HARVARD UNIVERSITY
DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY
CAMBRIDGE, MASS.

415 Widener Library, July 14, 1927

Dear Miss Tarbell:

It has been a long time since I have written you. I am writing now to inquire what progress you have succeeded in making with your volume, and also to report to you in regard to the progress of the series as a whole. We shall publish four of the twelve volumes early in the fall and shall have four more ready for spring publication, I think. This is making no allowance for the date of completion of your own volume.

The inclosed sheets refer to the volumes now going through the press. One of them, that by Mr. Nevins, is now in galley proof. If it would assist your work any, I shall be glad to have a set of the Nevins galley sent you; or perhaps you would prefer to wait until it is in page proof. I do not know whether you saw a carbon copy of his MS. or not; but in any case it would be wise to see the printed version, for he had to sweat a good deal out of his MS. in order to reduce it to the dimensions of our series.

With cordial regards I am

Sincerely yours,

A. M. Schlesinger

Digital Images, 2010. The Ida M. Tarbell Collection, 1890-1944, Allegheny College Pelletier Library.