Oct. 3rd - 1921
Brooklyn, N.Y.

Miss Ida M. Tarbell.
Washington, D.C.

My Dear Miss Tarbell:—

I am sorry that I did not make myself clear in my last letter to you. I did not mean to have you, get me a position in Washington, but thought that there were perhaps people in New York who you could place me with. Naturely you must have great influence, if the President selects you from so many of New York, to attend at a Conference of unemployment.

I am honest and trustworthy, and could furnish the best of Character references. I am a Catholic, and could have my Rev. Pastor also give me a personal or written recommendation. I am very sorry, if I have caused you any trouble, by answering my last letter, but I hope you will not be angry with me because I thought it would be easy for me to get a petition through you.

Digital Image, 2009. The Ida M. Tarbell Collection, 1890-1944, Allegheny College Pelletier Library

With best wishes and kind regards to you, I Remain Respectfully,

Andrew Arendt.

1868 Hart St.

Brooklyn, N.Y.

Digital Image, 2009. The Ida M. Tarbell Collection, 1890-1944. Allegheny College Pelletier Library