Dear Ida:—

Your letter came duly to hand but not your telegram. Am so sorry it does not suit you to lecture for us in April, but feel somewhat consoled at the hope of having you for ours in the Fall. Our programme Com. will start work on the New Year Book in May. Am sure they will write you and I hope you will be able to fix on a definite date by that time. Both Mrs. Rauh and I think you have hit upon a splendid subject, "The American Woman" and shall be rather proud in having you give it to our Council for the first time. We only hope that nothing will again arise to interfere with your coming to us no later than November. However, you can arrange this with our programme Com. I know A. Leo Weil and wife will be so disappointed for they had looked forward to having you as their guest. Adelphus is a splendid man and his wife is in every way worthy of such a husband.

In the meantime, if you have any photographs
