

June 26, 1925

Mr. Harry S. McCartney,
105 West Menree St.,
Chicago, Ill.

Dear Mr. McCartney:

Thank you very much for your letter of June 16. I am glad that you are interested in my story of Judge Gary, and particularly that you find the chapter on his work as a lawyer in ~~every way~~ fully satisfactory. It was difficult to pack into so short a space so energetic and on the whole admirable career.

I am glad to have the copy of your correspondence with Mr. Sites. He showed me a part but I think not all of it. I shall take this up with care in revising the chapter on his law work for the book which probably comes out this fall. I hope you don't mind my keeping it until I have a chance to go over it carefully and compare it with what is already in hand.

And may I suggest that if you have any suggestions or criticisms about the chapter that you will let me have them quite frankly? What I want to do is to get it as nearly right as I can.

Sincerely yours,