Mr H. S. Dennison,
Framingham, Mass.

Dear Mr. Dennison:

I hope you will forgive my delay in sending back the Old Girls. I was obliged to go West on a short trip just after I left Washington and did not return here until Wednesday. I was careless enough not to take the manuscript with me as I had intended so have only just been able to get at a reading. I have made only slight changes.

I see you did not cut out the sentences at the bottom of page 12, which you questioned. I have done so and have written in a couple of sentences which makes a natural connection, on page 13. If there is anything else that we had questioned that was left in by mistake, it doesn't occur to me as I re-read it. Please let me know if there is.

On reading the paper over, I am sure that on the whole it is about as good as I can do with it. A word here and there might be improved. For instance, on page 2, five lines from the bottom, I have queried the use of 'knowed'. I think Miss Lizzie or Miss L. would say 'knew.' Am I not right?

Very sincerely yours,
