My dear Miss Tarbell:

Needless to tell you I am greatly pleased with an autographed copy of your latest and very readable book. You are most thoughtful! I have learned much that I did not know and in another

reading shall learn much more.

As Mrs. Young
has other copies of her photograph, I am sure that she is glad to have you keep that one
if you wish.

When you are

country and are rested I shall be very happy if you can find time to see me.

Gratefully yours
