

March 17, 1937

Dear Mrs. White;

Thank you for sending me this fan letter. And thank you for saying, too, that you would like some more of Ida Tarbell in The New Yorker.

You are a little out of my line you know but I am this moment trying to hatch a small chick for you. If it gets out of the shell alive I will send it on, but I am not over hopeful.

I do appreciate your kindness.

Very sincerely