

Nov. 14, 1925

Miss Winifred Henderson
Greenville, Pa.

My dear Miss Henderson:

I have your letter of November 3.
I would be very glad if I could be of any assistance to you but it would be quite impossible for me to undertake to tell your story;
I am already overwhelmed with work.

Will you let me suggest, dear Miss Henderson, that your wise way would be to trust your case to Judge Henderson who, you say, is a relative. He is a kind and a just man so I have always believed, and I am sure any advice that he would give you would be wise. It is very difficult of course to combat an organization like the KK, but Judge Henderson would certainly find some way to rescue your property so that you could live in comfort outside of a hostile community. I hope you will go to him and trust him.

Regretting that I can be of no other service to you,
believe me

Very sincerely yours

The Lees of the need special care
you do!