Miss Ida M. Tarbell
120 E. Nineteenth St.
New York, N. Y.

Dear Miss Tarbell:

Some time ago at the Pen and Brush Club I told you I was eager to get to work on the circular for your biography of Owen D. Young. Now I have read the book and enjoyed it immensely. The copy for the circular is ready and if you would like to see it before it is printed I shall be glad to show it to you.

If you will be at the Club on Wednesday or Thursday I could bring it over and discuss it with you. Will you please let me know? Orders for thousands of circulars are coming so of course I want it to be as effective as possible. In fact I want it not only to sell the book but to persuade the readers that Mr. Young should be made to change his mind in regard to the Presidency! I am sure you will agree with this.

Sincerely yours

J. E. M. Johnson
