FINAL ARRANGEMENTS MADE FOR HOME COMING DAY CELEBRATION

Program of Events Completed For Largest Event of the Fall

Final arrangements have been completed for the annual Home Coming Day, and everything is in readiness for the occasion which is to be held this Saturday.

The city and the College will be decorated for the day. The merchants will display their Allegheny flags, and many of the College buildings and fraternity houses will be put in their holiday attire.

The faculty will be home on Friday evening and Saturday to receive all alumni and ex-students, for a visit and to talk over old college days. All who can come Friday will be repaid for being here early, because they who wait until Saturday will miss part of the festivities.

The outstanding event of Saturday morning will be the chapel address by Addison C. Waid of the class of 1901. Mr. Waid is a successful business man of Cleveland, and at various times he has taken care of large College interests in that city. He was also recently nominated an alumni trustee of the College.

Cochran Hall will be the alumni headquarters. The welcoming committee will be there to greet every one and to see that all are properly taken care of. The Y. M. C. A. room will be open for the alumni to use as a cloak room and to place anything there they do not wish to leave in their cars. The bounteous cafeteria lunch that the College provides free for all alumni, ex-students, the faculty, and their wives, will be served at Cochran Hall. The luncheon will be at one o'clock and will be completed by two. This will give the visitors plenty of time to renew old acquaintances before the game.

Special stunts are being arranged to take place between halves of the game with Geneva, and it is possible that there may be some feature event before the game.

All are urged to stay for the evening festivities. There will be reunions at the fraternity houses, and a reception for the ladies at Hulings Hall. The reception begins at 7:30. There will be stunts by some of the co-eds and an alumna speaker to enliven the evening, which will be quite informal and wholly social.

SEVERAL ALUMNI RECEIVE HONORS FOR GRADUATE WORK

FORMER ALLEGHENIANS MAKE MARK AT WEST VIRGINIA AND PENNSYLVANIA

During the first part of the term, Acting-President C. F. Ross read a report at the chapel exercises on which were listed a number of Allegheny graduates who had received scholastic honors at graduate schools last year. The Campus desiring to make a true report has made inquiries of the colleges and universities which these men are attending, concerning the relative truth of the report that Doctor Ross received. Up to the time The Campus went to press only two schools had replied, and each of these verifies the report as true.

The University of Pennsylvania Law School reports that the following Allegheny graduates were honor men last year. Mortimer Graham, '22, graduated cum laude in June having received the highest average and honors for three years. He also received the McCall prize. J. W. Brock, '20, received the Order of the Coif prize for the highest honors of the second year class. Leo Sutton, '23, received first year honors and the Vendig prize for the highest average. Arden D. Mook, '23, received first year honors.

A letter received from West Virginia University, relative to K. A. Hines, '22, and H. R. Leffingwell, '22, states that these two men having completed their work were recommended to the University of Pennsylvania Medical School for their third year's work, recommendation being made on scholarship and general efficiency.

FIRST YEAR MEN URGED TO COMPETE FOR PLACE ON ANNUAL STAFF

A dearth of competition on the Kaldron staff has caused Editor Taylor to send forth a call for more competitors. The Kaldron is one of Allegheny's largest publications and to become a member of the annual's staff is no mean achievement. This is a chance for freshmen or upperclassmen, who feel that they can write or do managerial work, to show their ability.

One person may hold a position on more than one staff so no one need hesitate to enter his name as a competitor for the Kaldron staff because he is serving on another publication. Not only is there honor connected with it, but it is the duty of every journalistically inclined student to compete.

SORORITIES ENTERTAIN AT INTER-GREEK DANCE

THURSDAY EVENING DEVOTED TO ANNUAL DINNER AND RECEPTION OF PAN-HELL

In honor of the freshmen girls, on Thursday evening, October 1, the Pan-Hellenic Association gave its annual reception which was held at the State Armory, after a dinner in Hulings Hall.

This reception is an all-women function, held in the form of a dance at the beginning of each college year in order that Allegheny's class of freshmen girls may become better acquainted with one another and with the members of the several sororities and ladies of the faculty. The series of enjoyable events staged for their benefit since their arrival at school is generally brought to an effective close by this reception.

A dinner at the hall, with Allegheny songs being sung between courses, preceded the dance. The sophomores and juniors then escorted the freshmen to the Armory where Ted's Alleghe-tors furnished music for dancing. Punch and wafers were served during the intermission.

The men's fraternities co-operated with the association by lending furniture which made the ballroom more attractive.

Credit for the success of the evening must be given to the various committees. The student committees were composed of Mary Lou Murphy, Eleanor Brown, Annabell Mosher, Martha Bordwell, Florence Shehan, Grace Kengle, Ruth Myers, Mildred Lose, Dorothy Holman, Hazel Gleason, Martha Schwartz, and Cecil Tracey. The alumnae were represented by Miss Florence Graud Miller, Miss Katherine Fowler, Mrs. R. B. Gamble, Miss Edith Rowley, Miss Varne Cillins, and Mrs. L. D. McClean.

BISHOP F. J. McCONNELL TO BE HERE OCT. 14, 15, 16

COLLEGE Y. M. C. A. PLANS REPLETE PROGRAM FOR NOTED SPEAKER

Bishop Francis J. McConnell, who delivered the Phi Beta Kappa address during commencement last year, and who is well known to the students and the faculty, is coming to Allegheny on October 14, 15, 16, under the joint auspices of the Y. M. C. A. and the administration.

Bishop McConnell was, after his graduation, a preacher in several Massachusetts churches. From Massachusetts, he was transferred to the New York Avenue Church, Brooklyn. In 1909, he was elected President of De Pauw University, and in 1912, elected Bishop of the Methodist Church.

This will be the first of the series of speakers which have been invited to Allegheny by the College Administion, and the work that he will do in the College will be under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. The program this year provides for one like that of Doctor Crane's visit to Allegheny last year. There will be an address in Chapel each morning, and an evening address at 7 o'clock. Also the Y. M. C. A. has provided an opportunity for any student wishing a conference with Bishop McConnell. The Bishop will interview the students in the afternoons that he will be visiting Allegheny.

OVERWHELMING VOTE GIVES ALLIGATOR FIRM FOOTHOLD

STAFF IMMEDIATELY BEGINS WORK—FIRST ISSUE ABOUT NOVEMBER 1

By an overwhelming vote of 445 to 8, the supporters of the Alligator crushed all student opposition and made the humorous publication a certainty for this year. The Alligator originated last year and is the brainchild of several very able as well as humorous students. Existing in a rather independent position in relation to the Board of Publications, the new publication had a somewhat hard struggle in getting started. Solid backing was given it by the students, however, and rapid strides were made in its growth. As a result the Board of Publications voted to take it under its jurisdiction, provided the faculty approved, and an editor was elected.

More progress was made when the student body last spring voted that fifty cents each semester should be added to the regular publications fee for the support of Allegheny's newest literary effort. Certain members of the faculty, however, felt that the vote was not indicative of the true consensus of opinion in the student body so another vote was called for. This vote was taken recently in chapel and by a 445 to 8 vote, it was voted to continue the Alligator.

On September 30, the faculty voted to include the Alligator as a bona fide College publication operating under the Board of Publications and subject to the final decision of the Executive Committee. A staff was selected and work began at once. The staff expects to publish four issues this year, the first of which will appear around the first of November. A large and enthusiastic assemblage of reporters was present present at the first meeting held on Thursday, October 1. With a great amount of material already collected, a successful year is looked forward to. Alumni wishing to subscribe may do so by sending one dollar to Business Manager McWilliams.

The staff is composed of the following students:

Editor.....Roland O. Barber
Managing Editor....G. Alfred Palmer
Business Manager...Don McWilliams
Art Editor.....Jean McCrum
Exchange Editor .....
.....Mary Louise Murphy
Assistant Editors .....
Willis Pratt, Frank Wicks,
Vernard Salberg, Phelps Sample

Doctor Elliott made a few introductory remarks concerning the founding and growth of Phi Beta Kappa, and the establishing of the local chapter in 1902. After telling the method of the selection of the members, Doctor Elliott announced the election of two

BLUE AND GOLD TEAM TO MEET GENEVA IN HOME COMING GAME

Bo McMillan's Covenanters To Furnish Real Opposition For Allegheny

With a great amount of experience garnered from the hard-fought West Virginia game Allegheny will present an experienced and well-trained team in the clash with Geneva on Montgomery field Saturday. Coach Tom Davies has had almost two weeks in which to correct any faults discovered in the playing of the team at Erie and undoubtedly a much stronger team will face the Covenanters than met the Mountaineers two weeks ago. Geneva has the same advantage of experience since they have already played W. and J. and Westminster this season. In holding W. and J. to a 20-12 score Geneva showed that she will be a real menace to the Gold and Blue.

The last tilt between the two schools, which was in 1923, resulted in a 14-0 victory for Allegheny. At that time Herb McCracken was coaching for Allegheny and Tom Davies, now at Allegheny was at Geneva. Hanlon and Dahl starred in that game and are expected to repeat in this Saturday's contest.

Geneva is fortunate in having for its coach, Bo McMillan, of All-American fame. McMillan gained his All-American berth while playing for Centre College under Coach Moran. It is expected that he will introduce a type of football quite different from the Warner system prevalent in this part of the country. It is rumored that McMillan has brought with him several players of note from the Southern school.

"Skinny" Hamilton, fleet 130 pound halfback, is the big threat on the Gold and White lineup. In Saturday's game against Westminster Hamilton showed his 'stuf' by running 70 yards for one touchdown, plunging the line for 5 yards for a second, receiving an 18 yard pass for the third, and completed his remarkable feat by kicking a 33 yard place-kick, for the day's total score of 24.

Allegheny will meet the Covenanters with even a more versatile backfield than when the teams last clashed. Dahl is a known and dreaded danger to Geneva who cannot forget his onslaughts through the line. Hanlon, also known to Genevans, has developed into a crafty field general and is expected to direct the attack Saturday. These two veterans will be aided by the fastest crew of halfbacks on an Allegheny squad in some time. Much is expected from Brace, who made his initial appearance on the Varsity last year, and is showing very good work in carrying the ball and kicking. Lungren, also from last year's squad, is somewhat an unknown quantity and may be seen in action against Geneva. Davis and Waleski, both new men, proved to be fast, shifty backs in the West Virginia game. The line stood up quite well in its gruelling test at Erie and with two weeks of hard practice is now in the best of condition.

Pre-season 'dope' announces that this game will decide the minor championship of the tri-state district. The fact that both coaches and their teams realize the importance attached to this game insures for spectators one of the most interesting and hard-fought games ever played on Montgomery Field.

ALL CLASSES ELECT OFFICERS FOR YEAR DURING PAST WEEK

Barber, Rhodes and Leffingwell Presidents of Three Upper Classes

Friday afternoon, October 2, the three upper classes met to elect officers for the coming year. This was the first meeting of the year for each of the classes. The meetings were held in Bentley and Alden Halls for juniors and seniors. The sophomore class met in Ford Memorial Chapel. The freshman class was scheduled to hold a meeting after chapel Saturday, October 3, to elect their officers but the meeting was postponed until Tuesday, October 6.

Meeting in Bentley Hall, the senior class elected Roland O. Barber as class President. Barber has been very active in leadership among various units of the student body. His latest achievement was the election to the editorship of the "Alligator," the College humorous publication. Other officers of the class were Mary Lou Murphy, vice-president; Mary Alice Jackson, secretary, and James V. Hanlon, treasurer. The class chose Miss Helen Hatch as class historian. Cecil Ross was appointed chairman of the Myford Memorial Committee. This committee was established by last year's Student Senate for the purpose of raising funds for a memorial to F. W. Myford, '26, who died of pneumonia during the summer of 1924.

William H. Rhodes was elected president of the junior class along with William McClurg, vice-president. Ruth Hunter was elected secretary and Vernard Salberg, treasurer, with Marion Bradford as class historian.

Thomas Leffingwell was elected president of the sophomore class. A tie exists between Lois Ann Alter and Maree Gray for vice-president. Another vote will be taken to determine the vice-president of the class. Grace Minch as secretary and Richard N. Merrill as treasurer complete the list of sophomore officers.

To complete the elections for this year, the freshman class held a meeting after chapel Tuesday morning and elected the following officers: Tom Pressel was chosen for President, with Miss Charlotte Hatch as Vice-President, Robert Hill, Treasurer, and Miss Martha McKeever, Secretary.

GIRLS ELECT ATHLETIC REPRESENTATIVES FRIDAY

IMPORTANT BUSINESS CONDUCTED DURING WOMEN'S CHAPEL

In Chapel, Friday, October 1, which was turned over to the girls of the College, Hazel Gleason, President of the Girls' Athletic Association, announced the election of five new representatives of the Association. They are: Mildred Anderson, tennis; Arline Smyth, baseball; Betty Hammett, hiking; Wanda Dowdell, and Marion Bradford, social. Association officers are. Hazel Gleason, president; Eleanor Brown, vice-president; Lois Anne Alter, secretary and treasurer.

Prizes were awarded for intersorority basketball, first prize, the silver vase, going to Alpha Chi Omega, the champion team. Members of this team received large gold A's, and they are: Agnes Nicklin, Edith Shannon, Alice Dorworth, Evelyn Carrol, Charlotte Johnson, and Eleanor Davenport. Members of the Alpha Gamma Delta team, runners-up, received medium-sized A's, and all the girls who played one game received small A's.

Tennis awards were given as follows: to Mildred Anderson, college champion, a silver cup; to Eleanor Davenport, Mary Alice Jackson, Alma Winston, and Mildred Anderson, champions of the senior, junior, sophomore, and freshman classes, respectively, a bronze medal. Another bronze medal was awarded to Alma Winston and Mildred Anderson, winners of the College doubles.

Mary Bollinger was elected to Student Government as town representative of the junior class, after Mary Alice Jackson announced that Betty Allison would not return this year.

At the close of the chapel, Miss Staley congratulated the girls and Miss Herrold on the interest shown, and the progress made in athletics during the past year.

IMPORTANT MEETING HELD BY PUBLICATIONS BOARD

BUSINESS MATTERS DISCUSSED AND PLANS MADE AT FIRST MEETING

On Thursday, September 4, at four o'clock in Alden Hall, the Board of Publications, with Chairman Darling presiding, convened for the first time this year. This was one of the most important meetings of the year because of the amount of important business transacted. All of the members of the Board were present with the exception of Dr. Woodring.

Most of the financial business of the year was completed at this time. The treasurer of the Board, Professor McClean, submitted his report, which will be audited and published. A budget for this year was then made up.

Several important contracts were let at this meeting. The contract for the engravings for the Kaldron was given to the Canton Engraving and Electrotype Company of Canton, Ohio. The contract for the printing of the Campus was awarded to Fred O. & M. M. Dean, the successors of the Messenger Printing Company, which held the contract formerly. The Deans were also awarded the contract for the printing of the Literary Monthly.

ELEVEN STUDENTS ENTER MANAGERIAL COMPETITION

ADVERTISERS IN COLLEGE PUBLICATIONS TO PROFIT BY NEW RATE PLAN

Several sophomores and freshmen were present at a meeting of the publications managers last Thursday, October 1, in the Oratory of the Chapel. The purpose of the meeting was to begin competition for the managerial positions on the Campus, Kaldron, Literary Monthly, and Alligator now held by T. S. Borrell, P. G. Wells, R. J. Helmstadter, and J. D. McWilliams, respectively.

The sophomore competitors present at the meeting were R. Evans, Christner, K. Baker, Cober, and Wm. Reid. Culver, Kaelin, Phillips, Burn, R. Brown, and Lamison comprised the freshmen competing list.

This year an advantage for the benefit of the advertiser has been devised that will do away with the old method of taking separate subscriptions for each publication. A special rate card will be issued to the subscribing business man, which will cover the cost of an advertisement of equal value in all four publications. Each competitor is supplied with contract blanks with which to solicit advertisements. Last year's advertising contracts end November 1. After that date only the advertisements now being solicited will be published.

Philo-Franklin Forum Opens Season With Debate Friday

Last Friday, October 2, several members of the Philo Franklin Forum met in the Forum rooms on the top floor of Bentley Hall, but the attendance was insufficient to justify holding the meeting as scheduled. Lack of attendance was due to the fact that the meeting had not been announced in Chapel or at the various fraternity houses. A cold drizzle undoubtedly kept several from attending.

This week, however, the committee in charge plans to have the time of the meeting brought before every man of the College. On Friday, October 9, the Forum will meet in its rooms and an interesting program has been arranged. Besides a short history of the Forum by Dr. S. S. Swartley, adviser of the Forum, there will be a debate, 'Resolved, That Allegheny should not be a co-educational institution." Messrs. Bartlett and Schruers will uphold the affirmative, and Messrs. Hartzell and Corbett are on the negative.

HOME COMING DAY SUGGESTIONS

The annual Home-Coming Day of the College, which is to be held this Saturday, holds a greater place in the hearts of Allegheny's great body of alumni, probably, than does any other event on the College calendar except Commencement.. Home-Coming Day, although a comparatively new event in Allegheny life, should mean much to both the students and alumni.

To the alumni it means the meeting of old pals and friends who have strayed far away since leaving the campus. Then again there are many opportunities for pleasure, and a chance to gather around firesides to exchange reminiscences of times gone by. Alumni still interested in the active life of the old College can see it engaged in the regular routine of daily classes, which cannot be observed during Commencement week. Then, there is also the opportunity of meeting the present students and making friends with them.

For the students Home-Coming Day should mean more than a gala day, and the cleaning of fraternity houses and property. It should be marked as a day of friendship when the student can meet many of the alumni, for it will not be long until we, too, will be graduates, and it will be rather a misfortune if we know only our classmates out of Allegheny's great family.

So in celebrating Home-Coming Day let us fraternize with all. Friendliness is a characteristic in itself, so why not let us increase our number of friends on this occasion?

LOCAL SPORTS WRITERS

Local sports comment on the Allegheny football team during the fall has resulted in even much more comment by the students of the College. it seems to be the general opinion on the Hill that the downtown writers are a little too hasty in their conclusions and often far from right in their presentation of facts. The most outstanding illustration of the latter that we remember was the mis-statement of the kidnapping of several members of the freshmen basketball team last year. A local paper was loud in its denunciations of the Junior Class, who were alleged to have been the instigators and principal criminals in the affair. As a matter of fact, the Junior Class hadn't a thing to do with the abduction, nor did the Sophomore Class. Two or three members of the latter were the offenders, it is true, but their actions were entirely what they themselves made them and were in no way connected with the policy and wishes of the class as a whole.

In the matter of conclusions and opinions, of course, the personal element is bound to enter, but we believe that one writing for publication should be less hasty in his judgment and more painstaking to take into consideration the views of others, equally well equipped to pass upon sports affairs.

However we admire a man who can criticize his home team. It is hard for a writer to oppose rah-rah praise and optimism with sober fact and judgment. But, on the other hand, the writer should not let his avidity for criticism make him blind to the facts of the case or warp his conclusions.

So, downtown sports writers, criticize as you will, but be sure of your facts and give the objects of your criticism a square deal.

MAKING THE BEST OF IT

Following the system adopted last year, the Men's Senate last week announced its recommendations for president and treasurer for each of the four classes of the College. All of the class elections have since been held and in each case the Senate nominee was elected.

To an outsider such a procedure looks bad. But to any one familiar with the corrupted system of politics existing in the College in past years, it is a welcome and progressive step. Some day, perhaps, the ideal will be reached and all elective offices filled by bona fide, unhampered balloting.

Granting that the system is bad, but with the hope that it is only temporarily so, it seems but fair that the present Men's Senate be congratulated upon its having made the best of the system. Its selections met with almost unanimous approval in every case, and the rancor and bitterness which is wont to follow such procedures has been entirely absent. A judiciousness and tactfullness is evident in the list as a whole and speaks well for the spirit of the College.

MISSIONARY, FORMER ALLEGHENIAN, WRITES OF WORK IN INDIA

The editor recently received a letter from Mrs. Ruth H. C. Thoburn, '23, who has charge of the Mission Boys' School, Sitapur, U. P., India. Mrs. Thoburn writes that the arrival of The Campus is looked forward to and the reading of it enjoyed very much.

She says in part concerning her work there "Our school has been in session six weeks. Our numbers are not as large as last year, but we have 72 in the school and 64 in the hostel. A few boys who have not been able to return on account of illness are expected later. Last year we had twelve boys supported by other missions. These have now gone to schools of their own mission. Four of them were too far advanced or too big to return. Their departure has reduced our numbers somewhat, and reduced our receipts from fees to almost nil. Sixty-four boys, the most of whom are under twelve and all but one under 14 years of age, make quite a family; 17 of these boys are new, 20 are the sons of preachers, and 18 are orphans."

FRESHMEN CAMPUS COMPETITORS TO RECEIVE JOURNALISTIC INSTRUCTION

Plans are being made to give all new competitors for positions on the staff of The Campus a thorough course in the fundamentals of that part of journalism typified by this weekly.

A definite time will be set aside for weekly meetings. The editors will lecture in turn to the competitors.

The lead sentence, general story structure, choice of words, and composition will be stressed. The mechanical part of the Campus work will be taught them later.

J. W. Morrissey, '25, is in Meadville for a visit. He has been in Florida and will return there shortly.

Leo H. McKay, '16, of Sharon, Pa., announces the birth of a daughter on October 2.

R. W. Ellsworth, '22, will soon begin practicing dentistry in Wesleyville, N. Y. He finished work at Pitt last JJune.

1925-26 CONCERT SERIES PROMISES GOOD NUMBERS

BRILLIANT ARTISTS TO APPEAR IN FORD CHAPEL BEGINNING OCTOBER 22.

Among the artists who are to appear in the 1925-26 Allegheny College Concert Course are several talented and well-known musicians. The concerts will be held in Ford Memorial Chapel beginning October 22.

Dr. Sigmund Spaeth, lecturer, will be the opening number of the course. Doctor Spaeth is one of the foremost writers on musical subjects in America. More information concerning his lecture will be published in a later issue.

Miss Ethel Leginska, who is known the world over as "The Paderewski of the Women Pianists," appears in the second number on November 24. In addition to being a pianist of the highest type, Miss Leginska is a composer and conductor of known ability. She has quietly and undisputedly taken a place at the very top of her profession among the few really great pianists of the day. She was not a "born musician," and so had as her teacher the great Leschetisky, of Vienn. Miss Leginska has won praise all over Europe and America, and stands supreme as a master interpreter, a composer of rare intelligence and charm. She is now taking her place among the great conductors of symphony orchestras, a unique distinction for a woman. Miss Leginska is proclaimed the world over as holding her audiences spellbound by her art.

The Cherniavsky Trio, composed of violin, piano, and 'cello, will be at the Chapel for the third number on December 4. The Trio is composed of brothers, who had as a teacher their father. They made a tour of Russia at an incredibly early age, and, because of their premature development of faculties and the really extraordinary brilliance of their work, their name became a household word. These brothers achieved successes without parallel in the musical history of their country. Since 1901, they have ranged every quarter of the globe. There could not be a greater understanding, sympathy, and unity of purpose than exists between these brothers. The Trio is popularly heralded as the greatest ensemble organization in the world.

January 14, Miss May Peterson, formerly of the Opera-Comique, Paris, and for six seasons the soprano soloist of the Metropolitan Opera Company, will give a recital at the Chapel. During her stay abroad, Miss Peterson scored at the Opera-Comique the most sensational success of any American artist since the debut of Mary Garden. Her career is a phenomenal record of successes showing that here is an artist whose unusual talents open to her all the fields of her art and limit her to none. Miss Peterson has proved herself in opera and oratorio, in recital and as a soloist with the largest symphony orchestras, such as the New York, Boston, Detroit, Los Angeles, and Minneapolis organizations. Her American debut was notable for remarkable poise, artistry, and vocal beauty. Miss Peterson is a finished artist, and is known as one of the most beautiful and best gowned women on the concert platform.

Miss Mildred Dilling, assisted by a prominent baritone soloist, is the talented young lady who appeared here four years ago during the first season of the concerts. She is a harpist of renowned ability, and is recalled to Meadville by popular request. Announcement of Miss Dilling's appearance will be made in a later issue of The Campus.

Dr. Church has appointed G. Alfred Palmer at the Alpha Chi Rho house to take charge of the tickets and the ushering. Season tickets will be placed on sale at an early date. The seats on the main floor of the Chapel except those directly under the balcony will be sold at $6.00 for the course of five numbers. Seats in the balcony and those under it on the main floor will be sold at $5.00 for the entire course. Single admission tickets will be $2.00 and $1.50, depending upon the location of the seat, for each number except the lecture by Dr. Spaeth, for which the admission will be arranged at a later date.

Edith M. White, '16, was married to Herbert E. Van Slyke on August 31. Mr. and Mrs. Van Slyke are now living at Hammond, Ind.

Agnes Swaney, '17, is now teaching Mathematics and French at Temple University, Philadelphia. Miss Swaney received her master's degree in French at Allegheny last June.

Announcement has been received of the marriage of Meryidyth Neal, '19, to Paul H. Coe, on July 6, at Warren, Pa. Mr. and Mrs. Coe are now living at Warren, Pa.

Y. M. C. A. COLUMN

Years ago in Williams College a little group of young men interested in religion were in the habit of meeting together to talk over their common interests. One day they met in a grove. A thunderstorm came up and the men sought shelter under a haystack. Out of that haystack conference sprang the American Foreign Missionary Movement.

Many years before that there was in Oxford University a little band of students who were vitally concerned with matters of religious life. They formed an organization called the "Holy Club" for prayer, Bible study and discussion. John and Charles Wesley were two of the members of the Holy Club and no one will ever be able to tell how much of the Wesley Revival in England was due to the impetus received from this association of college friends.

It is just this kind of thing which sends men out to bury themselves in service to the benighted black people and which changes the religious countenance of nations. It is in this and no other way, the quiet but determined binding together of student friends, that a religious awakening will come to our College, that our thinking will be purified and decisions made for nobler, finer living.

BISHOP McCONNELL COMING

Those students who were here last year will not soon forget the visit of Dr. Henry Crane at Allegheny last March. We are to have more of the same this year. The Y. M. C. A. and the administration have planned together a program of religious speakers. Bishop McConnell of the Methodist Church is to be the first of these speakers. He will be here on October 14, 15, and 16. You will be sorry if you do not save these dates.

THURSDAY EVENING MEETING

At the Y. M. C. A. meeting at 7 o'clock in the "Y" room of Cochran Hall, Doctor Woodring will be the main speaker. Those men who are enioying Doctor Woodring's Sunday School class and his courses in College will not want to miss this meeting.

MORNING PRAYER GROUPS THIS WEEK

COLLEGE BAND TO PLAY ON HOME COMING DAY

MUSICIANS TO BE GUIDED BY NEWLY ORGANIZED GOVERNING BODY

In several practices during the past week the College Band has been conscientiously preparing for the annual Home Coming Day festivities, Saturday, October 10. Several new numbers have been mastered in addition to new arrangements and plans of presentation.

Working in conjunction with the Home Coming Day Committee, the band will give a concert in Chapel, Saturday morning, at the close of which it will lead a parade through the downtown section in preparation for the afternoon game with Geneva College on Montgomery Field. A special program has been arranged for the music at the game. The band will lead the usual parade between halves and furnish music during the course of the game.

A governing board has been formed by the band, consisting of a man from each fraternity and a representative from the non-fraternity group. The purpose of this board is to meet on call with Professors Church and Hovde, faculty supervisors of the organization, and discuss contemplated activities of the band.

In addition to several home concerts, the band is making arrangements to accompany the football team to Grove City Saturday, November 14.

Tryouts For Cross-Country Team To Be Held Saturday

Tryouts for positions on the Allegheny College cross-country team will be held on Saturday afternoon, October 10, as a preliminary event to the Allegheny-Geneva football game. The squad has been under intensive training for the past three weeks under the direction of Coach Hamett.

Three meets have been definitely arranged for, and one other meet is still pending. The season will be opened at Pitt on October 17. This meet will be followed by one with Thiel here on November 7. On November 21 the Allegheny harriers will travel to Westminster for the final meet.

PHYSICAL TRAINING WORK BEGUN DURING PAST WEEK

MEN OF COLLEGE MAY SELECT GYM WORK, BASKETBALL OR SWIMMING FOR CREDIT

Gym classes under the direction of Coach Hammett have started and the following schedule has been arranged:

Sophomores—Monday and Thursday after 1:45 p. m.

Freshmen—Tuesday and Friday at 1:45 p. m.

Preliminary basketball season has also started. Those freshmen who know the rudiments of the game and have had some experience should take advantage of this opportunity and enroll in this class. It is training for the varsity and many good candidates may be developed. Captain McClurg is in charge of this class which meets Monday, Wednesday, and Friday at 4:00 p. m.

The swimming pool is in operation now that the new heating plant is nearly completed. The pool is open from 10:00 a. m. to noon and from 3:00 to 5:30 p. m. all week. Credit may be secured for gym in this department.

Speed ball met with such success and interest last year that a movement is on to organize a team now. The game is a combination of football, basketball, and soccer. It is a very popular game in the middle west and is gradually being taken up by the eastern schools. Ordinarily there are eleven men on a team but any number is allowed. Any sophomore or freshman may try out for it.

FOOTBALL NOTES AND COMMENT

Red Grange, peer of all gridiron stars, failed for the first time in his scintillating career, being stopped by the Cornhuskers of Nebraska who vanquished Illinois, 14-0. It was mainly due to the work of Weir, another All-American, that Grange was crushed. When taken from the game, Grange collapsed in the arms of his comrades.

Davis-Elkins, a minor team from the wilds of West Virginia, held the dashing Mountaineers to a 6-0 score on Saturday. Davis-Elkins took a pointer from the Allegheny-West Virginia game and resorted to the air for their attack.

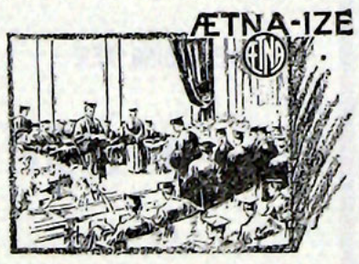

Thiel's only score against Carnegie Tech came as a result of a fumble by Tech in the first period. Tech won the battle 27-7.

Boston College had a hard time with Catholic University, and only emerged from the fray with a 6-0 victory. From all indications Boston can not be as strong as last year.

The big upset of the day came with Grove City's overwhelming defeat of the fast traveling Yellow Jackets of Waynesburg. The Crimson unleashed a powerful offensive and an almost impregnable defense to win 19-0. Grove City is reported to have the strongest team it has had in years.

St. Bonaventure also stepped into the limelight when Bucknell was held to two touchdowns. From this it is evident that the New Yorkers will bear serious watching when they appear here.

Bo McMillan's Covenanters trod rough shod over Westminster and chalked up a 24-0 win. When Geneva and Allegheny meet next Saturday there is sure to be a real battle, for McMillan is after the championship that the Blue and Gold has held for two years.

"There He Is!"

What planning and sacrifice lie behind that whispered exclamation! All because father knows his boy's chances of success are nine to one with a college education.

What sacrifices would a father not endure to give his son such an auspicious start?

Yet this need not be a hardship for father. A few moments now with an Ætna-izer will make it easy through an Ætna Educational policy—whether you live or not.

FRESHMEN RECEIVE MORE HAZING DURING PAST WEEK

HARMLESS RAZZING TEACHES FIRST YEAR MEN RULES AND REGULATIONS

Too much praise at the beginning of the semester caused the freshmen of the College to disregard their rules during the past week. Many cases of unbuttoned coats, hands in pockets, smoking on the campus, not using the sidewalks, and not speaking to the upperclassmen were observed by the men of the three upper classes. Whispered words of "cut hair" and "paddling machine" were heard from some observing sophomores.

After receiving their Campus last Wednesday, September 30, the Frosh seemed in no hurry to get out of sight, with the result that they were lined up and marched in single file to the lawn between Hulings and Bentley Halls. Here a circle was formed and a few marked Frosh were ordered to lead their class in cheers for the class of '28 and Allegheny College. One "lucky" freshman had the honor of making love to the girls in Hulings Hall. After singing the "Pep Song" the green college boys were ordered to their classes.

Wednesday's razzing, not seeming to be enough for the freshmen, brought some more on Thursday. After Chapel the Frosh were again lined up and marched to the car tracks on Main Street. Socks were inspected by the polite method of having all freshmen roll their trouser legs up above their knees. After some cheers and songs led by the unworthies of the class, the Frosh were dismissed with the promise of more "razz" if the rules were not more closely adhered to.

MEN'S AND GIRL'S GLEE CLUBS MEET NEXT WEEK

TRYOUTS PRACTICALLY COMPLETED—OUTLOOK GOOD FOR COMING YEAR

Due to the absence of Professor Barnes last Friday afternoon from town, the final tryouts for the Men's Glee Club were postponed from Friday, October 2, till Monday afternoon, October 5, in Ford Memorial Chapel, at 2:30 o'clock. All those who had not tried out previously for the club did so at that time. The names of the men that are selected for the club will be announced as soon as possible in order that work may begin at once. The manager is planning an extensive program for this year and Professor Barnes is anxious to begin the work of training the voices so that every one will be ready for the club's first appearance.

Announcement was also made that the Girl's Glee Club will hold their first tryouts next Friday afternoon, October 9, in Ford Memorial Chapel, at 3:30 o'clock, under the direction of Professor Barnes. The Girl's Glee Club is also planning an extensive program and intends to be more active this year.
