August 31, 2002: Lionel Hampton, legendary jazz musician, died at the age of 94.

September 11, 2002: The one year anniversary of the September 11th Tragedy was marked in Washington D.C., New York City, and Shanksville, PA with the chiming of bells, 21-gun salutes, and the reading of victims names.

September 12, 2002: SNL Comedian Jimmy Fallon performs to a sellout crowd in Shafer Auditorium.

September 14, 2002: The U.S. Postal Service recognized Ida Tarbell, along with three other reporters, Nellie Bly, Marguerite Higgins, and Ethel L. Payne, with her own postage stamp. Tarbell was the only woman in the the Allegheny class of 1880 and her 1904 book "The History of the Standard Oil Company," helped to bring to light the Rockefeller monopoly of the early oil industry.

October 4, 2002: "Red Dragon," prequel to "The Silence of The Lambs," and "Hannibal" was released in theaters.

October 17-20, 2002: Allegheny College held its biggest event of its 187 year history with the four-day Celebration of the Liberal Arts over Homecoming Weekend. The weekend's events included a ceremony to showcase the site and plans for the schools new Theatre and Communication Arts facility, the opening of the Center for Political Participation, the dedication of the space for the Glass Sculptures, a ceremony to celebrate the coming Alumni Center, a fireworks display at Robertson Field, the Homecoming parade and Game, and a Centerstage Event.

October 18, 2002: President Cook announced the launch of a record setting $105 million, seven year campaign to support the colleges new strategic plan, "Tradition and Transformation."

October 18, 2002: The Center for Political Participation was opened to promote and study political engagement primarily among young Americans. The facility is nonpartisan and will help to foster an appreciation for the vital link between an engaged, active citizenship and democracy. Through the center, students are able to work with faculty, do research independently, and attend political science internships and conferences at the local, state, and national levels. Integrating programs into the community is a goal of the Center as well. Judy Lynch, former Erie County Executive, acts as a contact and advisor for the program.

October 24, 2002: Three weeks of sniper attacks in the Washington D.C. area end with the apprehension of John Allen Muhammed, a Gulf War Veteran, and John Lee Malvo, a 17-year-old. The attacks at suburban gas stations and strip malls left 10 people dead and three wounded in Maryland, Virginia, and the greater Washington D.C. area.

October 25, 2002: Richard Harris, actor best known as "A Man Called Horse" and as Professor Dumbledore in the Harry Potter movies, died at the age of 72.

December 18, 2002: The second movie in J.R.R. Tolkein's trilogy, "The Lord of The Rings: The Two Towers" was released in theaters.

December 2002/January 2003: Construction work begins on the Campus Center renovations.

January 2003: Television continues to be swept with reality shows; many shows continue with another season such as "American Idol," "Survivor," "Big Brother," "The Bachelor," "Fear Factor," "The Osbournes," and, of course, another season of "The Real World." Several new shows hit the networks including "Last Comic Standing," "Fame," "American Juniors," "Paradise Hotel," "The Amazing Race," and "Cupid."

January 6, 2003: "Presence of Seven in the Light of Movement," the glass sculpture piece, was dedicated in senior circle on Quade walk. The sculpture consisting of seven different smaller sculptures is thought to be the largest solid-volume glass sculpture in the world. It was commissioned by Allegheny Alumni and Trustee Silas Mountsier III '52 who also commissioned the construction of Quade Walk. The sculptures, created by London-based American artist Danny Lane, took just short of four months to complete.

2002-2003 The Year In Review

February 1, 2003: The space shuttle Columbia broke up during re-entry killing all seven astronauts aboard. Investigation determined that a piece of foam that broke away from the fuel tank was the most probable cause of the damage to the wing that caused the shuttle to come down.

February 14, 2003: The most successful elections in Allegheny History ended with junior Andy DeVincentis as the new ASG president and sophomore Ben Walsh as ASG vice president. More than 972 ballots, representing about half of the schools population, were cast in both the paper and online form. This more than doubled the old record of 450 votes. The margin of victory of the winners over their opponents, sophomores Jeff Weimer and Brad Stolze, was only 27% or 246 votes.

February 22, 2003: A fire at an off campus house on Baldwin street destroying the home of five Allegheny students and claiming the life of one, 21 year old Ray Tricomi. Several Allegheny students who are members of the West Mead #2 volunteer fire department were on scene to assist in the late night fire. Following the fire, the Allegheny community rallied in support of the victims to help in any way possible. The school donated money to each of the victims to help them replace their personal possessions. A charity concert, sponsored by JaDE (Jazz and Dance Ensemble) also benefitted the victims and Ray Tricomi's family.

February 27, 2003: Fred Rogers, better known as Mr. Rogers, died at the age of 74.

March 12, 2003: Women's Center opened in Walker Annex Hall. The Women's Center will serve as a resource on the campus, providing materials for research on gender issues and women's history, a comfortable meeting place for various student activities, and a place to relax and interact with other students, according to Professor Judith Rose, director of Allegheny's women's studies program.

March 19, 2003: President Bush declares war on Iraq

March 2003: The efforts in support of U.S. Troops fighting the war in Iraq and against the war itself are in full force on Allegheny's Campus. Yellow ribbons were sold, banners made, and political discussion sessions were held.

April 17, 2003: Robert Atkins, creator of the famous Atkins Diet, died at the age of 72.

May 1, 2003: President Bush declares combat in Iraq over just 43 days after declaring the start of the war. The war resulted in 260 coalition deaths including U.S. troops, and 43 British soldiers, marines, and airmen. Well over 1,000 Iraqi civilians were killed and over 5,000 wounded.

May 11, 2003: Allegheny College holds Commencement Ceremonies for a class of 435 in its 188th year.

May 15, 2003: June Carter Cash, country music star and wife of country music legend Johnny Cash, died at the age of 73.

June 4, 2003: A grand jury indicted Martha Stewart on nine counts for securities fraud and obstructing investigation into allegations made of insider trading of ImClone Systems Inc. stock. She is also facing civil charges for her role in insider trading. This self made millionaire and every homemaker's idol, sold close to 4,000 shares of ImClone stock the day before its value plummeted which was the start to uncovering a side of her business success no one ever suspected.

June 11, 2003: News anchorman David Brinkley, died at the age of 82.

June 12, 2003: Movie star Gregory Peck, best known for his role as Atticus Finch in "To Kill A Mockingbird," died at the age of 87.

June 21, 2003: Harry Potter and The Order of The Phoenix was released at midnight with release parties being held across the world. The sales of this book helped to bring its author, J.K. Rowling, the title of top female earner in Britain. Rowling brought in $77 million in profits this year, six times what the Queen of England makes in one year.

June 26, 2003: Strom Thurmond, a US politician known for his ultra conservative views died at the age of 100.

June 29, 2003: Actress Katharine Hepburn died at the age of 96.

July 4, 2003: Barry White, singer known for his sexy songs, died at the age of 58.

Class of 2004

In Memoriam

Charles F. Mahoney
1981-2002

"Oh yeah, life goes on;
long after the thrill of living is gone."
~John Cougar~

On Monday February 11, 2002, Charles Mahoney passed away . He was a Junior double majoring in English and Political Science. His untimely death saddened many and he will be greatly missed. Chuck will be remembered as earnest, dedicated, and he was credited with having a big heart by all who knew him. He was from Burgettstown, PA, and is survived by his parents, a younger brother, and an older sister. He was an active member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity of which he was serving as the Vice President. He also played the tight end position on the Allegheny Football team. A Golf tournament was held in his name in September 2002 and a scholarship at his high school has been set up in his name by his family.

Raymond V. Tricomi
1981-2003

"Unable are the loved to die for love is immortality."
~Emily Dickinson

Saturday February 22, 2003, a fire at an off campus house on Baldwin street left the house destroyed, five Allegheny students and two Meadville residents homeless, and one Allegheny student dead. Senior Raymond Tricomi, a Communication Arts Major, perished in the fire. Ray was a former member of Theta Chi Fraternity and was active in intramural basketball. He will be remembered as a caring and passionate person by all who knew him and will be greatly missed. He was from Wadsworth, OH. Following this tragedy, the school rallied to help the fire victims in any way possible. A benefit concert was held, ASG set up a donation fund, and dance parties were held with money benefitting the fund.

MUCH NEEDED NOURISHMENT: Emily Meyer, Heather Osterwise, Seth Walbridge, Dave DeVenney, and Megan Fabich enjoy a picnic after spending the day getting to know each other on the canoe trip.

WHAT'S THAT TREBECK?! Will Arnold, Chris Rorabaugh, and Joe Knupp play Jim Fitch, Ellen Kauffmann, and Josh Nolan in the Allegheny CLC spinoff of Celebrity Jeopardy.

IT'S CHEESY! Shea Stenglein is just a little too excited about putting the pizza that she made in the oven.

QUITE DECA-DENT: Mary Shreve really finds the pizza made by fellow CLC-ers to be quite scrumptious.

JUST A NOTE TO SAY I CARE: The CLC boxes are a tradition at CLC--participants leave messages of encouragement to each other.

CRAZY JOE: Kristen Gall and Julie Wilson are brave enough to pose with crazy Joe DiChristina during CLC. Watch out!

Oceans of Opportunity

Orientation 2002

STRAIGHT A'S: These new freshmen display sheets with big A's on them--the first letter of their new school and the grade they hope shows up a lot on their report card.

ATTACK OF THE GATOR: The freshmen will do anything to get into the Allegheny spirit, even as much as trying to imitate our loyal mascot.

WHAT'S THAT FLYING THROUGH THE AIR? Somehow it seems as though this group is supposed to be looking at the rock memorial in front of them not whatever is in the sky.

ONE MAN'S TRASH IS ANOTHER MAN'S TREASURE: This orientation group tries to look as stellar as one of Allegheny's famous road sign flowers.

Above: ORIENTATION LEADERS 2002: The orientation leaders for the 2002 year were a wonderful, diverse group and worked hard to make the new freshmen feel right at home at Allegheny College; and their success became very evident!

Left: KISSING CO-ED'S?! These freshmen women stand on the newly replaced 13th plank on the rustic bridge. Looks like there will be no dating upperclassmen for them!

CORNERSTONES 2002. This award was created to recognize the accomplishments of outstanding seniors who have contributed to the Allegheny Community. The recipients of this award are chosen on the basis of leadership, community involvement, and academic accomplishments throughout their four years at Allegheny. It is a distinct honor to be chosen as a cornerstone. This year's cornerstone winners were Rebekah Gayley, Julie Hersh, Krista Igou, Abby Collier, Matthew Synan, Ryan Reczek, Andrea Chalmers, Megan Fabich, Devon Hailey, and Leah Cole.

Pre-Game Pep Talk

Head Football Coach Mark Matlak gives the team a pep talk before they head out on the field to challenge Wooster for the Homecoming Game. The Gator's lost 7-21.

Party Hearty

There is no question that Dave DeVenney and Jerry Zupan are having a great time at the Allegheny Homecoming Dance in the Wise Center.

The First Family of Allegheny

President Cook and his wife, Teri Lahti, bundled up and joined the fans at the Homecoming Game to cheer on the Allegheny Gators.

THREE HEADS (OR GREEK ORGANIZATIONS) ARE BETTER THAN ONE: Alpha Chi Omega, Phi Kappa Psi, and Theta Chi teamed up to reenact the stealing of the 13th plank off the rustic bridge and earned themselves the Best Float award.

THE PRIDE OF ALLEGHENY: Alpha Delta Pi and Sigma Alpha Epsilon paired up to show their Allegheny pride.

MILK ME: Kappa Alpha Theta and Delta Tau Delta paired up to create a spoof of the "Got Milk"? ads for their Homecoming float.

LEADING THE PACK: Several Allegheny Students and other members of the West Mead #2 Volunteer Fire Department supply the traditional fire engine to the Homecoming Parade.

THERE'S A PINNING TONITE! Kappa Kappa Gamma and Phi Delta Theta recreated a pinning ceremony at Brooks for their Homecoming float.

SOUTH HIGHLAND HOTTIES: The residents of South Highland came out in full support of this year's Homecoming.

G-O-G-A-T-O-R-S! These three girls know that the Gator's love to yell and when we yell we yell like hell!

FAMILY AND FRIENDS: Members of the Staff Advisory Council and their families put together a great float illustrating this year's homecoming theme and featuring their kids musical talents.

LOOK MOM I'M A GATOR! This little guy is having a great time at the Homecoming Game dressed as the Allegheny Mascot...think he might really be a Gator one day?

FUN FOR ALL AGES: Members of ANTS (Allegheny Non-Traditional Students) got their kids involved in showing Gator spirit and earned themselves Best Walking Entry with their snazzy moving gator float and mini gator kids.

PRETTY WOMEN: These six freshmen ladies get their first taste of what a good party the Gator's throw.

break from working hard on this project to pose for the camera.

THE TERRIFIC THREESOME:
These three guys take a break from working hard to show that they can still look good after a long day of helping out the community.

GREEN THUMBED GATORS:
These two girls try their hand at fixing up a garden for a Meadville resident. It looks like they are doing a great job too!

A HOUSE INTO A HOME:
This group of Allegheny students works on many aspects of this local house to make it more livable for its residents.

SLOW AND STEADY ...
Members of the track and field team show that they work well as a team both on and off the field.

GAP PRESENTS: On September 12th, popular comedian and Saturday Night Live cast member Jimmy Fallon packed Shafer Auditorium.

FUNKY CHICKEN: The annual Wingfest was held on September 21st on Brooks Lawn and with nice weather and a huge crowd, was a great time for all who attended.

AND THE WINNER IS...Cristin Giancola presents a DVD player to Oi-Ling Yu at a GAP afterhours event.

The 2002-2003 school year was full of awesome events sponsored by G.A.P. They showed 19 recently released movies including Spider Man, Divine Secrets of the Ya Ya Sisterhood, My Big Fat Greek Wedding, and Harry Potter & The Chamber of Secrets. They also sponsored over a dozen performers such as Jimmy Fallon, illusionist Craig Karges, musician Ron Irizary, comedian Juston McKinney, Irish band "Stand," and "The Clarks. Wingfest and the many Afterhours events, such as survival bingo, casino night, and karaoke were as big a hit as ever. This year also saw the introduction of Allegheny Idol, a spin-off of the TV show American Idol.

ALLEGHENY GREEK LIFE

Right: PHI PSI STYLE:

Looks like Tex, Ryan, and Brett not only learn brotherhood and leadership as members of Phi Kappa Psi but they also learn how to dress handsomely.

Below: YOU ARE THE ONE WE WANT!

The sisters of Alpha Delta Pi present "Grease" with a personal touch during the third night of formal recruitment.

Far Right: Sam Urlick epitomizes the 80's hair band look while the brothers of Sigma Alpha Epsilon perform "Pour Some Sugar on Me" at this year's Greek Sing.

Above: "I'M SO HAPPY THAT I AM A" ...The sisters of Kappa Kappa Gamma serenade their new members with a traditional song at this year's spring run-out.

Above: OL' BROWN EYES: The brothers of Phi Delta Theta croon out the words of Van Morrison's "Brown Eyed Girl" at Greek Sing.

Below: ALPHA CHI'S ON FIRE! The sisters of Alpha Chi Omega pose together after their awesome performance of "Hot Hot Hot" at Greek Sing.

Greek Sing

Greek Sing was a hit as always with some of the most creative performances yet. This year's winners were Delta Tau Delta for the third year in a row and Alpha Chi Omega also for the third year in a row. Pictured here are Brothers of Delta Tau Delta Ben Munroe and Matt "Batch" Adams playing Mavrick and Goose from Top Gun.

Greek Goddess

Sponsored by the sisters of Kappa Alpha Theta, the Greek Goddess competition brought out the woman in ten fraternity men. The contestants were judged based on evening gown wear, talent (karaoke), group toga dance, and a question and answer period. The winner was Greg "Tex" Goga of Phi Kappa Psi. Pictured here are IFC President Ryan Reczek and Panhel President Kristen Gall.

Sigma Rho Chi's

This year the Recruitment Counselors for women's recruitment were changed to Sorority Recruitment Counselors, or Sigma Rho Chi's. Thanks to their hard work and dedication to promoting Greek Life as a whole on Allegheny's campus, spring recruitment was a huge success.

MGCA

Fifteen members and leaders of the Greek community traveled to Chicago, Illinois for the annual MGCA conference. There they attended sessions on many aspects of Greek Life and brought back many wonderful ideas on how to continue improving Greek Life here at Allegheny.

Greek Week

This year's Greek Week was a huge success thanks to the hard work of the Panhellenic and Interfraternal Councils. Events included Greek Awards, an All-Greek Letter Day, Mud Games at Robertson Field, and a Greek Service Day and Picnic. Pictured here are muddy ladies Erin Brady, Sarah Klingler, and Erica Kovach.

No Matter The Letter, We're All Greek Together

Activities Fair

The Activities Fair is held at the beginning of each semester to give students, both new and returning, the opportunity to learn about the many organizations at Allegheny and allows students to sign up to be a member of these organizations.

Below: SERVICE TO ALL: Members of Alpha Phi Omega promote their co-ed service fraternity.

Left: KING OF THE ADVOCATES: Blair Anundson is surely at the activities fair representing more than one political or environmental group.

Below Left: LET'S GO TO THE FAIR! The campus center lobby played host to both the fall and spring fairs.

Below: TWINKLE TOES: Members of JaDE (Jazz and Dance Ensemble) show some of their sweet dance moves to try to recruit more members.

Above Left: HAVE PRIDE IN YOURSELF AND OTHERS: Members of Allegheny Gay Pride promote their values and events in hopes of increasing acceptance of all types of lifestyles.

Right: WE'RE FEELIN' HUT HUT HUT! Members of Habitat for Humanity proudly display pictures from the years events and hope to gain more help in achieving their goal of building a house.

Above: CUTE AND CREATIVE COOKS: Students from the Arts House came out to promote their houses' fun events--and who could resist with homemade yummy cookies as a reward?!

Left: PI WALKS THIS WAY, PI TALKS THIS WAY: The sisters of Alpha Delta Pi performed Aerosmith and RunDMC's "Walk This Way."

Below: CAN YOU WORK IT? Last year's winners, ABC, performed two numbers, one to Missy Elliot's latest hit, and a step number.

Above: SAE N'SYNC: The brothers of Sigma Alpha Epsilon perform to a Justin Timberlake and N'Sync Medley.

Left: THE GOOD OL' DAYS: The Brothers of Theta Chi dance to "Glory Days" by Bruce Springsteen.

AND YOUR HOSTS ARE...John Meyer and Meredith Buesching were the hosts of this years SAMS event.

Above: ARE YOU DIRTY? The sisters of Alpha Chi Omega, with the help of some generous fellows, do a Christina Aguilera medley.

S.A.M.S

AND THE WINNER IS...? The brothers of Delta Tau Delta put on an entertaining show as always. Their songs included "Ghetto Superstar," "Baby I Got Your Money," "Superfreak," and "Can't Touch This." For their performance they recieved four awards: Most Money Raised, Best Costume, Best Greek Performance, and Best Overall Performance.

Alternative Spring Break ASB

Statesville, NC
Students helped Habitat for Humanity to build homes for community members.

Cullowhee, NC
Students worked with an agency called Southern Appalachian Building Aid to repair homes in this area.

Buffalo, NY
Students attending this trip worked with VIVE, a refugee center.

Washington, D.C.
Attendees worked with the issue of HIV and AIDS in with a group called Food and Friends, Inc.

Huddleston, VA
These students did environmental work at Smith Mountain Lake Park.

Springfest

Springfest, sponsored by G.A.P. and ASG, was held on April 12th. Though the weather didn't seem like it was going to cooperate, the day turned out to be beautiful for events both inside the Wise Center and out. Four bands performed: Distorted Penguins, Oval Opus, Buzz Poets, and The Clarks. Other events included Henna tattoos, blow-up volleyball, climbing wall, caricatures, a pie the presidents booth, and lots of vendors from both the Meadville community and school organizations.

AT LEAST IT'S NOT PERMANENT! Many Springfest goers took the chance to get a tattoo of the temporary and au natural kind from a Henna artist.

EVERYONE'S FAVORITE! The Wise Center was packed for Springfest's most popular event, Pittsburgh band The Clarks, that had the crowd going wild.

IS THAT REALLY WHAT WE LOOK LIKE?!
Students had the opportunity to get silly caricatures of themselves drawn by a local artist

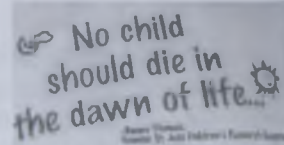

ENJOYING THE BEAUTIFUL WEATHER:
Students had the opportunity to scale the Outdoor Programs rock climbing wall.

THE TALENTS OF ALLEGHENY: Students listened to many student performers during Springfest, in addition to professional bands.

Up 'Til Dawn

ALL TOGETHER NOW: Members of the Up 'Til Dawn exec board and committees pose with Wendy Nave, Allegheny's ALSAC/St. Jude Representative.

Top Right: THE NEXT GIRLBAND? Sara Schmidt, Sahr Said, and Katie Shreve record their beautiful singing at the make your own CD booth.

GET YOUR GROOVE ON! Participants in Up 'Til Dawn take part in the dance marathon portion of the evening.

ARE YOU STRONG ENOUGH TO BE MY MAN? These guys display their strength by building a pyramid built on trust.

KAPPA KRAZIES: Maggie Behr, Crystal Wincko, Katie Wheeler, and frind let their silly side show!

LET THE GAMES BEGIN! A Four Square Tournament was one of the highlights of this year's UTD celebration.

 Supporting a good cause and having fun at the same time...

LOVE IN ALL SHAPES AND SIZES: This couple kisses and makes up after challenging each other at sumo wrestling.

HAPPINESS IS... As these balloons will tell you, helping the children at St. Jude Hospital really makes you feel great.

ALL SMILES: Now that their hard work has paid off, Advisor Keri Fadden, Executive Director Lindsay Nagle, and Advising Assistant Ryan Reczek can have a little fun.

 Thoughts on leadership from Allegheny Students...

John Hreha, one of the featured student speakers, shares his leadership wisdom. The other student speaker was Amanda Childs.

"To me, leadership is accepting the responsibilities and sacrifices necessary to make a positive impact on the lives of others."
~Chessy Cortese~

"You can either take credit for something or you can make it happen, a leader is someone who makes things happen."
~Sharon Greene~

Club sports are funded by Allegheny Student Government. They play teams from many schools in the area. These sports are completely student run.

The History of Allegheny's Mascot

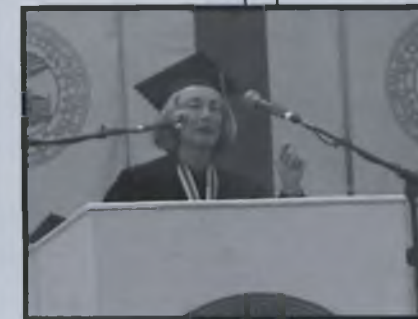

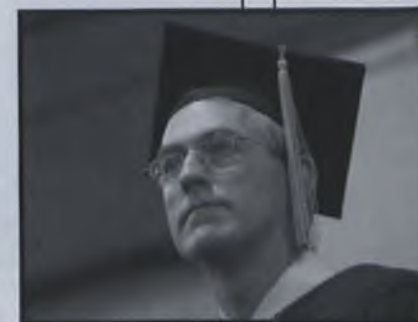

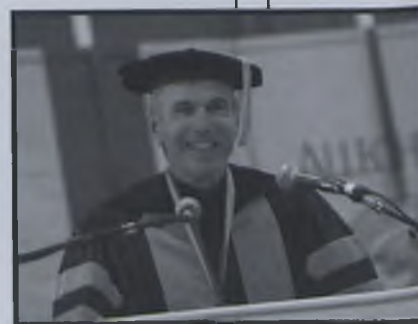

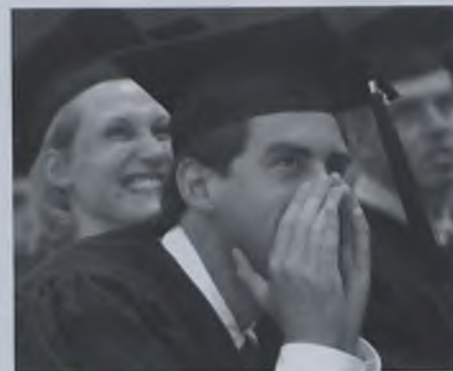

Over the years Allegheny's athletic teams have had many names such as the Hilltoppers, Methodists, and the Blue and Gold which all seem fitting. So how did we become the Gators? While the Gator doesn't seem to be the most obvious choice of mascots for Allegheny, a school nestled in northwest Pennsylvania there is a great story behind its arrival. In April of 1925, a group of Allegheny students published the first issue of a humor magazine that was titled Allegheny Alligator for the following reasoning which appeared in the first issue of the publication:

"The name, Alligator, was selected not because the alligator is noted for its sense of humor, nor because the haunts of the above-mentioned critter are located in this vicinity, but purely and simply because of the 99.4% alliterative value of its orthography. ...an Alligator has such a stupid, complacent sophistication that he will doubtless feel very much at home among a group of college students."

The first issue also contained a column titled "Gator Gossip," and in the fall of 1926, a new organization appeared on campus called the Go-Get-'Em Gator Club, the predecessor to the SWAMP. At football games, the club made its presence felt by occupying a reserved section of the bleachers and acted as the prime cheering section. By the end of the decade of the 1920's, Allegheny's athletic teams were referred to as the Gators.

class of 2003 Graduation

COMMENCEMENT 2003: On May 11, 2003, the 188th year of Allegheny College, 435 tassels were turned from left to right as graduates received their diplomas. The class included 391 May graduates, 36 January 2003 graduates, and eight September 2002 graduates. Due to inclement weather in the morning, the commencement ceremonies were held in the Wise Center. Honorary Doctoral Degrees were awarded to three people: Richard L. Pevar '64 and his wife Larissa Volokhonsky, who have spent the last 15 years producing award-winning translations of Russian literature's classics, and Robert D. Dowling who performed the first double lung transplant, and the first ventricular remodeling in Kentucky. Mr. Pevar and Ms. Volokhonsky received Doctor of Humane Letters Degrees (L.H.D.) and Dr. Dowling received a Doctor of Science Degree (Sc.D.) Ms. Willow Wilcox Brost '74, a member of the Allegheny College Board of Trustees was a welcome speaker. The class Valedictorian was Britt Marie Russert who, along with five other students graduated summa cum laude. The requirements for which are a cumulative average of 3.9 or above and a meritorious record; 55 students graduated magna cum laude with a cumulative average of 3.6-3.89, and 91 students graduated cum laude with a cumulative average of 3.3 to 3.59.

*Fair Allegheny, yonder on the hill
Through all the years our hearts are turning still
In love to thee, and so they ever will
O, Alma Mater, Beatissima*

*Warm rests the sun, so soft on wall and vine:
No air in all the world can equal thine,
Again we flame our torches at thy shrine,
O, Alma Mater, Beatissima*
