believe Allegheny is due to have a most successful year. The team work was smooth and the passing accurate. At times the shooting was a little off color, but as the season progresses this fault will be eliminated. The guarding of the whole team was close; as the score bears testimony to this fact.

The team this year consists of Capt. Volk and Kerr, forwards, Meredith, center, from last year's five, and Baldwin and Kofford, on guards. Baldwin and Kofford are the new faces on the team, but they are working well with the old men and aiding materially in the team play. Kofford is throwing the fouls. He was a little unsteady at the beginning of the Hiram game but in the second half scored seven free shots in succession.

Meredith got the first tip-off and placed the ball in Allegheny's hands. Close refereeing resulted in several fouls being called, none of which entered the scoring column. After two minutes of play, Kofford scored a basket from the field, followed in quick succession by a goal scored by Volk. Hiram scored twice on fouls—their only counters during the first half, during which time each member of the Allegheny quintet scored at least once. At half time the score stood: Allegheny, 22; Hiram, 2.

Allegheny entered the second half with the same dash and spirit, Volk caging a basket from the tip-off. For a few minutes Hiram offered a little resistance, but shortly succumbed to the superior team play of the Gold and Blue. Aside from the clever passing and team work of the locals the second half was very tame and uninteresting. Allegheny's shooting became ragged and several easy shots were spoiled.

The real test for the team will come on the Pitt, West Virginia trip, January 31. If Allegheny does not lower its colors, on this trip, we can safely predict a championship season, for West Virginia has one of the best floor teams in this section and is considered one of our hardest games. Pitt, too, must not be thought of lightly because up until the last few minutes of play, Pitt's five had West Virginia beaten in their contest last Friday night. No games will be played before Pitt because -the mid-year examinations begin this week. Coach Gilbert has been putting the varsity through long and severe scrimmages with the scrubs, so that physically they are in tip top shape to go forty minutes of fast basketball. Special attention will be paid to shooting and perfecting signals and team play.

Following is the score and line-up of the Hiram game:

Allegheny—61		Hiram—5
Kerr	F	G. Arnold
Volk, Capt.	F	Holroy, Capt.
Meredith	C	Hedger
Baldwin	G	Cutlep
Kofford	G	Donaldson

Substitutions: Fox for Donaldson, A. Arnold for Holroy.

Field goals: Kerr, 7; Volk, 7; Meredith, 6; Baldwin, 2; Kofford, 3; G. Arnold, 1.

Fouls: Kofford, 11 out of 16; G. Arnold, 3 out of 9.

Referee: Dougherty.

Timer: Dr. R. E. Lee.

Scorer: Preston.

College Trustee Meeting

FINANCIAL STATUS OF COLLEGE GOOD. FIVE NEW TRUSTEES ELECTED. $1,200. GIFT.

The Board of Trustees of Allegheny College held their semi-annual meeting last Thursday at the William Penn Hotel in Pittsburgh. The President of the Board, Mr. Arthur W. Thompson, presided. The officers of the Board and various committees in their reports showed the college to be in excellent condition both as to attendance and finances. Dr. Crawford's report showed 394 students now enrolled in the college. Of these, 190 are Freshmen. There were only 100 men who left school when the Students' Army Training Corps was demobilized.

The Treasurer reported that all bills were paid and that there still remained in the treasury $6,000 which sum, however, will be much reduced by the end of the year. Much depends on the settlement madewith the Government for services rendered while the S. A. T. C. was at Allegheny.

But one new gift was reported. This was a gift of $1,200 by Mrs. Sarah B. Cochran, made last Summer, for the refurnishing of Cochran Hall, the Freshman dormitory.

There was a change made in the Sabbatic Leave plan for professors, ennabling them to take their leave in this country doing research in some university or scientific institution. The new ruling will come into effect July 1, 1920.

Last fall the executive committee increased the professors' salaries because of the additional work made necessary by the S. A. T. C. At the meeting of the Board it was voted to maintain this increase in spite of the fact that the days of the S. A. T. C. are over.

There were five new trustees elected: William J. Whieldon, of Mercer, nominated by the Erie Conference; Benjamin A. Heydrick, of New York City, and Dr. Frederick S. Breed, of Chicago, both nominated by the Alumni; Hary C. McEldowney, President of the Union Trust Company of Pittsburgh, and John B. Ford, of Detroit, President of the Ford Alkali Company of Michigan. Mr. McEldowney's father was one of the officers of the College in the early days and was a generous contributor to the first endowment raised for the college. Mr. Ford is a grandson of Captain John B. Ford, who gave the money for the building of the Ford Memorial Chapel.

Glee Club Chosen

PERSONNEL OF 1919 CLUB ANNOUNCED. INSTRUMENTAL CLUB FORMING.

The organization of the Men's Glee Club, which was started last week through the efforts of J. A. M. Stewart, is now completed. Last Saturday afternoon more than thirty men gathered at the Ford Chapel for the final tryouts, and Director Stewart, Professor Ward and S. L. Eberlee, '19, proceeded at once to select the personnel of the Club.

As there was excellent musical material to select from, the competition was keen and the critics had a difficult time to decide who was eligible for the Club. Each student was asked individually to sing any part he preferred and later, he was asked to sing in a mixed chorus to determine whether the voices blended harmoniously. The tryout lasted for about two hours so that every student had a good chance to prove his ability in singing for an audience.

The personnel of the Glee Club consists of five first tenors, five second tenors, five first basses and five second

Plans for College Dinner

ANNUAL WASHINGTON BIRTHDAY BANQUET TO BE BIG AFFAIR. PREPARATIONS UNDER WAY.

The Student Senate has already taken steps to give the Washington Birthday Banquet once more a place in our college life. This, the most pretentious social event of the year, was not held last year for patriotic reasons, but now plans are going along smoothly to make the banquet this year a great enough success to make up for the omission.

For the benefit of the under classmen, it may be well to outline the most important points concerning this affair. Heretofore it has been an annual event, attended by all the students of the college, the Faculty and many of the Alumni. Each class is given a quarter of the gymnasium which each strives to outdo the other in decorating. The Seniors make their first appearance in their black caps and gowns while the Juniors wear white gowns and the members of the Sophomore and Freshmen classes vie with each other in the picturesqueness and originality of their costumes which are kept secret from all the rest of the school until the night of the banquet.

Between courses each class gives its own songs and yells which are of course original. Here again secrecy is observed by the members of the two lower classes and each tries to surpass the other in cleverness and originality. This year the Sophomores will not have the advantage of experience since there was no banquet held yast year.

To make this event take place with the desired success preparations must be begun at once. A large part depends on the classes. The matter has been put before the Sophomore and Freshmen classes by the Student Senate. When the Washington Birthday Banquet becomes a fact the students of Allegheny can feel that our college is once more firmly established on its pre-war footing.

ASSISTANT MANAGER OF BASKET BALL ELECTED.

Gilbert Benson, '20, was elected as Assistant Basket Ball Manager at an election held on Friday, January 17, between the hours of 10:30 and 12:30.

The election proved to be a very close one as Mr. Benson had 80 votes, while Hartman, '21, the other candidate, succeeded in getting 79.

It is very probable that Mr. Benson will be the Basket Ball Manager for the season of 1919-20 as it is customary for the Assistant Manager to take the managership the following season.

DEBATING ACTIVITIES TO GO ON.

Although it is too late for a triangle debate in which the Allegheny teams have taken part in former years, nevertheless it is intended the debating activities shall go on. Inasmuch as the preliminaries for a triangle debate would occupy a month at least and as activity along this line could not begin until examinations were over and the second semester under way it appears impossible to hold this debate this year. Last year the personnel of the teams consisted of Messrs. Colley, Parrish, Jones, Carney, Benson, Skinner and McCreary. Of these men McCreary has graduated and Parrish and Skinner have left school, but the others are still here and will, in all probability, be in school next year. In view of this fact the outlook for debate looks very favorable and it is not the intention of the faculty and those interested in debating that interest in this activity shall be permitted to die out. This lull in intercollegiate debating activities is a splendid opportunity to develop new material and perfect our debating organization.

As for inter-class debates, there will be plenty of time during the second semester to hold them. Last year a custom was instituted which has greatly heightened interest in interclass contests of this kind. The large blue and gold banner which hangs in the Library was put up last year for the first time. In the debate between the Sophomore and Freshman classes at that time the Sophomores won and accordingly their numerals, '20, appear on the banner. It is the intention that these debates between the two banner classes be continued and the winning class is entitled to have its numeral placed on this banner. Already the Freshmen have shown considerable interest in this line of work and an interesting contest is looked forward to.

College Band Organized

MAKES FINE SHOWING AT BASKETBALL GAME. H. M. MAITLAND, '22, LEADER.

H. M. Maitland, '22, assistant leader of the S. A. T. C. Band, is leader of the new College Band, which made its first appearance last Saturday, most of them having played in the old S. A. T. C. Band. That the new College Band is fast gaining a reputation for itself is evidenced by the comments of the fine showing the band made at the opening of the basketball season last Saturday evening. The College Band rendered many popular ragtime selections which put a lot of "pep" into the Allegheny squad of players.

The personnel of the College Band includes H. M. Maitland, '22, leader; J. C. McCreary, '21; Iams, '21; Clark, '21; Kelly, '21; Trezice, '22; Gerdon, '22; Limber, '22; Humes, '20; Cornell, '22; Russell, '22; E. Baldwin, '22; Pollock, and Magee, '22.

STUDENT SENATE ASSEMBLY.

Washington Birthday Banquet, College Band, and Kaldron, the Chief Matters Presented.

At Chapel Saturday morning the time was given over to the Student Senate to present some important questions to the student body. The first point brought up was concerning the Washington Birthday Banquet. Mr. Filer read the rules governing this function and urged the need of immediate action by the various classes. The Senate has done all that it can at present to make this banquet a reality and a success. It is now up to the clases to carry forward the work.

The need of a band was next emphasized. While we had the S. A. T. C. at Allegheny a very good band was organized which demonstrated its ability on several occasions. As most of the members of this S. A. T. C. band are still in school, it is only a question of perpetuating the organization already begun, a task far easier than that faced in other years when creditable bands have been organized. A band is needed for basketball games. Besides, good music adds to the spirit of any college event. The success of this move was made evident at the game Saturday night.

The remainder of the time was taken up by some of the members of the Kaldron Board who presented to the students what was wanted from them to make the year book a success. Miss Clouse, the assistant editor, said that it was intended to publish the history of each class in verse and called upon the members of the various classes to asist in this unusual undertaking. Mr. Jones, the editor, outlined the purpose and scope of the Kaldron in general. He said that the book is to be dedicated to the men of Allegheny who have lost their lives in the service, including those killed in the Oakdale explosion. He urged the various fraternities to secure pictures of their members who have been killed as it is necessary that they be in the hands of the Board at an early date. The rest of the book, Mr. Jones said, is to be made as humorous as possible. Such, the Board thinks, would be the desire of the men to whom the book is dedicated . To this end the Editor laid stress on the importance of the students in general assisting in the way of handing in jokes and humorous items of all kinds as well as live snapshots depicting interesting scenes in college life. The Senior section is to be graced with baby pictures instead of the usual snap, beside the photograph. Manager Laffer then spoke on the need of subscriptions to make the Kaldron an assured success.

Contrary to the previous custom the cheer leader held the cheering rally in front of the Chapel at the close of the service, in anticipation of the basketball game with Hiram College.

LIT. MONTHLY IN PRINTER'S HANDS.

The Literary Monthly is in the hands of the Tribune press, all of the material having been delivered there since last week. The Lit. will undoubtedly be ready by the latter part of this month. Owing to the large amount of work on hand, the printers will not be able to complete the publication on January 20, as was first contemplated by the editors.

Many interesting features will characterize the first issue of the Literary Monthly. The poetical corner will be of an unusually interesting nature as many parodies, and poems of serious and light nature will be contained in the January number.

Wakefield Contest Assured

CIVIC ORATORICAL LEAGUE CONTEST TO BE HELD HERE IN MAY THIS YEAR.

All men who wish to compete for the Wakefield Oration prize have been asked to give their names to Mr. Benson. Althought it is now impossible to hold this contest on the date specified on the College Calendar, which is Thursday, February 6, Mr. Benson has been informed that if three or more speakers could be secured the date could be arranged to suit the speakers so long as no other college function was interefered with. To date nine men have indicated their wish to enter the contest. They are Messrs. McCafferty, Hoover, W. H. Welty, Krueger, Meredith, Barr, Russell, Colley, and Benson. As the winner of this contest represents the college in the Civic Oratorical League Contest, held sometime in May, the date will have to be arranged by the first of April at least. All men intending to enter the Contest are requested to meet at the Alpha Chi Rho House Wednesday at five o'clock.

The Wakefield Oration prize is offered annually by Mr. James A. Wakefield, of Pittsburgh. The amount of the prize is fifty dollars. All men above Freshman standing in college are permitted to compete.

The membership of the Civic Oratorical League, which was organized a number of years ago to develop a standard of public speaking among college students, consists of Allegheny College, Meadville, Pa.; Colgate University, Hamilton, N. Y.; University of Pittsburgh, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Ohio Wesleyan University, Delaware, Ohio, and the University of Wooster, Wooster, Ohio. Last year the contest was held at Hamilton, N. Y., with Mr. Jones representing Allegheny. This year the contest is to be held here sometime in May as indicated above.

Philo Franklin Contest.

Interest in oratory at Allegheny is still further encouraged by the Philo-Franklin Oration prize, competition for which is open to all men in college. No definite information is available at present but it is believed that this contest will be held this year if it is at all possible. If it is held the date scheduled on the college calendar will have to be changed. The present date set is Friday, February 21. In this contest two prizes are offered, a first prize of $15, and a second prize of $10.

If a Philo-Franklin Contest is to take place next March there must be many competitors, the minimum being three. If less than three students are interested in entering the contest, it is not believed that the Committee will allow this annual contest.

The Philo-Franklin Oration Contest is open only to the members of the Forum. Therefore, the first requisite for the contest is to enroll yourself in the Forum. There must be more members before a spirited oratorical contest can be held.

Last year about seven students were entered in the Philo-Franklin Contest and competition was very keen. There should be a large number of competitors for the contest this year. All interested should attend the Forum and indicate their desire to compete.

UNDER-CLASS ELECTIONS HELD.

Results In the Election of McMahon As President of the Sophomore Class, and Jordan as President of the Freshmen.

Both of the Under-Class elections were held during the past week under the action of the Student Senate.

The Sophomore class meeting was called for Wednesday, January fifteenth, at four-thirty o'clack. The results of the election are as follows:

President—J. F. McMahon.
Vice President—Florence Miller.
Secretary—Elizabeth Turner.
Treasurer—Gretchen Wood.

Mr. Filer, '19, President of the Student Senate was present at the meeting to explain the rules concerning the Washington's Birthday Banquet.

The Freshmen Class met on Thursday, January 16, for the purpose of electing their officers. The following persons were elected:

President—W. Jordan.
Vice President—Miss Abbot.
Secretary—Miss Coombs.
Treasurer—Miss Larson.

Mr. Filer also represented the Student Senate at this meeting in order to explain the Honor System and other traditions which the Freshmen should know.

The Junior and Senior Classes do not expect to hold their elections until the next semester on account of the absence of a considerable number of their members.

Great Lakes Game

STRONG NAVAL TRAINING FIVE TO PLAY HERE FEB. 25. WESTMINSTER SCHEDULED. GROVE CITY DATE CHANGED.

The contract for what promises to be the biggest basketball game of the season has been signed and the team representing the Great Lakes Naval Training Station will play here February 25. This team has already worked up a great reputation for itself by beating all the teams in the Western Conference. Manager Gordon is to be congratulated on being able to bring a team with such a reputation here. Allegheny basketball fans are assured of seeing such basketball as never before. If Allegheny's five succeeds in coming out the winner, our standing, already high, will be raised considerably. The Western Conference includes the strongest teams in that part of the country. By beating this Naval Training Station team Allegheny's basketball fame would be extended over an enviable area.

Before this game could be arranged for, it was necessary to secure backing by the student body. As it is generally considered that the Athletic Association loses money on home games, that organization refused to back up the manager in securing this game. A meeting of all the men in the College was held last Friday, at one o'clock, at which the student body, after hearing speeches by Captain Volk and Manager Gordon, voted to a man to make good any deficit resulting from this game. It is understood that in case the gate receipts do not cover the expenses of this seventh game, any money made in the previous games will go to make up the deficit, the students paying the remainder.

In addition to the game with the Great Lakes five the contract has been signed for a game with Westminster, which is to be played here March 1. The date of the next home game has been changed from February 7 to February 8 on which date Grove City will play here.

Allegheny's basketball standing is shown by the fact that Carnegie Tech and West Virginia Wesleyan both have written for dates to play here in March. However, it is understood that the Faculty's policy of permitting only six home games will be adhered to and that the home floor will not stage these games. It is to be regretted that Alleghenians will not be able to see these strong teams on the home floor.

KALDRON ASKS NAMES OF MEN KILLED IN SERVICE.

As was announced in last week's Campus the Kaldron for this year is to be dedicated to those men of this college who gave their lives that democracy might live. The Kaldron is willing to do its best that this book shall serve as a fitting memorial for these men but it must have the cooperation of every student to make this book the best as it rightly should be.

To make this book complete it is necessary that the Kaldron have certain data in regard to all the men who were killed in action or died from other causes. Following is a list of men who have given the supreme sacrifice as known by the Kaldron Staff:

Floyd E. Arnold, U. S. Inf.
Lieut. Frank O. Amon, Chem. Service.
Wells M. Clothier.
Elmer Conrath.
Capt. Fred Conover, U. S. Eng.
Lieut. Evans McKay, National Guards.
Grant S. Norton, U. S. Inf.
Don K. Prather.
Paul K. Sheffer.
Ellery J. Stetson, U. S. Inf.
William S. Sigendall.
F. Brinton Strosh.
Lieut. Ralph E. Graham, Aviation.

It is believed that this list is far short of complete and so it is asked that all who read this help complete it and hand the information to G. A. Benson, '20. The various fraternities are to be held strictly accountable for their own men and the information desired.

The Kaldron wishes the name, branch of service, and brief write-ups of each man, including both college and military careers, last military address, a picture and anything else that will prove of interest to readers of the Kaldron. The year book will be out on schedule time and so it is necessary to limit the date on which this material must be in. The time has been set for Feb. 10, and so it is requested that every one co-operate and do his or her best to make these write-ups complete.

EDITORIAL.

This week the Campus Staff welcomes back to its number John F. Preston, '20, a member of last year's staff, and an Assistant Editor in the present organization.

Examinations are in full swing day after tomorrow, marking the end of perhaps the most remarkable term in Allegheny's history. For some, the end of the first semester will mark the end of a none too successful half year of college work; and, at the same time, the beginning of a fresh semester in which to blot out the old scholastic stains and make a record worthy of normal years. There remains for everyone but one course to follow—get to work now; work through exams; start in fresh with the new semester; and work hard the rest of the year. Unrest has been prevalent. It's time to settle down before it's too late.

The band, a band worthy of Allegheny, is organized, and everyone is talking of the fine showing they made Saturday night at the game. The student body is backing the Band, and it is certain to take its place again in the life of Allegheny, among the institutions that make college spirit what it should be.

INTERESTING LECTURE LAST WEEK.

Prof. Harry E. Fosdick, of New York, Discussed the Problem of Reconstruction.

Thursday evening, January the sixteenth, Prof. Harry Emerson Fosdick, of Union Theological Seminary and pastor-elect of the First Presbyterian Church of New York City, lectured in the Unitarian Church under the auspices of the Boileau Fund, to a large and enthusiastic audience. Prof. Fosdick extended greetings from Chateau Thierry, from which place he has recently returned. In his inspiring lecture, Mr. Fosdick said in part:

This war was not won by the men in the drudgery and monotony of the front lines only; the men in the shops of repair behind the trenches, the men and women in the ammunition plants, and the men on the ships all joined to "smash the main spring of the watch on the Rhine. War, as our returning boys are saying, is a monotonous task with sometimes a fire but much mud and measles, and cold and cooties." The strongest characteristic that I saw in our boys at Chateau Thierry was their cheerfulness and high spirits.

Professor Fosdick went on to tell of the circumstances attending the entrance of the United States in the World War and of America's emergence from isolation in international affairs. The question of the meaning of this emergence is now before us.

The emergence from the isolation has now come to a fork in the road. One road is to push our forces with our undiminished man, financial, manufacturing, and marine power, to a selfish dominion over the whole world; the other road is unselfishly to realize that we should have been in the war before, that the powers left us are of no credit to us, and the advantages are not ours for ourselves but are to be held in faithful trusteeship. Judas or Christ, which will it be?

The emergence has brought to us a fuller realization of the growth of a new international consciousness.

The League of Nations, the foundation of which have been laid to be confirmed and organized, is not only a necessity but a possibility, written not on paper but in blood, and begotten on the battle field of France.

Our boys will return as anti-militarists. Will they allow time to go on for another development in war practice even more terrific than the last? Will the practice advancing from fighting with hatchet, bow and arrow, gun powder, poison gas, dropping of bombs, bacteriology, the undeveloped but planned wireless distruction finally end in the suicide of the race?

There is another road—the just association of people at the disposal of all, for the good of all, and for all nations. Is it vague? Not more than democracy, liberty, or the ideals toward success. The alternate is too terrific. We must have a League of Nations. The necessity is God. The only way out is brotherhood.

A. W. THOMPSON STEPS UP.

Promient Allegheny Man Made President of Great Natural Gas Concern—The Philadelphia Co.

It has been announced that Mr. Arthur W. Thompson, President of Allegheny's Board of Trustees, has been made President of the Philadelphia Company, one of the largest natural gas concerns in the country. Mr. Thompson will take up the duties of his new position February 1, having resigned his position as Vice President of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad and as Federal Director of the southern section of the Allegheny region. Mr. Thompson is a former Allegheny student as well as President of the Board of Trustees and Allegheny people are pleased to hear of his advance.

Hulings Hall Notes

Miss Helen Miller spent the week-end at her home in Franklin.

The freshmen of Kappa Alpha Theta entertained the chapter with a party Saturday evening. Very original stunts were the chief attraction, followed by lots of eats.

Mrs. Joseph Thomas, ex.-'18, visited the chapter during the last week.

Miss Winifred Britton, '22, was the luncheon guest of Nelle Wooley, '22, Friday.

Miss Hattie Moore, '19, who has been quite ill in the hospital, is improving.

Miss Margaret Brown, '22, has been called to her home in Pittsburgh on account of the illness of her mother.

Miss Effie Smith has been installed as nurse during the absence of Miss Rose.

Miss Emily Graham, of Meadville, was a Sunday dinner guest of Miss Ruth Sjoberg, '21.

Miss Leda Brooks has been detained at home for a week by illness.

Dr. Fosdick's lecture was enjoyed by a very large number of Hulings Hall girls on Thursday evening in the Unitarian Church.

Miss Hattie Moore's aunt, Mrs. Hazard, was a guest at the Hall Friday evening.

Miss Gabelle Marvin, '18, was visiting in Meadville last week.

Miss Lucy Miller, of Corry, was the week-end guest of her sister, Miss Florence Miller, '21.

Miss Margaret Hulin, of Franklin, spent the week-end with her sister, Miss Louise Hulin, '22.

Miss Gladys Tuck, who was at her home in Cleveland on account of illness for several days, has returned to school.

Miss Emily Hall was a recent guest of her sister, Miss Dorcas Hall, '20.

The Misses Ella Allgood, '20; Alice Hagar, '20; Madeline Stanford, '21; Elizabeth Fehr, '21; Alyse Oneil, '21; Ruth Sjoberg, '21, and Evelyn Crandall, '22, were guests at the dinner given by the Baptist Church for its members on Thursday evening.

Miss Mary Greene, '06, has been granted a leave of absence from the McKeesport High School and will sail for France January 29, where she will take up entertainment work under the Y. M. C. A.

Miss Hazel Bullock, '09, has resigned her position as teacher in Washington College, and will enter Columbia University for graduate work.

Miss Gertrude Monroe, '19, spent Sunday at her home in Corry.

Miss Helen Miller, '20, spent the week-end at her home in Franklin.

Miss Dorothy McKinney, '22, was the Sunday dinenr guest of Miss Ruth Tuck, '22.

Professor and Mrs. C. F. Ross were the Sunday dinner guests of Miss Virginia Lewis, '19.

Mrs. Jessie Merchant Reynolds, '01, is spending the winter at the home of her sister, Miss Gertrude Merchant, of Meadville.

Miss Helen Shuster, '21, deserves much credit as leader of a most interesting Y. W. C. A. service last Sunday evening. Her subject was "Solitude." In our busy college life, it seems almost imposible for a student to spend much time by himself. The ideas of the crowd become our ideas; but we should not lose our own individuality. Jesus took time to go off by himself; so we should take time to our ownselves for physical, spiritual, and mental benefit. Miss Marjorie Lillie, '22, rendered a piano solo.

TWENTIETH CENTURY CLUB.

The regular meeting of Twentieth Century Club was held January 13. After a short business meeting Miss Henrietta Leyda, '19, read a paper on "Recent Current Events," and Miss Nellie Reniers, '19, one on "David Lloyd-George." A general discussion of current events followed.

It is probably unknown to the average student at Allegheny that Mount Union College, which is situated at Alliance, Ohio, was founded by an Allegheny man. Nevertheless such is the case. In the fall of 1846, while he was still an undergraduate of Allegheny, Orville N. Hartshorn organized and taught a 'select school' in the village of Mount Union. After his graduation he devoted himself in 1849 to this institution which received the name of Mount Union Seminary. A charter was granted in 1858 when the institution which received the name of Mount Union College. Since then the college has gradually grown and prospered. It now has an enrollment of 366 students.

Y. M. C. A.

The last meeting of the Y. M. C. A. did not prove to be as interesting as was expected, on account of the absence of the Reverend Doctor Foulke who was to be the speaker for the evening. Although every one was disappointed, it was impossible for the speaker to be present on account of business affairs which had to be cared for.

A short song service was held, after which Mr. McCurdy, '19, gave a very interesting talk. After Mr. McCurdy's address Doctor Elliott proposed to the men that a study of the proceedings of the Peace Conference should be made by all those interested. This was highly approved by nearly all of the men who were present. It will be an excellent study to supplement the War Aims course as it is very closely related to it. The time for meeting was not decided, but will be determined at the next regular meeting.

The attendance was not as large as usual, but it is hoped that more will be present at the next meeting which will be held the first week after final examinations.

DR. DENYES SPEAKS IN CHAPEL.

Calls for Trained Men for Reconstruction.

Dr. J. R. Denyes, who was in Meadville as one of the missionaries interested in the Centenary world-campaign, spoke last Tuesday morning before the student body at the Ford Chapel.

Declaring that in the future world opportunity belongs to the college man and that the latter belongs to the world, Dr. Denyes told the students of the urgent need of trained men in the missionary field as well as in other lines. Five thousand new men for ministers with clear visions, sincere purpose and moral obligations are wanted by the Methodist churches of this country.

Dr. Denyes also stated that the sending of missionaries for Christianizing many uncivilized sections of the globe is very essential at the present time since the world, the speaker said, is in a state of chaos and disturbance, in a state of Bolshevism, and under the influence of other disrupting forces which disturb the peace.

The speaker said that the "backward" peoples have their ears and mouths wide open and are ready to receive our message of good will and Christian spirit. There are hundreds of people in Java, China, Japan, and Africa who are beginning to realize that they live in a state of ignorance, superstition, and paganism and in these fields lies the future of many Christian workers.

PHILO FRANKLIN FORUM.

The Forum met at three thirty o'clock, Friday afternoon in Philo Franklin Hall. As there was no business to be brought up, the debaters scheduled for the day were given the floor to discuss the question, "Resolved, That the managerships of athletic teams and publications at Allegheny should be made competitive instead of elective." Messrs. McCurdy and McCreary upheld the affirmative, while Mesrs. Barr and Buchanan supported the negative side of the question. The discussion was spirited and though the decision was made in favor of the affirmative both sides were well supported.

The question of college debating activities was brought up and discussed. Although no definite information was available on the subject, the members of the Forum showed themselves interested and ready to support any action which might be taken in this direction.

On account of examinations the Forum will not meet again until the first Friday in the second semester which will be on February 7. A committee is at work on the matter of selecting a question and speakers for the next meeting. Their selection will appear on the bulletin board in Bentley Hall.

Special Dinners and Luncheons served on order at Tea Room.

The University of Michigan had during the past year over 400 instructors. It also had a registration of about 6,000 students. Every state in the Union was represented besides thirty foreign countries. There are seven libraries located at the institution.

DR. SCHULTZ TO LECTURE.

Dr. J. R. Schultz will deliver the principal address at the regular meeting of the Round Table on January 27. Dr. Schultz will talk on the "Non-Partisan League," a subject with which he is well familiar, as he traveled widely in the Dakota districts where the principles of the League are fully carried out in practice.

The Dental School is one of the nine departments of Northwestern University. The instructors in this department number 60 while there is a student registration of 530.

INTERESTING LETTER RECEIVED FROM EDGAR WILKINSON.

Former Student Has Had a Wonderful Experience in France.

The following is taken from a letter sent to Glenn Barr, '19, by Edgar Wilkinson, ex-'19, and will be of interest to Mr. Wilkinson's many friends:

Somewhere in France,
October 21, 1918.

Dear Glenn:

It has been a few weeks since I have written to you, and will take this opportunity of writing to you. Posibly there may be a letter from you at my company waiting for me.

On October fifth I was sent to the Base Hospital for treatment of burns which I received from mustard gas while in the line. The weather was cold and a great deal of fog and rain made the life of a soldier in the trenches very agreeable and pleasant, of course. There was plenty of soft mud to wade through and a nice drizzling rain to keep you from getting thirsty. Good luck being my lot, the mustard gas made burns on the greater portion of my back, and the result was that I had to leave my company until the burns were healed.

The sector on which we were located resembled little round top and the hills around Meadville. There was plenty of virgin forests, underbrush and thickets to conceal the Kultured Hun and their machine guns. It was in these forests that the Americans gained a very decisive victory over some of the best fighting troops that Germany could muster, and put up against us. The French claimed that it was impossible to drive the Huns from these forests and high hills since they were so strongly fortified in these positions. A few hours of Yankee artillery barrage soon told the story, and the Germans who remained alive after the barrage evacuated on double time.

One thing of special notice is the fact that the Germans like to lay concealed in the forests, an old building, or in a sniper's post which is built in a tree where they wait for their victim as they approach their lines. Many of the Germans would fire their last round of ammunition from the machine gun, and in their characteristic manner cry out for mery: "Comrad. Comrade." They did not seem to possess the right kind of material to fight to a finish when they saw that they had been beaten. In some woods the Germans had underground dugouts or tunnels to a depth of sixty feet. It looked as though they had planned on staying in these ground hog homes of theirs this Winter, but they were compelled to leave due to the high cost of rent (Six inch shells).

The recent reports in the Paris newspapers indicate that the Allies are making great gains during the past few weeks. It will not be long until the Germans will be crying, "Comrade. Comrade," and then the war will come a finis. Internal trouble is no doubt in sight in Germany and Austria-Hungary, and the affect that this will have upon an early Unconditional Surrender cannot be overlooked. It looks as if the Royal Family of Hohenzollerns will have to seek neutral territory to live in.

Wishing you the best success possible, I remain,

Your friend,
Edgar M. Wilkinson.
