Providence

163 GEORGE STREET,

Dear Miss Varbell

I fear that the Greatest are the

Kindest — that is Your delightful

letter to us all!

The Club will be filled with

Suicide in having one of your boots pierce yourself in a room in which you have slept!
It hurts it is most thoughtful and most good of you for Mrs So thankful, too, 3 to write as if he had not finished the sheeting mark & the Thursday evening for Mr Everybody more pleasure than he can put into words the divorce & intellect and weaknesses; personality

— (What Word shall I use!) — so often [illegible] one. I hope Ian don't mind our Relight in the Wonderful harmonies
of Your dawning!

Perhaps Ian will be willing to Share our

163 GEORGE STREET,

have again Sunday
for have left behind for a pholder
Addresses and friends.
P.S. I were writing only for myself, I might be afraid to be Quite so outspoken,

Digitized by the Internet Archive in 2009 by the M. E. Grenander Department of Special Collections and Archives, University at Albany Libraries

but I hope Lou will let me try to carry to Lou
the Terrier Lou recommended to many
the next morning I took some work
to a stenographer,
and her

Either Nellie or "Ou" Evening
Eagle was guilty to Rea.
Sometime, too, I hope I may hear the Reverend Pleasures of seeing Lou in my own home.
Cordially Lou
March 18. Anna C. E. Allison