Miss Tarbell - At some future time I think I can furnish you with some information in reference to Lincoln's religious that will be of interest. I have often heard my brother refer to the fact of his having made a present to Lincoln of William Ellery Channings works (the distinguished Unitarian Clergyman) & of his saying to him after carefully reading the same - that he had never read anything on theological or practical lines that talliced so perfectly with his own views, as he met with in this work
