THIS LETTER WRITTEN FROM
SUITE 1101-1104 HIPPODROME BUILDING

CLEVELAND Nov. 28, 1916.

Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
132 E. 19th St.,
New York, N. Y.

Dear Miss Tarbell:

You probably realize as well as I that good, honest criticism is difficult to get. Here is a letter from Dr. Woodley, of Huntington, W. Va., that contains what doubtless is honest criticism. Take it for whatever it may be worth.

In talking this over with Mr. Coit today I remarked that the very feature of your lecturing that Dr. Woodley seems to criticize is what appeals strongest to us. We have heard so many lecturers who were much more interested in how a thing was going to sound than in what they were really saying, and as we would sit back and hear them we could "see the wheels go around." On the other hand, you are so sincere in your lecturing, and you are interested only in the truth. However, large numbers of people like to get the thrill that Dr. Woodley speaks of.

Yours sincerely,

LJA-MM.
Enc.
