My dear Miss Tarbell

Many thanks for your letter of November 9th. I have already written Mrs. Bellamy and Mr. Paul Bellamy to send me whatever material they believe will be of interest. Immediately upon receipt of their replies, I shall again communicate with you.

I noticed that Scribner's magazine is publishing a series of "Biographies of Men Who Have Influenced America"; in the November issue the article is devoted to Henry George. The previous article was devoted to Karl Marx, amongst others, and future articles are to be devoted to Thorstein Veblen, Lenin, etc.

Naturally I feel that Edward Bellamy should be included in such a series, but before writing to Scribner's magazine, I would like to ask you if you had anybody in mind for the magazine article you contemplated writing (as per your letter of November 6th). If not, will you permit me to write to Scribner's suggesting an article on Edward Bellamy written by yourself? Or do you prefer writing to Scribner's yourself?

I beg to remain

Most sincerely yours,

George A. Kahn
